PAUL'S PATENT COLUMBIAN OIL.

The inventor of this highly esteemed Medicine is a native of America, and the composition is the production of American soil, consequently it is in every sense of the word Domestic, it is not puffed up with a numerous train of pompous foreign certificates of persons from whom the great distance, therefore the public has better security for their money as there cannot be the least shadow of deception to cover this medicine, for he simply appears before the community with his invention and an experimental detail of the various cases in which it really is so wonderfully efficacious, and in which he is supported by the following certificates, whose names are not only subscribed but their persons may also be consulted, being residents within the circle of our neighbourhood. The following are the complaints in which the Columbian Oil has been found so efficacious and rarely ever fails of effecting a cure: viz Rheumatism, Consumption, Pains in any part of the body but particularly in the back and breast, Colds and Coughs, Tooth Ach, Spleen, Pleuritis, Cholic, Cramps, external and internal Bruises, Sprains, and Flesh Wounds, Scalds and Burns, Whooping Cough, and Mumps, Dysentery, or Bloody Flux, Croup and the summer complaint in children, and in a weak stomach, that is caused by indigestion, a constant sinking and loss of appetite, it will act as a powerful bracer to the relaxed fibre and restore it to its proper tone.

It seems as though nature had ranked it the first of the class of all pectorals and expectorals for the relief of the breast and lungs, as it scarcely ever fails of removing obstructions in either, particularly those who are troubled with Phthisic or Asthmatic complaints, who in the act of walking, fast, sleeping or lying down are almost suffocated, half a teaspoon full of the Columbian Oil will render some relief in a few minutes, and if continued agreeably to the directions in the case, will prove a radical cure, by producing the full power of inflation to the lungs, and free expansion of the breast.

Certificates of its Efficacy.

We do certify, that on Thursday, the 17th instant, we were tarring a new seine for Mr. Clark, and by accident the seine took fire, which, by endeavouring to put out the flames, John Clark and Thomas Adams got severely burnt in the face, we immediately got some Columbian Oil from Mr. Paul, and applied it to the parts burnt, which gave ease in the course of twenty minutes, and has left the parts free from blisters. John Peacock, Thomas Adams, John Clark. Baltimore, April 19th, 1810.

Sir—At your request that I should give my opinion respecting what effect your Columbian Oil had in a certain case wherein I was afflicted, I most cheerfully comply by saying that I verily believe that I might have died with one of the severest cramps in the stomach, had it not been for your Columbian Oil; and that I have been a season relieved of the same complaint by the assistance of that valuable medicine, and as such I recommend it as the best remedy, because there is no manner of doubt of its proving effectual. E. Catharine Walker. Sign of the Buck, Market-Space, Baltimore.

Sir—Conceiving it to be my duty not to conceal from the public the virtues of your most valuable Columbian Oil, from which I received so much benefit, I am therefore induced, from a principle of gratitude for my recovery, to give a short statement of the complaint under which I suffered. I was first seized in the right hip with a most intolerable pain, which seemed exactly in the joint, and on the day following a dreadful pain in my back which lasted about three weeks, during which time I could not walk upright, but always in a bent posture; and if seated in a chair, the pain would be so excruciating in the act of raising that it was impossible for me to refrain from screaming. My appetite had entirely left me, and a constant head ach would sometimes almost deprive me of my senses; in fact, I was in a deplorable condition. A number of remedies were tried but to no purpose, I had also the advice of an eminent physician, who prescribed a hot bath, &c. which were regularly attended to, but without the smallest advantage. I had about nine ounces of blood taken from me, still the complaint did not give way in the least degree. I was then advised to try Paul's Columbian Oil, but with very little hopes of succeeding; when to my great surprise and comfort, I was sensible of some ease in my hip on the first time of anointing; the next day the pain in my back abated, the head ach left me, and in four days I was perfectly recovered. Apollonia Walter. Lexington-street, two doors from Liberty-street, Baltimore.

Philadelphia, July 8, 1807. By your request I do certify, that I had been a long time dangerously indisposed, and was reduced to the lowest state of weakness, inasmuch that my recovery appeared doubtful; my complaint seemed to be affections of the breast and lungs. I could procure no relief from incessant coughing, nor breathe without great pain & difficulty, when by the use of one phial of Paul's Columbian Oil, my distressing cough left me, every other symptom was removed, and I was restored to an excellent state of health, which I now enjoy. Who may be consulted if called on. Kitty McClain. Corner of Spruce and Fifth-streets.

