THE CHRISTIAN, No. 4.

The more we reflect on the peculiar excellencies of the Christian Religion, the more we must adore the unbounded goodness of Him, who designed it for the salvation of man.

As the reward which the gospel promises to believers, is not to be obtained in this world, but in that which is to come, it necessarily makes us more solicitous about our eternal welfare, than for our temporal enjoyment.

As the Christian's reward is celestial, all the precepts, doctrines, promises and threatenings of the gospel are for the promotion of piety, the means by which it is to be obtained.

When our blessed Lord sojourned upon earth, clothed with the flesh and the sufferings of man, the object of all his discourses to the people was to impress upon their minds the laws necessary for the regulation of their lives, rather than to expound to them incomprehensible mysteries.

How very different are the meek and lowly doctrines of the gospel, to the absurdities of heathen worship. The Priests of Baal wound themselves, and the Chinese penitents expose themselves, half naked, to the inclemency of the weather.

We are taught in the gospel the necessity of living a godly and a holy life, that we may be acceptable in the sight of the Almighty.

Even the omission of doing good is as inconsistent with our relationship to the Father, as the commission of actual evil.

Those who rest the hope of their salvation on his sufferings, need no other incentive to a life of piety and holiness, than that it is commanded by their Redeemer, that it is commanded by their Redeemer.

For an unholiness of such an apostate from CHRIST, and lives in direct contradiction to his profession. Although he may not abjure him in words, yet he denies him in his works.

Those who profess Christianity and yet live in unchristian practices, may deceive themselves with the pretence that they believe in CHRIST, but this pretence will be as unprofitable as vain. It is not the calling Him, Lord that will give them admission into the Kingdom of Heaven.

As JESUS CHRIST, both by his doctrine and his life clearly showed to us our duty, so he has kindly offered us the aid of his Spirit for our assistance, by which the commands of the Gospel are made easy and light.

As an encouragement to our duty we are promised a reward in the life which is to come, the very expectation of which is a source of real happiness to this. If the reward was small, or the promise uncertain, there might be some pretence for not performing the conditions to obtain it.

ON application, by petition of Benjamin Wells, junior, administrator of Thomas Tucker, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered that he give the notice required by law for creditors to bring in their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week for the space of six successive weeks in the Maryland Gazette.

JOHN GASSAWAY, Reg. Wills for A. A. C.

This is to give Notice,

THAT the subscriber of Anne-Arundel county hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of Thomas Tucker, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased.

BENJ. WELLS, Jun. Adm'r.

BY HIS EXCELLENCY, EDWARD LLOYD, ESQUIRE, GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it is directed by the forty-ninth section of the Act entitled "An Act concerning crimes and punishments," passed at November session eighteen hundred and nine, that as soon as the Penitentiary House in Baltimore county is ready for the reception of criminals, that the Governor of this State shall notify the same by proclamation.

Given under my hand and the seal of the state of Maryland, this 30th day of Sept. in the year of our Lord one (U. S.) thousand eight hundred and eleven, and of the independence of the United States of America the thirty-fifth.

By his Excellency's command, NINIAN PINKNEY, Clerk of the Council.

The Proclamation to be published twice in each week for six weeks in the Whig, American, Sun, and Federal Gazette, of Baltimore; the Maryland Republican and Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis; the Maryland Herald at Hagerstown; Bartgis's paper and Herald, at Frederick-Town; the Star and Monitor, at Easton; and the National Intelligencer.

Inquire of the Printer. Sept. 4, 1811.

PAUL'S DOMESTIC INFALLIBLE COLUMBIAN OIL.

THE inventor of this highly esteemed medicine is a native of America, and the composition is the production of American soil, consequently it is in every sense of the word domestic.

It seems also as if nature had ranked it the first of the class of all general and expectorants for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarce ever fails of removing obstructions in either, particularly those who are troubled with flatulency or Asthmatic complaints, who in the act of walking fast, stooping or lying down, are almost suffocated, half a teaspoonful of the Columbian Oil will render some relief instantaneously, and if continued agreeable to the directions in such cases, will prove a radical cure by producing the full power of influence to the lungs and free expansion to the breast.

CERTIFICATES OF ITS EFFICACY.

No. 1. Sept. 1809. I do certify, that I have been ailing nearly two years with a hectic cough and violent oppression at the breast - I applied to the most eminent physicians, and could get no relief from my low state of health, until I got Paul's Columbian Oil, and found immediate relief.

No. 2. Sept. 1809. From the great benefit I received from your Columbian Oil, I am induced to state, I was taken with a violent sore throat, about the 26th of August, which continued till the first of the month, when I applied your oil externally, and washed the part affected with the oil diluted in the same quantity of molasses, which took away pieces of purid flesh and healed my throat in about 48 hours.

No. 3. Sept. 6. I hereby certify, that I had a cough and pain in my stomach for upwards of two years, when I was recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil. I procured one phial of that valuable medicine, which has restored me to a good state of health again.

No. 4. Feb 12, 1809. I have great reason to be very thankful for being recommended to Paul's Columbian Oil I had been afflicted with a violent pain in my back, so that I was not able to walk. I procured one phial of the oil, and I received immediate relief, & I have been very well ever since.

No. 5. I comply with your request of stating my opinion of Paul's Columbian Oil, being an effectual remedy for the tetter worm. I have been afflicted with the tetter in my hand for 12 years, and have made trial of many medicines which have been recommended, but all to no effect.

No. 6. My Susanna, a child, age 12 months & 6 days, was taken about the middle of July last, with a violent cough, which the neighbours said was the whooping cough. I gave her six drops of the Columbian Oil, which gave immediate relief, and proved an effectual cure.

The above valuable Medicine for sale by Childs & Shaw.
