INDIAN WAR.

KANSAS, (K.) AUG. 29.
A young gentleman of undoubted veracity, Mr. March, just arrived at this place from Piqua, has politely favoured us with the following letter from Mr. S. Ruddell, the authenticity of which he confirms.

Bad News from Fort Wayne.

Two expresses just from Fort Wayne, bring information to this place (Piqua,) that capt. Wells hearing that gen. Hull had advised capt. Heald the commandant at Fort Chicago, to evacuate his Fort, went from Fort Wayne to Chicago with one white man and about 30 or 40 Miami Indians, in order to escort the garrison in. That the day after he arrived there a great number of Indians being present a council was held, at which all the public goods were distributed. In the evening of the same day, dispatches arrived from Malden, to the Indians, stating that all the tribes had joined the British, that Detroit had fallen into their hands; and exhorting them to drink the blood of our people. The next morning, 15th inst. capt. Wells and Heald, with the force of the garrison and their women and children amounting to about 100, started for Fort Wayne—when they were attacked about half a mile from Chicago, by nearly 600 Indians who massacred them all! Only a few Miami Indians escaped to tell the news. Several of their chiefs were killed. A number of friendly Indians are on their way to this place to claim protection from our government. About 700 are here who manifest very friendly dispositions to our people; they are very sorry for our misfortune, and are fearful for their own safety. I have endeavoured to find out their minds and to set them right, and shall continue so to do. From the public's faithful servant,

STEPHEN RUDELL.

VOLUNTEERS WANTED.

Fellow Citizens of Ohio!
At a moment like this, I appeal to your valour and patriotism. Maj. gen. Harrison will rendezvous a respectable force of Kentucky volunteers on the 15th inst. for a short expedition. Gen. Harrison desires to add to his troops any number of volunteers from the state of Ohio, who will serve on the expedition 30 days. All those who will embrace this favourable opportunity of distinguishing themselves under an able commander, and of rendering to the state of Ohio a valuable service, will in their equipments and movements follow the directions of gen. Harrison hereto subjoined.

R. J. MEIGS, Governor, of Ohio.

HEAD QUARTERS.

Piqua, Sept. 5, 1812, 4 o'clock, A. M.
Mounted Volunteers!
I requested you, in my late address, to rendezvous at Dayton on the 15th inst. I have now a more pressing call for your services! The British and Indians have invaded our country, and are now besieging, (perhaps have taken) fort Wayne. Every friend to his country who is able to do, will join me as soon as possible, well mounted, with a good rifle and 20 or 30 days provisions. Ammunition will be furnished at Cincinnati and at Dayton, and the volunteers will draw provisions (to save their salted meat) at all the public deposits; the quarter-masters and commissaries will see that this order is executed.

WM. H. HARRISON.

LANCASTER, (OHIO) SEPT. 12.

LATE FROM OUR ARMY.

We are informed by a letter from Urbana, dated the 9th inst that gen. Harrison left Piqua for Fort Wayne, on the 7th inst. with 3000 troops, to attack a party of Indians in that neighbourhood said to be about 500 strong. It is supposed when the volunteers and militia are organized the army under gen. Harrison will be about 8000.

LEXINGTON, (KEN.) SEPT. 8.

A gentleman of undoubted veracity, arrived in this place yesterday morning, who was at the house of col. Calloway in Henry county, about 12 miles from Westport, on Friday night last. He states that between one and two o'clock in the morning, an express arrived to col. C. informing him that considerable mischief had been done by the Indians on Thursday night, on Pigeon Fork of Silver Creek, 15 miles from Westport. The colonel immediately collected about 100 men, and proceeded to Westport, when he crossed the river at 12 o'clock on Saturday. From Westport he sent a message home, stating that fifteen families had been killed by the Indians, two individuals only having been known to escape. The greatest activity was prevailing, when our informant left Col. Calloway's, and he supposed by this day, 1000 would pass the river to pursue the Indians.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman of the first respectability at Louisville (K) dated Sept. 4.
"The town at present is in the greatest possible tumult and bustle. I will venture to say, that every two hours for this day, some new and alarming information have reached us, bringing in accounts of the most daring movements of the Indians at our doors. Yesterday an express got here, stating that the night before last a party had burnt and destroyed several houses in the neighbourhood of Charles-town in the grant, about 24 miles from this place, besides killing several persons and scalping them; in consequence of which a party crossed the river to day about day break. As they were going in the county where the depredation was committed, they met another express coming in. I have seen and conversed with him. He is a man that can be relied on. He says he had assisted in burying 17 persons yesterday, that the Indians had killed. This is beyond the shadow of a doubt. News have just reached us (and credited by many) that last evening a party of Indians had crossed the river at Eighteen Mile Island, and had killed several persons at West Port."

