

POET'S CORNER.

SELECTED.

From "Poems on Various Subjects," by James Swart, A. B. of Armagh, Ireland.

YOUTH.

Youth is the vision of a morn, That flies the coming day; It is the blossom on the thorn, By ruddy winds swept away. 'Tis like the charming hue that glows Soft on a virgin's face, Till care hath nipped her fading rose, And withered every grace. It is the image of the sky, In glassy waters seen, When not a cloud appear to fly Across the blue serene. But when the waves begin to roar And lift their foaming head, The mimic stars appears no more, And all the heaven is fled. 'Tis like the dying tones that flow From an æolian lyre, When passing spirits seem to throw Soft magic o'er the wire. Or like a cloud of fleecy form, Seen on an April day; That veers before the coming storm, Then weeps itself away. 'Tis fleeting as the passing rays Of bright electric fire, That gild the pole with sudden blaze, And in that blaze expire. And tender as the filmy threads, Which in the dewy dawn, From flower to flower Arachne spreads, Wide o'er the verdant lawn. It is the morning's gentle gale, That, as it softly blows, Scarce seems to sigh across the vale, Or bend the blushing rose. But soon the gathering tempests pour, And all the sky deform; The gale becomes the whirlwind's roar, The sigh a raging storm: For Care and Sorrow's morbid gloom, And heart corroding strife, And sickness, pointing to the tomb, Awaits the noon of life.

Land for Sale.

I will sell a small tract of Land situated on the head of South river, in Anne-Arundel county; containing about 200 acres. This land is very valuable, and well adapted to the growth of any kind of grain or tobacco. There is a very good apple orchard, also a good meadow, a great proportion of timberland of the best quality, such as young chestnut and white oak in abundance. This land lies in a most excellent neighbourhood. The subscriber thinks it unnecessary to say anything more of this land, as those that wish to purchase will first view the land, which will be shown by Mr. Thomas Woodfield, who lives adjoining said land, and terms made known, which will be accommodating. Fifty Dollars Reward.

Ran away from the subscriber, living near Mount Pleasant Ferry, in Anne-Arundel county, on the 27th of December last, a negro man named

ISAAC,

Who calls himself ISAAC LOWE; he is about 25 years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high, rather slender made, brown complexion, both of his little fingers crooked; had on when he eloped a new striped country cloth jacket and trousers, white yarn stockings, strong shoes with hob nails in the soles, old onsborg shirt, and a good wool hat; he is very fond of spirituous liquor, and will make use of it to excess, and is then very talkative; it is supposed he will make his way to Baltimore, the city of Washington, or Alexandria, having relations and acquaintances at each place. A reward of Thirty Dollars will be given if taken in Anne-Arundel county, Forty dollars if out of said county, and the above reward if out of the state, and secured in any goal so that I get him again, and if bro't home all reasonable charges paid by

In Council,

February 14, 1812.

ORDERED, That the "Supplement to an act, entitled, An act for regulating writs of error, and granting appeals from and to the courts of common law within this province," and the "Act to alter the time of the meeting of the court of appeals, and for other purposes," be published twice in each week, for the space of three weeks, in the Maryland Republican and Maryland Gazette, at Annapolis; in the Whig, American, Sun and Federal Gazette, at Baltimore; in the Star, at Easton; in the Republican Gazette, at Fredericktown, and in the Maryland Herald, at Hagar's-town.

By order, NINIAN PINKNEY, Clk.