The public will please to take notice; That Paul's Patent Columbian Oil, will always be sold in bottles which contain the words PAUL'S PATENT COLUMBIAN OIL, in the Glass; the bottles sealed with my initials J. L. in Red Wax, and the outside Label signed by me with Red Ink. John Love, Sole Agent for the U. S. of America and their dependencies. Without which characteristics none will be Genuine. War Department, April 15th, 1812.

His Excellency the Governor of the State of Maryland.

SIR, I am instructed by the president of the United States to call upon the executives of the several states to take effectual measures to organize, arm and equip, according to law, and hold in readiness to march at a moment's warning, their respective proportions of 100,000 militia, officers included, by virtue of an act of congress passed the 10th instant, entitled, "An act to authorise a detachment from the militia of the United States."

This therefore is to require of your excellency to take effectual measures for having six thousand of the militia of Maryland (being her quota) detached and duly organized in companies, battalions, regiments, brigades and divisions, within the shortest period that circumstances will permit, and as nearly as possible in the following proportions of artillery, cavalry and infantry, viz. one twentieth part of artillery, one twentieth part of cavalry, and the residue infantry. There will, however, be no objection on the part of the president of the United States to the admission of a proportion of riflemen, duly organized in distinct corps, and not exceeding one tenth part of the whole quota of the states respectively.

Each corps should be properly armed and equipped for actual service. When the detachment and organization shall have been effected, the respective corps will be exercised under the officers set over them, but will not remain embodied or be considered as in actual service, until by subsequent orders they shall be directed to take the field.

Your excellency will please to direct that correct muster rolls and inspection returns be made of the several corps; and that copies thereof be transmitted to this department as early as possible.

I have the honour to be, Sir, Very respectfully, Your obedient servant, WILLIAM EUSTIS.

THE OLD MAN'S COMFORTS

And how he came by them.

BY SOUTHEY.

"You are old Father William" (the young man cried) "The few locks that are left you are grey, And yet you are hale, a hearty old man, Now tell me the reason I pray." "In the days of my youth" (father William replied) "I remembered that youth would fly fast, And absurd not my health and my vigour at first "That I never might need them at last." "You are old Father William" (the young man cried) "And pleasures with youth pass away, But yet you regret not the days that are past, Now tell me the reason I pray." "In the days of my youth" (father William replied) "I remember'd that youth would not last, And I thought of the future whatever I did, "That I never might grieve for the past." "You are old Father William" (the young man cried) "And life must be hastening away, You are cheerful, and love to converse upon death, Now tell me the reason I pray." "I am cheerful young man" (father William replied) "Let the cause thy attention engage, In the days of my youth I remember'd my God, And he has not forgotten my age."

THE FLATTERER.

Of all the various characters among mankind, no one is more degrading to human nature than a flatterer. Flattery is not only odious to veracity, but it proves a want of true sense, a want of esteem for those whom it was intended to please, and a deficiency of delicate sentiment. Even the wild uncultivated aboriginal is a stranger to dissembled thought. His tongue is governed by the genuine dictates of sincerity. But can we compare the mind brightened with the genial glow of knowledge, to the rude child of nature? In fact, the latter boasts pre-eminence. He soars aloft on wings of truth, looks down with scorn, and upbraids the civilized world for flattery, which puts sensibility to the blush, and shocks even the harsher feelings of unpolished men. When the influence of a sycophant like the fatal charms of a siren's voice, degrades fair innocence, virtue recoils and turns abhorrent from the awful scene.

It is necessary of every member for society to possess the art of pleasing, as it not only unites thought with thought, but tunes the mind to notes of love, sympathy, and friendship. But alas! shall the enchanting smiles of a parasite allure the daughter of virtue, and blight her opening blossoms? Forbid it, ye genii, the guardian protectors of fair innocence!

We see the rose of beauty torn from the bosom of candour, by the fatal hand of a sycophant, and all the delicacies of female worth offered up as a sacrifice at the altar of savage barbarity, can the manly feelings of the independent soul cease to vibrate with the warmest touches of pity? Blush frigid monster, at thy villainy! thy crime is blackest hue, and tells the world that treachery of soul is thine.—Thy deadly venom taints the blended streams of mutual love, dissolves the ties of amity, and poisons all the endearing affections that conspire to render man agreeable to man.—Virtue will not hold society with such traitors, base, degenerate, as thou art. She preads thy near approach, and shrinks with horror at thy ghastly look. Learn, ye fair, to despise the alluring voice of the flatterer. His breath will blast the bloom of loveliest charms. When once by flattery caught, your drooping beauty weeps, virtue drops a tear of regret, and innocence, shall mourn the loss of worth.
