DAVID KERR,

In Chancery,
May 13, 1811.
John Sullivan and John Murray, vs.
Samuel Young.
THE object of the bill is to obtain a sale of a house and lot in the precinct of Annapolis, for the payment of the debts due by John Young, deceased. The bill shews, that John Mair sold the said house and lot to Absolute Phelps and John Young, who paid a part of the purchase money, and that the said Phelps transferred his interest to the said Young. The bill also shews, that Samuel Young is the heir at law of John, and assides out of the state; that John Mair departed this life leaving John Murray his devisee, and who has since taken letters of administration on his estate. The bill further states, that the complainants are still creditors of the said John Young, and that his personal property, has been insufficient to pay his debts. It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once in each of three successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette before the 15th day of June next, give notice to the said absent defendant of his application, and warn him to appear in this court in person, or by a solicitor, on or before the 15th day of October, to shew cause, (if any there be,) why a decree shall not pass as prayed.

assure the public, that the sale of a few more Tickets will justify them in commencing the those disposed to purchase to come forward,