A supplement to an act, entitled, An act for regulating writs of error, and granting appeals from and to the courts of common law within this province.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any person or persons, against whom any judgment hath been or shall be rendered in any county court of this state, or any person in his, her or their behalf, being desirous of appealing from such judgment to the court of appeals of the shore, may at any time within the period prescribed by law for entering appeals, instead of prosecuting a writ of error for the removal of the said judgment, apply to the clerk of the county court in which such judgment hath been or shall be rendered, and direct the said clerk to enter and appeal, in the usual manner, from the judgment of the said county court to the court of appeals of the shore, and that such entry shall be made accordingly, the said clerk noting the time of entering such appeal; and there shall be the same proceedings had upon such appeal, as if the application for an appeal had been made to, and the appeal had been granted by the county court, during the sitting of the said court. Provided, that execution upon any such judgment, shall not be stayed or delayed, or any supersedeas upon such judgment granted or issued forth upon any such appeal, unless such person or persons, in whose name such appeal shall be made, or some other, in his, her or their behalf, shall immediately upon making such appeal, enter into bond with sufficient sureties, such as the chief judge or an associate judge of the district in which the said judgment shall be rendered, shall approve of, in the manner and agreeably to the form or according to the tenor of the condition of the said bond, as prescribed by the act to which this is a supplement.

An act to alter the times of the meeting of the Court of Appeals, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the court of appeals shall be holden for the eastern shore at the town of Easton, on the first Monday in June and the last Monday in November, in each and every year; and that from and after the first day of February next, the court of appeals shall be holden for the western shore at the city of Annapolis, on the last Monday in May and the first Monday in December, in each and every year; and that the said court to be holden for the western and eastern shores respectively, in the months of June and December, in each and every year, shall be holden by the judges thereof, or any three or more of them; Provided always, that any one or more of the said judges, attending as aforesaid, shall have power to make all necessary rules and orders, touching any suit, action, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings or proceedings, returned to the said court held for the western and eastern shores respectively, or depending therein, preparatory to the hearing, trial or decision of such action, suit, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings or proceedings, and so much of the act, entitled, An act to provide for the organization and regulation of the courts of common law in this state, and for the administration of justice therein, passed at November session, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and five, as provides for the holding of the court of appeals at different or other times than those herein mentioned, be and the same is hereby repealed.

And be it enacted, That it shall not be necessary for the judges of the said court of appeals, or any of them, except the judge of the said court, resident in the second judicial district, to attend the said court to be holden at Easton for the eastern shore, on the last Monday in November, in each and every year; and it shall be the duty of the judge of the court of appeals resident in the second judicial district, to attend at the town of Easton, on the last Monday in November next, and on the last Monday in November in each and every year thereafter, who shall have power to make all necessary rules and orders touching any suit, action, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings, or proceedings, returned to the court of appeals for the eastern shore, or depending therein, preparatory to the hearing trial or decision of such action, suit, appeal, writ of error, process pleadings or proceedings; and that all writs & process may be returnable to the said court on the said last Monday in November, in the same manner as to the session of the said court, herein before directed to be holden on the first Monday in June, and may also bear teste on the said last Monday in November, as though a session of the said court was holden on that day. And it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court of appeals for the eastern shore, to attend the said judge on the said last Monday in November, in each and every year, who shall make due entry of all such matters and things, as shall or may be ordered as aforesaid, by the said judge; and at each and every such November session, all actions, pleas and other proceedings, relative to any cause, appeal or writ of error, civil or criminal, shall be continued over to the ensuing June session.

And be it enacted, That it shall not be necessary for the judges of the said court of appeals or any of them, except the judge of the said court resident in the third judicial district, to attend the said court to be holden at the city of Annapolis, for the Western Shore, on the last Monday in May, in each and every year; and it shall be the duty of the judge of the court of appeals, resident in the third judicial district, to attend at the city of Annapolis on the last Monday in May next, and on the last Monday in May in each and every year thereafter; who shall have power to make all necessary rules and orders, touching any suit, action, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings, or proceedings, returned to the court of appeals for the Western Shore, or depending therein, preparatory to the hearing, trial or decision of such action, suit, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings or proceedings; and that all writs and process may be returnable to the said court, on the said last Monday in May, in the same manner, as to the session of the said court, herein before directed to be holden on the first Monday in December, and may bear teste on the said last Monday in May, as though a session of the said court was holden on that day; and it shall be the duty of the clerk of the court of appeals for the Western Shore, to attend the said judge on the said last Monday in May, in each and every year who shall make due entry of all such matters and things, as shall or may be ordered as aforesaid by the said judge; and at each and every such May session, all actions, pleas and other proceedings, relative to any cause, appeal, writ of error, civil or criminal, shall be continued over to the ensuing December session.