FRANKFORT, (K.) SEPT. 5.

The following copy of a letter was received this morning by the governor, express from Shelbyville, where it arrived at 4 o'clock A. M.

Dear Sir,
I this moment have received news which cannot be doubted, that the Indians are within 15 miles of us (Henry Court House) and the people are crossing the Ohio by hundreds: We will you to send through the neighbourhood, and to the meeting; and get all the men and ammunition you can. We will start for Westport by times in the morning. Mr. Bonta is the bearer of this news, don't fail to send assistance.

JOS. BRINKER.

Colonel Castleman.
Sept. 4, 1812, 12 o'clock at night.

N. B. The express communicated verbally, that eight families had been murdered by the Indians, and that two Indians had been killed by one man; on one of them was found two fresh scalps one supposed to be female's, the other an infant's.

Extract of a letter from Col. John M. Scott, to his friend in Frankfort, dated Camp 10 miles from Dayton, Sept. 1st, 1812.
"By Mr. Thomas Long, I have an opportunity of writing to you; the army progresses finely, and is in high spirits. The poor people on the other side of Piqua are in confusion, leaving their houses and all property at the mercy of the savages. There were in considerable numbers, from that neighbourhood to Fort Wayne. We will perhaps stay a day or two at Dayton, to prepare ourselves with all the munitions of war."

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, (O.) SEPT. 12.

An attack from the Indians was expected at Vincennes; but the force in that neighbourhood, was deemed strong enough to defeat any number of Indians likely to come against them. Two companies of rangers are at Vincennes; with eight companies Indiana militia, and 800 Kentucky Volunteers.

FROM THE MUSKINGUM MESSENGER.

Mr. Chambers, I have just returned from Urbana, where Gov. Meigs is at present, with about 1000 soldiers. Brigadier gen. Harrison is at Piqua with 2000 Kentucky soldiers, with 2000 more in his rear.—Harrison's preference appears to inspire every person with courage, and makes even cowards brave. His present conduct evinces a determination to retrieve the injured reputation of our county. He has made a most animated speech to the friendly natives at Piqua, who are numerous, and suing for a continuance of peace. He has promised them his protection, at the same time assuring them in the most terrific language, which struck horror to all hearts, that the name of an Indian foe should not long be known amongst us. That the American army will no longer be commanded by an old woman.

Gov. Meigs' late patriotic conduct and exertions appear to be rewarded only with ingratitude. He has ordered the 2d detachment of militia which marched from this place under the command of Col. McConnell, to be dismissed, having been contrary to his instructions and intentions, which must have been misunderstood. S. W. CULBERSON.
Zanesville, Sept. 8.

MONTPELIER, (VT.) SEPT. 17.

From all parts of the Country we receive accounts of the movements of the troops and militia. Plattsburg, N. Y. about 60 miles from Montreal, is their place of destination; where Generals Dearborn and Bloomfield have already arrived, with about 2000 men each. The Vermont troops are now at Plattsburgh. It is stated that Gen. Bloomfield of New-York, is to command the van of the army on the expedition.

About 80 of the U. S. troops from New-Hampshire, and between 4 and 500 of the drafted militia of this State, passed through town the present week, on their way to Plattsburgh.

