

spring meeting for sheep; one for the best two toothed ram of the fine woolled breed, and another for the best two toothed ram of the long woolled breed. In the first case the quality of wool is the principal object, in the second the quantity of wool; but in both cases the judges will take into view every quality which the animals may possess, that render them valuable tops of their respective breeds.

That at least two thirds of the amount of premiums to be given for sheep shall be for the long woolled breed.

ORDER IN COUNCIL.
From the London Gazette.

At the court at the queen's palace, the 2d of May, 1810—present the king's most excellent majesty in council

His majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of his privy council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that all vessels which shall have cleared out from any port, so far under the control of France or her allies as that British vessels may not freely trade thereat, and which are employed at the whale fishery or other fishery of any description, save as herein after described, and are returning, or declined to return, either to the port from whence they cleared, or to any other port or place, at which the British flag may not freely trade, shall be captured and condemned, together with their logs and cargo, as prize to the captors.

But his majesty is pleased to except from this order, vessels employed in conveying fish to market, such vessels not being fitted or provided for the curing of fish.

And it is further ordered, that all vessels subject to the provision of this order as aforesaid, which shall have sailed on their present voyage previous to notice of this order, shall be permitted to return to their own port without molestation on account of any thing contained in this order; provided they shall not have continued on their fishery more than 21 days (which are hereby allowed to such vessels) after due warning of this order received at sea. And the right hon. the lords commissioners of his majesty's treasury, his majesty's principal secretaries of state, the lords commissioners of the admiralty, and the judge of the high court of admiralty, and judges of the courts of vice-admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

A family in the greatest anxiety and affliction respecting the fate of a young gentleman, a naval officer, who, after being shipwrecked, is believed, in a prison at Carthage, in New Spain, in 1806 or 1807—earnestly request J. Reynolds, supposed to be a native of the Isle of Wight, and known to be a prisoner at Carthage in 1807, and to have acted as a tailor for his fellow prisoners, should see this advertisement, he will call or write to any of his Britannic majesty's consuls in the U. States of America, and humbly request the officer alluded to; or should any person in America have any knowledge of J. Reynolds as above described, and give information where he can be found, it will be a mark of humanity to the officer's miserable family.

It is also earnestly requested, that should a seaman by the name of Irwin, who was allowed a prison at Carthage at the above time; or Enoch Staples (supposed an American); or a seaman by the name of Moore (who after leaving Carthage, went in the Felicity, an American schooner, bound to Baltimore, and was taken and carried into Halifax, in a British ship of war); or Wyat, another seaman, who had also been in prison at Carthage; should any of these persons see this notice, it is earnestly entreated by the afflicted family, that he or they will have the humanity to give all the information in their power respecting the officer in question; or should any one of the persons named be able to give intelligence where the others can be written to, it will be most humane to give information according to the reference as aforesaid.

CONSULAR OFFICE OF SPAIN.
Philadelphia, July 13, 1810.

The government of the Regency of Spain & Indies, has especially charged its consuls residing within the United States, to encourage, as far as may be in their power, the exportation of Indian Corn and Flour, to the ports of Galicia and to that of Cadiz, with an assurance, that at present, all such speculations promise considerable advantage, and particularly in the ports of Galicia, where great scarcity of provisions prevail at this moment.

The proceeds of all such cargoes may be exported in specie, at the option of the concerned.

Fifty Dollars Reward.
NEGRO AQUILA.

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living on Elk Ridge, in Anne-Arundel county, State of Maryland, on the 7th of July, 1810, a very dark mulatto man, named AQUILA, about 24 years of age, six feet high, thin faced and small eyes, spare made, has short wool, stoops a little, speaks slow and tolerably plain, his voice rather soft. Had on when he went away, a ticklenburg shirt and trousers, a pair of double soled shoes, nailed and much worn, a white hat half worn, one white woollen coat, wove plain and full, half worn; I make no doubt but that he has other cloaths, and will change his name, as he is an artful villain. I purchased said negro (at the sale of Richard Marriott, deceased, who lived in the neighbourhood of the Indian Landing. I have understood that he has been seen going into that neighbourhood. I will give the above reward to any person bringing or securing said fellow in any goal, so that I get him again, including what the law allows, if out of this state, or Twenty-five Dollars if taken any where within this state, so that I get him again, paid by THOMAS WORTHINGTON, John.

In Chancery,
July 5, 1810.

John H. Blue, against
Sarah Townshend & Peter Armbruster.

THE object of the petition in this cause is to obtain a decree for recording a deed of bargain and sale from the said Sarah Townshend to the said Peter Armbruster, bearing date on the twelfth day of December, eighteen hundred and nine, for the conveyance of a lot or parcel of ground, situate and lying at Elk-ridge, in Anne-Arundel county, known and distinguished on the plot thereof, by the number twenty-eight. The petition states, that the said deed hath not been recorded agreeably to law, without any fraudulent design or intention of the parties; and that the said Sarah Townshend and Peter Armbruster, do not reside in this state, but are residents of the state of Pennsylvania. It is thereupon, on motion of the petitioner, ordered and adjudged, that the petitioner cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, weekly, for the term of three weeks successively, before the third day of August next, to the intent that the said defendants, and each of them, may have notice to be & appear in this honourable court on or before the 3d day of December next, to shew cause, if any they have, why a decree for recording the said deed should not pass agreeably to the prayer of the said petitioner.

JONA. PINKNEY, Cashier.

MARYLAND,
Anne-Arundel county, to wit.

ON application to me the subscriber, in the records of Anne-Arundel county court, as one of the associate judges of the third judicial district of Maryland, by petition, in writing, of Thomas Whitefoot, of said county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, one thousand eight hundred and five, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and the said Thomas Whitefoot having satisfied me, by competent testimony, that he has resided in the state of Maryland for the period of two years immediately preceding this his application, and the constable of Anne-Arundel county having certified, that the said petitioner is in his custody for debt only; and the said Thomas Whitefoot having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at Anne-Arundel county court, to answer such allegations as may be made against him by his creditors—I do therefore order and adjudge, that the said Thomas Whitefoot be discharged from his imprisonment, and that he, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the public newspapers in Anne-Arundel county for two months successively before the 17th of September next, give notice to his creditors to appear before Anne-Arundel county court, in the city of Annapolis, on the said 17th September next, at 10 o'clock in the morning, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Thomas Whitefoot should not have the benefit of the said act; and supplements thereto, as prayed: Given under my hand and seal, this 25th day of June, 1810.

Anne-Arundel county, to wit.

ON application to me the subscriber, in the records of the court, as one of the judges of the third judicial district of the state of Maryland, by petition, in writing, of James Hiatt, of Anne-Arundel county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, and the supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and the said James Hiatt having satisfied me, by competent testimony, that he hath resided in the state of Maryland for two years immediately preceding the time of his application, and having also stated in said petition, that he is now in actual confinement for debt, and not on account of any breach of the laws of this state, or of the United States, and having produced to me the certificate of the constable of Anne-Arundel county to that effect, and prayed to be discharged from said confinement on the terms prescribed by the said act, and having given security for his personal appearance at September court next, to answer any allegations that may be made against him by his creditors. I do therefore hereby order and adjudge, that the same James Hiatt be discharged from his confinement; and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some one of the newspapers of Anne-Arundel county for two months successively before the 17th September next, he give notice to his creditors to appear before the county court, at the court-house in the said county, at 10 o'clock in the morning of the said day, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said James Hiatt should not have the benefit of the several acts of assembly of this state for the relief of insolvent debtors, as prayed. Given under my hand and seal, this twenty-fifth of June, 1810.
