LATEST FROM ENGLAND. Arrived this morning... from Liverpool. Sailed 14th June.

The London Courier of June 11, gives the following cabinet nominations: Earl Liverpool, first lord of the treasury.

Mr. Vanstittart, chancellor of the exchequer; lord Eldon, lord chancellor.

Earl Liverpool continued to act as premier. The King's health, mental and bodily, remained the same.

House of Lords were occupied on the 10th June in examining witnesses on the subject of the orders in council.

An alarming fire broke out (charged to incendiaries) in the Rope House, at the Dockyard in Plymouth, 400 feet only of the building, which was 1400 feet long.

The Packet from New-York with Mr. Mill had arrived. The loan was to be 22 millions; bidding to be on the 16th June.

No actual engagement between the French and Russian armies; but advancing.

LONDON, JUNE 9. From a French gentleman who has arrived we received yesterday the following intelligence.

we understand, published from the French head quarters in Prussia. [Chronicle.]

PROCLAMATION. "Frenchmen! I am again called upon to wage war with the North."

"Soldiers! I myself will lead you against the Russians."

"In the commencement of July, I shall be present in St. Petersburg, and I will meet out to the emperor Alexander the fit boundary of his dominions."

"Poland shall be the future barrier, place it beyond the power of the cabinet of St. Petersburg again to ruin it."

"NAPOLEON."

JUNE 10. Royal Exchange, Wednesday Night. INTELLIGENCE FROM THE BALTI

The Orion's convoy has got safe through the Belt. Letters continue to mention opening of the Russian ports.

are said, on good authority to be at Me and the French at Pillau. The French copy all the forts of Prussia; they are in possession also of the sea ports, with a view to facilitate the entry of grain.

One hundred and fifty vessels from Pillau, &c. had entered Riga for grain, the exportation of which is prohibited by the Russian government; a same prohibition is enforced in Prussia also.

JUNE 12. The result has been as we anticipated, the consistency of all the former votes of House of Commons respecting the preministers has been most signally re-confirmed.

Mr. Stuart Wortley brought forward his motion last night, upon which Lord Folkeston moved one amendment, and Lord Milton another. The first amendment was negatived without a division—and Lord Milton's motion was negatived without a division.

Three things are observable in last night's debate: 1. That Mr. Wortley was afraid to state by his own motion, which all sides allowed to be mere milk and water, yet he swallowed very glibly a dram of brandy prepared for by lord Milton. He has shewn, we must think that he was totally incompetent to the charge he undertook. He risked the government of the country, by giving notice of motion, which when it came to be made, so utterly feeble, that it dropped, still from his hands, and if he had not abandoned