And be it enacted, That if the judge of the court of appeals, required by this act to attend at Easton, on the last Monday in November in each and every year, or the judge of the said court so required to attend at Annapolis, on the last Monday in May in each and every year, shall not attend as aforesaid on the said respective days, for the purposes by this act directed, the clerk of the said court is hereby authorized and empowered to adjourn the said court from day to day, until the said clerk can notify one of the other judges of the court of appeals, who shall attend within a convenient time, and shall have power as aforesaid, to make all necessary rules and orders, touching any suit, action, appeal, writ of error, process, pleadings or proceedings, as aforesaid; and the clerk of the said court is hereby empowered to adjourn the said court from day to day, until the said judge so notified, shall attend for the purposes by this act required.

And be it enacted, That appeals and writs of errors may be prosecuted and brought to the court of appeals for the Eastern Shore, in the month of November, and to the said court for the Western Shore, in the month of May, in the same manner as to the session of the said court herein before directed to be holden for the Eastern Shore on the first Monday in June, or to the session of the said court herein before directed to be holden for the Western Shore, on the first Monday in December, and such rules, orders and proceedings shall be had thereon, preparatory to the hearing trial or decision of such appeal or writ of error, as is herein before directed.

And be it enacted, That any one of the said judges, in court sitting, shall have power and authority to enter judgments by confession, to call executions, and enter judgments thereon by default, or to enter them not called by consent, and to order writs of venditioni exponas in all cases where the same may be necessary, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber intends to apply to the judges of Anne-Arundel county court, or some one of them, in the recess of said court, for the benefit of the act of assembly for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, after this notice shall have been published eight weeks from the date hereof.

PROPOSALS By George Shaw, & Co. Annapolis, FOR PUBLISHING BY SUBSCRIPTION, EVIDENCES OF THE CHRISTIAN RELIGION, BRIEFLY AND PLAINLY STATED.

BY JAMES BEATTIE, LL. D. Author of Essays on Truth. THIS little work contains, if not a regular deduction, a concise and most useful summary of the most striking and popular arguments, in elegant and perspicuous language, in support of the Divine Origin of the Gospel. It will be difficult perhaps, to find any other book on the subject that contains more valuable matter, so well arranged, in so small a compass, as this little treatise of Dr. Beattie's.

It will be neatly printed on good paper. Price of the volume sixty-two and a half cents. Bound eighty-seven and a half cents.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber intends to apply to the judges of Anne-Arundel county court, or some one of them, in the recess of said court, for the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and of the several supplements thereto, after this notice shall have been published agreeably to law, eight weeks from the date hereof.

MARYLAND.

Anne-Arundel County, &c.

ON application to me, the subscriber, in the recess of Anne-Arundel county court, as an associate judge of the third judicial district of Maryland, by petition in writing, of Michael Beachgood, of said county, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, eighteen hundred and five, and the several supplements thereto, as said terms mentioned in the said act, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on each, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and the said Michael Beachgood having satisfied me, by competent testimony, that he has resided in the state of Maryland for the period of two years, immediately preceding this his application; and one of the constables of Anne-Arundel county having certified that the said petitioner is in his custody for debt only, and the said Michael Beachgood having given sufficient security for his personal appearance at Anne-Arundel county court, to answer such allegations as may be made against him by his creditors; I do therefore order and adjudge, that the said Michael Beachgood shall be discharged from his imprisonment, and that he by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette every week for three months successively before the third Monday in April next, give notice to his creditors to appear before Anne-Arundel county court on the said third Monday in April next, at 10 o'clock in the morning, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if they have, why the said Michael Beachgood should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements as prayed. Given under my hand this 10th day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eleven.
