St. John's College,

October 13, 1811.
THE subscriber most respectfully requests thus publicly, all who are indebted on account of tuition, and of books furnished the students, to pay the same; the amount of arrears being considerable, whilst the low estate of the college funds renders further indulgence impossible. As the college claims are highly just and honorable, it is hoped all those concerned will see the necessity as well as equity of making early payments, or see the discredit, in a course of means pursued, painful to the trustees and visitors, as unpleasant to the young gentlemen students interested, as well as their friends—But trust, a sense of justice, and of propriety, will stimulate to discharge the arrears, however ancient, and thus obviate so disgraceful and disagreeable an issue.
By order,
RICHARD OWEN,
Collector and Bookseller.

N. B. The subscriber intending soon to remove from this city, all who have claims upon him, are desired to exhibit them, that they may be paid, and those indebted, to discharge the same on or before the last of this month.
R. OWEN.
