THE GLEANER—NO. I.

WE PROPOSE under this head to publish a weekly miscellany, composed principally of extracts from the best authors. Our contracted limits will necessarily render our extracts very concise, but we shall endeavour to select such comprehensive passages as may suggest topics for reflection, or incentives to research.

EXTRACTS.

"To these domestic duties and obligations, may be added what belongs to us in the aggregate, as the refiners of manners, and the conservators of morals; and in these cases every judicious statesman readily allows our relative importance. No nation has preserved its political independence for any long period after its women became dissipated and licentious."

"Where a woman, who is born to the possession of rank and affluence, properly appreciates those blessings, and instead of circumscribing them within the narrow sphere of self-enjoyment, endeavours to diffuse improvement and comfort wherever her influence extends."

"What a pity, that so much pains should be exerted for such a subordinate purpose; and in which since all those whom you seek to amaze are your competitors your chance of success is so very limited!"

Hannah Moore on Education.

tion, here, claim that reward for its sincerity, to which it is not entitled by talent. All that can be done for the unsuccessful candidate for fashionable eclat is, to remove her to some narrower sphere.

This is to give notice,

THAT the subscriber hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, letters of administration with the will annexed, on the personal estate of JOHN MUIR, late of the city of Annapolis, deceased.

NOTICE.

ALL those who are indebted to the late firm of Michael and B. CURRAN, either by note, bond or open account, are requested to come and pay the same, as a longer indulgence cannot be given; and the subscriber earnestly requests their particular attention to this notice, as suits will be commenced against all delinquents to April term.

B. CURRAN respectfully informs the citizens of Annapolis and the public generally, that he has a few articles in the dry goods line, purchased for cash, which will be sold low for the same; also a quantity of writing paper, quills, inkpowder and a dozen of Boston made Morocco Shoes.

Private Sale.

THE subscriber offers for sale the land on which he now lives, containing 233 acres, lying on the Chesapeake bay, near Plum Point; it is well adapted to the growth of tobacco and small grain; contains a plenty of timber for plantation uses, and on which cedar polls may be got to pay a great part of the purchase money.

WILLIAM PRITCHARD, Manager. March 16, 1811.

Anne-Arundel County, sc.

ON application to me, the subscriber, in the recess of Anne-Arundel county court, as one of the associate judges of the judicial district of Maryland, by petition, in writing, of Dennis Iglehart, of Anne-Arundel county, praying for the benefit of the law for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the said Dennis Iglehart having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided in the State of Maryland the years immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said Dennis Iglehart, at the time of presenting his petition, having produced to me the assent in writing of many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts due to him, it is thereupon ordered and adjudged, that the said Dennis Iglehart, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette once a week for three months successively, before the fourth Monday of April next, give notice to his creditors to appear before the county court, to be held in the city of Annapolis, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the said fourth Monday of April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, & to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Dennis Iglehart should not have the benefit of the said act, and supplements, as prayed. Given under my hand, the ninth day of January, 1811.

Anne-Arundel county court,

September term, 1810.

ON application to the judges of the said county court, by petition, in writing, of John Dove of said county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, on the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, as directed by the said act, being annexed to his petition, the said county court being satisfied by competent testimony that the said John Dove has resided the two preceding years prior to the passage of the said act within the State of Maryland; and the said John Dove, at the time of presenting his petition, as aforesaid, having produced to the said court the assent in writing, of so many of his creditors as have due to them the amount of two thirds of the debts due by him at the time of his said petition, it is thereupon adjudged and ordered by the said court, that the said John Dove, (by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the news-papers published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three successive months before the third Monday of April next,) give notice to his creditors to appear before the said county court, to be held at the city of Annapolis, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the said third Monday of April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said John Dove then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for verifying up his property. Signed by order of the said Anne-Arundel county court.

Anne-Arundel County, sc.

APPLICATION having been made to the subscriber, in the recess of Anne-Arundel county court, by petition, in writing, of Charles Wilkes of said county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition, and the said Charles Wilkes having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided in the State of Maryland for the two years immediately preceding the time of his application, having stated in his petition that he is now in confinement for debt, and praying to be discharged from confinement, I do therefore order and adjudge that the said Charles Wilkes be discharged from imprisonment, and that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette weekly for three months successively, before the third Monday in April next, give notice to his creditors to appear before Anne-Arundel county court, on the third Monday in April next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Charles Wilkes should not have the benefit of the said act, and supplements. Given under my hand this 26th day of July, 1810.

Notice.

WHEREAS many persons are in the habit of passing through my farms, and with carts into the woods and stealing my property, and going with dogs and guns, to the injury of my property; this is therefore to give notice, that all persons trespassing on my farms shall be prosecuted according to law.
