FOREIGN

NEWPORT, MAY 23.
FROM ENGLAND.

The brig Brazilian, Capt. Hodgkinson, 30 days from Liverpool, arrived this morning.

The London papers are to the 20th of April, Liverpool to the 23d, Lloyd's Lists to the 20th.

The expedition for America, with 2000 marines on board, sailed from Plymouth, about the 15th of April.

Petitions has been presented to Parliament from cotton manufacturers of Liverpool; from the merchants engaged in the commerce of Brazil; and from the ship owners of Liverpool; praying for some prohibitory measures against the importation of cotton from the U. States.

The following is a copy of the commercial regulation respecting licences to America, issued by the British government on the 10th of April—Licences will be granted by the Board of Trade, for exportation and importation of all articles to and from any port in America not blockaded.—Neutral ships only, and of the build of the country to which they are declared to belong. The name and tonnage of the ship to be mentioned in taking out the licence.

The Russian general Witenstein has addressed a spirited proclamation to the Saxons, in which he invites them and their sovereign to shew themselves true Germans—He says, "the hour has struck—the hour of delivery from Buonaparte's yoke—but let us take instant advantage of it, for it will never strike a second time."

The Russian minister at the court of Denmark, has presented to his Danish majesty a letter from the Emperor of Russia, desiring to have an immediate answer to the question, "Whether Denmark will act with or against France?"

Stralsund and Pomerania have been taken possession of by a body of Swedish troops. A second division of 10,000 Swedes sailed from Carlsham on the 14th March for Pomerania. A third and fourth division were to follow immediately, and the Crown Prince would accompany the fourth.

The King of Prussia has, by edict abolished Buonaparte's Continental System. He declares "That all restraints under which commerce has hitherto suffered in the Prussian states, in consequence of the so-denominated Continental System, are abolished, and that the ships and goods of all friendly and neutral nations shall be freely permitted to enter into Prussian harbors and territories, without any exception or interference. All French goods, either produce or manufactures, are, on the contrary, totally prohibited, not only for use, but likewise to pass through our territories; or those occupied by our arms."

The Bonne Citoyenne arrived at Plymouth, April 17th, from St. Salvador, with one million sterling on board.—Such were the apprehensions entertained for her safety that policies had been underwritten at Lloyd's, at 600 pr. cent.

Lieut. Chadds, with the surviving officers and crew of the late frigate Java, arrived at Portsmouth April 18th, from St. Salvador.

RUSSIAN VICTORIES.
Dawning street, London, April 19.
Extract of a letter from General Baron Tettenborn to Major Kent-singer, dated Hamburg, April 4. I had the honor to announce to you the signal victory which our troops have gained upon the 24th of April, over the army of gen. Morand, who had possessed himself of the town of Luneburg.

General Morand, with 37,000 men had marched from Lestadt to Luneburg. My Cossacks followed his movements; and I gave information of them to gen. Doroborg, who, in conjunction with general Tschernicheff's corps had passed the Elbe at Lentzen. The two generals advanced by forced marches to Luneburg, and arrived there just as my cossacks were engaged with the enemy. The gates were forced with the bayonet, and a sanguinary conflict ensued in the streets of the town. The victory was soon decided in our favour, all who were not killed, or already made prisoners, laid down their arms. Not a single one escaped of the whole corps. Three pair of colours and 12 pieces of cannon fell into our hands.

St. Petersburg, March 2.—Adjutant General Winzingerode reports from Kmisch, under date of 14th Feb. as follows, to Prince Kutusoff; "With the army confided to me, I came up with Gen. Regner, at Kalitsch, in the evening of the 13th inst. The enemy directed their movements upon the city to form a junction with from 3 to 4000 Poles, who had 15 pieces of cannon with them, and found themselves at the very instant attacked by the Russian troops with their characteristic ardor. The result of this attack is the more honorable to the reputation of his majesty's arms, as the enemy's infantry who were in superior force, made a brave and obstinate resistance. Two Saxon standards, 7 pieces of cannon, the Saxon general Rostitz, 3 colonels, 36 officers, and 2000 privates, were the trophies of this day. My advanced guard is pursuing the enemy, who retreats upon Raeskow.

The infantry having made forced marches for four successive days, will require one or two days rest."