From the best accounts we can collect there are stationed between Montreal and St. Johns from 12 to 15,000 troops, regulars and militia. The fields, says our informants, are literally covered with tents and camp equipage. The militia are well trained and completely equipped and uniformed. Should Gen. Dearborn enter the Territory, he ought (if he means not to be Hull'd) to have 25 or 30,000 men, at not a doubt exists of the Gov. of Canada being able to bring this force into the field against them.

HARRISBURG, (PA.) SEPT. 12.

The general sorrow that prevailed at Chambersburg on Saturday last, during the marching from that place of capt. Snyder's volunteer company of light infantry, it is said has never been equalled there—heightened no doubt by the late calamitous capture of our army. The members of this little corps are said to be the flower of Chambersburg, and sons generally of the most respectable families of that place. Wives bidding adieu to their husbands, and sons taking leave of their parents, are novel and interesting scenes in this our hitherto happy country. But what adds to the poignancy of reflection at this time, said a parent whose son is one of the number, — is that not a single blanket, not the smallest article of camp equipage has been provided by our government for their comfort, during a tedious march, a few tents excepted. It is true the patriotic ladies of Chambersburg, vied with each other in furnishing such little necessary and temporary comforts as the time would admit. Fellow-citizens, with a few exceptions these gentlemen who have now gone to endure the fatigues of a tented field and fight your country's battles are FEDERAL REPUBLICANS; or what your fighting patriots who stay at home call—TORIES.

NEW ORLEANS, AUG. 8.

On the 22d July, the family of Mr. Herre Doucet, of the county of Opelousas, (Mr. D. and his eldest son being absent from home) were murdered by a young negro man, a slave on the plantation. The children had lain down to take an afternoon's nap; Madame Doucet was occupied in spinning, and had from the window observed the negro sharpening a broad axe on the grind-stone, on enquiring what he was about, received for answer, in a very impudent tone, that he was preparing to run away. The fellow entered sometime after with his weapon, and advanced upon his mistress with such rapidity, that notwithstanding her alarm he instantly cleaved open her skull, and then repeated his blows across her face and in other directions, without her doing any more than to scream so as to waken her eldest daughter lying asleep on the table in the same room. The daughter flew up by instinct to the aid of her mother, but only came in time to receive the same fate. The noise by this time produced, brought out of another room a young son, who seeing the destruction dealing around, at once attempted his escape, but was pursued by the negro to the adjacent fence and there put to death. The negro then returned to the house and murdered the little children in their sleep, and collected all the victims into one pile. He afterwards set out to catch the best horse on the plantation, apparently for the purpose of flight. The horse being some what intractable, carried him to the fence of a neighbour; and some one observing the fellow asked what he was doing with the horse, he replied that some Spaniards had come and murdered his mistress, &c. The enquirer and his companions immediately proposed to go to the house; and one of them more suspicious than the rest, thought proper to frize the negro, who after being detected in several falsehoods, and finding particularly that no traces after a recent shower of rain could be shown of the Spaniards, confessed his crime. He said that his father was a warrior, and that he had inherited the family courage—that what he had killed before he would not think of counting, but if they would only let him loose he would let them see how many he could kill. The same hardihood attended him through his trial—and on his being sentenced to the gallows in two hours, he appeared anxious to reach the spot, and when there would not wait for the cart to be drawn from under him, but told the by-standers to get out of his way and let him jump—which he did!

Land for Sale.

I will sell the plantation on which I now reside, containing about six hundred and sixty acres of valuable land, adapted to farming, in a healthy situation: There is the greatest plenty of wood, such as oak, chestnut, walnut and poplar; it is well watered; a plenty of meadow, and about four acres in clover. This land lies within two miles of Herring Creek Church, five miles from Pig Point, and about the same distance from Herring Bay. It will be divided to suit purchasers, if desired. For terms apply to the subscriber.

Samuel Harrison; Sept. 24, 1812.

A Stray Horse.

Came to the subscriber's, living near Richard Owings's Mills, in Anne-Arundel county, in the month of July last, a brown HORSE, four years old, about 13 hands high, left hind foot white, a natural trotter. The owner of said horse is requested to come, prove property, pay charges and take him away.
