

POET'S CORNER.

SELECTED.

Let us all be unhappy together.
OH! come on some cold rainy day, When the birds cannot show a dry feather, Bring your sighs and your tears, Granny Gray,
Let us all be unhappy together.

THE GLEANER.

HUMILITY has been justly considered as the brightest ornament and jewel of Christianity, the peculiar grace that distinguishes it from all the religions, that ever claimed the acceptance of mankind: And if we justly appreciate the advantages of this virtue, in improving the heart of him who possesses it, & the condition of all who are within the reach of its influence; if we consider how it affects us in all the changes of life; how moderate it renders us in prosperity, how patient in adversity, how contented in every state, how it reduces our vain expectations, checks the ardour of pursuit, and makes us wisely temperate in enjoyment; in short, how it rectifies our erroneous opinions of God, of the world, and of ourselves; if these things, I say, are daily estimated, we shall find abundant cause to confess, that in learning "of Him who was meek and lowly of heart, we shall "surely find rest unto our souls;" that Heaven alone could have propounded such a lesson of wisdom; that the teacher of humility is the prophet of God.

Christian! would you see a perfect pattern of humility? Examine the life and doctrines of your Lord. He was born in a mean and low condition, of a people in servitude, the feign of the surrounding nations, and of a tribe of that people, whom even the Jews themselves despised. He was the reputed son of a poor mechanic; his cradle was a manger; his intimate friends, and associates were illiterate fishermen; and often he had not where to lay his head. When he placed a little child in the midst of his ambitious followers, when he girded himself with a towel, and washed his disciples feet; in every action and discourse of this Divine Teacher, he gave the world a matchless example of humility, to prostrate the pride and vain imaginations of man at the footstool of his throne.

Well did he know the human heart, who thus laid his axe to the root of the tree. For if we examine ourselves, we shall find, that there is no passion more deeply fixed, or more productive of the bitter fruits of misery, than pride. We hear it in the first lipings, and trace it in the restless aspirations of a child.
It grows with us, from youth to manhood; it clings to us as we go down the hill of life; and the funeral pomp, mocking the unconscious dead, tells us that it descends with us into the grave. Yet, if we look within us, and around us, and see how helpless, how dependent we are, we must confess that "pride was not made for man."

[Monitor.]

"If a person come to a serious declaration in your favour, affect no prudish airs or reserve. If you really feel an affection for him, and can indulge it with prudence, do not trouble to acknowledge it, or to treat him with the greatest openness and candour. This will engage forever the esteem of every liberal and honest man. If you cannot receive him as a lover, you will not fail to retain him as a friend. Suffer not your imagination to be dazzled with mere splendour. The glitter of wealth and equipage has induced many a poor girl to sacrifice her peace at the shrine of vanity; and her nightly pillow steeped in tears and bitter regret, has soon told her that "better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith."

Never suffer yourself to think, with partiality, of a person who is not guided by religious principles. A good man alone is capable of true attachment, fidelity, and affection.
Others may feel a fugitive passion; but on this, alas, you can place no dependence. Nothing but religion is permanent, always consistent and always the same. Look for a person of a domestic cast. Of what consequence to you are the good qualities of your husband if he be seldom at home? It has been often asserted, that a reformed rake makes the best husband. It may be so; but I would not have you to risk your peace on so dangerous an experiment. Although not absolutely necessary, yet it is highly desirable, that the man with whom you are to spend your days, should be a man of sentiment and taste.
These qualities will variegate every hour with fresh pleasure, every scene with animated remarks, and every incident with the liveliest interest. Fortune surely should be considered as proportioned to your habits, education, and station in life. But if you find the other requisites, be as moderate as possible in this.
A morsel thus sweetened will be pleasant to the taste. In a cottage so enlivened, joy will spring. The Almighty will look down from Heaven with approbation, and crown the happy pair with the choicest of his blessings!

THE Managers having understood that many of the Citizens have delayed purchasing TICKETS, from an apprehension that the drawing would not commence until a distant day. To remove such impressions, and with a view to attain the objects contemplated by the law, as soon as possible, they confidently assure the public, that the sale of a few more Tickets will justify them in commencing the drawing; they therefore earnestly solicit all those disposed to purchase to come forward, and notify to some one of the Managers, what number of Tickets they are willing to take.

PAUL'S DOMESTIC INFALLIBLE
COLUMBIAN OIL.

