

EPISCOPAL PRAYER BOOK.

Messrs. George Shaw, & Co. of this place have received a few copies of a splendid edition of the Prayer Book, lately published by Mr. M. Thomas of Philadelphia. We have been much gratified by an inspection of this elegant work, and rejoice to find that a sufficient degree of liberality and refinement pervades the American public to enable our Booksellers to publish such splendid editions as are Barlow's Columbiad, Wilson's American Ornithology, & Thomas's Episcopal Prayer Book. This latter work is spoken of in the following terms of commendation in a Philadelphia Paper.

"The splendid edition of this inestimable Manual, with which Mr. Moses Thomas offers to enrich the Church, the Library, and the Closet, is an effort of professional taste, liberality, and enterprise, equally honorable to him as an editor, and as a zealous member of that Church whose Liturgy and offices he has thus presented to the public. The form under which he has communicated these venerable Formularies of public and private Devotion, is more justly accommodated to their intrinsic and unrivalled excellence, than any which has appeared in America.

The decorations are executed by the first Artists, the paper of superior quality, and the type large and luminous. The composition of the Allegorical Engravings is as remarkable for its novelty, as for its correctness and expression. In short, there has been no limitation of labor or expence, to render it worthy the patronage of the orthodox and pious Churchman, the man of taste, of every denomination, and the philanthropic and patriotic American, who must be gratified by every meritorious exertion to raise the arts and Sciences to a degree of refinement and elevation in this new world, equal, if not superior, to that which they have so long maintained in the old.

We trust, the liberal encouragement given to this highly commendable effort of taste and ingenuity, will induce others of a similar nature by the publisher, in editing the works of the most eminent and valuable authors.

To accommodate the taste, as well as the finances, of every class of purchasers, Mr. Thomas has judiciously presented this volume under bindings of different value, and with or without plates—from the neat and durable covering of plain calf, to the most superb and brilliant decoration, which Gold and Morocco could bestow; and all at a remarkably low rate in order to give celebrity to its execution and extent to its circulation."

CONGRESSIONAL HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, Jan. 26.

was taken—Ayes 75, Noes 38—majority for the bill, 37.

The following petitions were presented yesterday:

Mr. Chittenden presented the petition of Micah J. Lyman, now of N. York, stating that he was a mechanic in Montreal previous to the declaration of war, on which he returned to this country with his effects had been seized by the revenue officers—the petition prayed restitution, and was referred to the committee of ways and means.

That one half of the said goods had been received by him and the other half condemned to the U. States. The petition prayed relief, and was referred to committee of ways and means.

The Bill to authorize the issuing of Treasury Notes.
This bill authorizes the president of the United States to cause to be issued treasury notes to the amount of 5 millions of dollars; and also, if he shall deem it expedient to issue a further amount not exceeding five millions of dollars; provided the amount issued under the latter provision shall be deemed and held to be in part of the loan of sixteen million of dollars authorized by the bill passed this day. The notes to bear interest at the rate of five and two fifths per cent per annum, to be redeemed one year after the day on which they are respectively issued.
