PROPOSALS

For publishing in the City of Baltimore,

A NEWSPAPER,

TO BE ENTITLED, THE

Baltimore Correspondent,

AND

Merchants, Manufacturers & Mechanics

DAILY ADVERTISER.

BY THOMAS HOWARD HILL, PRINTER.

THE proposed paper will be published daily (at noon) in order to circulate the earliest intelligence which may be received by the mails.

It is proper that the intended editor should declare his intentions as to the manner in which he means to conduct the publication of "The BALTIMORE CORRESPONDENT." He pledges himself that it shall be held abstract from all party, and be conducted upon the most impartial principles—that it shall comprize the following articles, viz: all foreign and domestic news of the day; a regular detail of naval and military events; a correct and regular journal of the proceedings of the national legislature as also those of the different states, and all documents that may be submitted to them for consideration. And in the absence of the above general named intelligence, he will insert useful notices of the progress of commerce, (internal and external,) of manufactures, and of mechanics, as indeed it is solely devoted to their advancement. A price current (corrected weekly) will be inserted upon the most convenient day.

The utility of such a newspaper at the present time is most certainly obvious to those acquainted with the time of the arrival of the great mail; and as it is the wish of the editor to make the contemplated paper as useful as possible, he promises to use his utmost exertions in collecting of intelligence that may be useful and interesting to those who may favor him with their support.

TERMS.

"The Baltimore Correspondent" will be printed on a half sheet super royal, at five dollars per annum, payable half yearly in advance—the paper for the country at three dollars in advance. Advertisements to be inserted on the usual terms unless otherwise contracted for by the year.

☞ Arrangements are now making to anticipate news by letter.

January 12, 1814.

20 Dollars Reward.

Runaway from the subscriber, on Tuesday the 4th inst. a negro man by the name of CHARLES, formerly the property of Mr. Gassaway Rawlings. He is a stout able fellow, about 30 years of age, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, stutters very much when talking, he has a wife at Mr. William Stewart's quarter, Fingall. His cloathing when he went off was a round over jacket, made of green half thick, given to him this fall; a spotted swandown under jacket much worn, white fulled country cloth trowsers a good deal mended, coarse shoes & yarn stockings, a white hat with a broad brim; as he has other cloathing he may change to suit his purpose. Charles is an old offender; in the life time of his former master he often took these trips, and when away he got acquainted on Elk-Ridge & Baltimore; he was taken up some years ago and confined in Frederick gaol; he has a brother in George-Town, living with Mr. Thomas Gantt. It is supposed he may endeavor to get to some of the above places, and pass as a free man. Whoever takes up the said fellow, and delivers him to me, or confines him in any gaol so that I get him again, shall receive the above reward. All persons are forbid harbouring the said fellow at their peril.

A novel, in two volumes, translated from the French of Mad. Genlis—

BY A. HARRALSON.

To which is prefixed, a Tale of the celebrated M. FLORIAN—Entitled,

Claudine, or the Savoyards.

"Perhaps it would be saying enough, to recommend this work to the American reader, to announce it as the production of the prolific mind of Madam Genlis, whose writings, by the mere buoyancy of genius, maintain a distinguished post at the summit of French literature. It is not, however, by the charms of style, or that correct delineation of character, so manifest in the writings of this lady, that they have thus found their way to public admiration; it is by the fine precepts of morality which they inculcate, the art she has of rendering every incident in the conduct of a novel subservient to useful and instructive aim, and of imparting to the whole that fervid glow of moral enthusiasm, which sets off in such high relief the gross and hideous aspect of vice."