THE inventor of this highly esteemed medicine is a native of America, and the composition is the production of American soil; consequently it is in every sense of the word domestic. It is not pulled up with a numerous train of pompous foreign certificates of persons from whom by the great distance that separates us 'tis impossible to obtain information, therefore the public has better security for their money as there cannot be the least shadow of deception to cover his medicine, for he simply appears before the community with his invention and an experimental detail of the various cases in which it really is so wonderfully efficacious, and in which he is so particularly successful, and in which he is so particularly successful, whose names are not only subscribed, but their persons may be also consulted, being residents within the circle of our own neighbourhood. The following are the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found to effect cures and rarely except fails of effecting a cure, viz: Rheumatism, Consumption, Pain in any parts of the body, but particularly in the back and breast, Colds and Coughs, Tooth-aches, Pleurisy, Cholera, Cramps, External and Internal Bruises, Sprains and Flesh Wounds, Scalds and Burns, Whooping Cough & Mumps, and Dysentery or Bloody Flux, Cramp and the summer complaint in children, and in a weak stomach that is caused by indigestion, a constant sinking and loss of appetite, it will act as a powerful tonic to the relaxed nerves and restore it to its proper tone.

It seems also as if nature had looked in the first of the class of all persons and especially for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it cures every kind of removing obstructions in either, particularly those who are troubled with Phthisis or Asthma complaints, who in the act of walking fast, stooping or lying down, are almost unable to get a breath of air, and the Columbian Oil will render some relief instantaneously, and if continued agreeably to the directions in such cases, will prove a radical cure by producing the full power of inflation to the lungs and free expansion to the breast.

CERTIFICATES OF ITS EFFICACY

No. 1. Sept. 1809.
I do certify, that I have been a long time, two years with a hectic cough and violent impurifica-tion at the lungs—I applied to the most eminent physicians and could get no relief from my low state of health, until I got Paul's Columbian Oil, and found immediate relief. I take the method of its forming the public of the efficacy of this valuable medicine, from the cures which I have experienced.
I think it my duty to offer the same to the public.

ELISHA SOWARD.

Baltimore No. 16, Water-street, sign of the plough.

No. 2. Sept. 1809.

From the great benefit I received from your Columbian Oil, I am induced to state, I was taken with a violent sore throat, about the 26th of Aug. last, which continued till the first of the month, when I applied your oil externally, and washed the part affected with the oil diluted in the same quantity of molasses, which took away pieces of purified flesh and healed my throat in about 45 hours.

N. B. I also certify, that I nursed my grandchild, and infant of 17 months old which was taken about the first of August with slow fevers and loss of appetite. We immediately applied for a physician, who gave every attention for about 10 days but all to no effect; the child was given up by the physicians, and had every appearance of death, when I applied for Paul's Columbian Oil, and gave five drops morning and evening, for five days, when the child began to recover, and is now in perfect health.

MARY UNDERWOOD.

Baltimore, by Peter's Bridge.

No. 3. Sept. 6.

I hereby certify, that I had a cough and pain in my stomach for upwards of two years, when I was recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil. I procured one phial of that valuable medicine, which has restored me to a good state of health again.

THOMAS ELLIOTT.

On the Hook's-town road near the turnpike gate.

No. 4. Feb. 12, 1809.

I have great reason to be very thankful for being recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil I had been afflicted with a violent pain in my back, so that I was not able to walk. I procured one phial of the oil, and I received immediate relief, & I have been very well ever since.

N. B. I had a violent toothach about two or three months ago, when I dropped a few drops of the above oil on some lint, and applied it to the tooth affected, and I received immediate relief.

ELEANOR ELLIOTT.

No. 5.

I comply with your request of stating my opinion of Paul's Columbian Oil, being an effectual remedy for the tetter worm. I have been afflicted with the tetter in my hand for 12 years, and have made trial of many medicines which have been recommended, but all to no effect. Hearing of Paul's Columbian Oil, about the 15th of January last, procuring an effectual cure for the ringworm and similar complaints. I immediately got a phial of your Oil, and applied it agreeably to the directions for about two months successively—when the tetter left me, and has not made its appearance since.

SUSANNA PURDEN.

N. B. My Susanna, a child aged 20 months & 6 days, was taken about the middle of July last, with a violent cough, which the neighbours said was the whooping cough; I gave her six drops of the Columbian Oil, which gave immediate relief, and proved an effectual cure.
