September 29.

From the Federal Gazette.
CAPT. JOHN C. HERBERT,

The soldier and the patriot, yet a peace-man, and ever opposed to the war, is now a candidate for congress to represent Anne-Arundel and P. George's counties. For proof, read the following letter:

"I have every reason to be entirely satisfied with the vigilant and constant service of Capt. Herbert's troop of horse; and that they were unflinchingly employed in the most useful and dangerous service of observing the enemy, immediately on his lines, as long as it was possible for the horses and men to sustain the fatigue."

LETTER FROM GEN. BROWN.

Extract of a letter from Gen. Brown to Gen. Gaines, dated Head Quarters, Fort Erie, Sept. 18, 1814.

MY DEAR GENERAL,

"The sortie that I have been contemplating ever since my return to this place, was ordered yesterday. It succeeded. We carried the enemy's battery—destroyed his battering cannon, and blew up a strong new work which he had erected with a view of demolishing Fort Erie. He resisted manfully, but was promptly overpowered. His loss say 400 prisoners. His total loss cannot be less than 800 men. I have to lament the loss of many gallant officers. Our loss is not numerous, and our strength is but little impaired by this splendid achievement. General Ripley is severely wounded. Col. Gibson and Wood killed. Col. Aspinwall has lost his arm, and major Trimble is, I fear, mortally wounded."

Land for Sale.

The undersigned is extremely anxious to sell the following tracts of land in Calvert county, Maryland. One tract of woodland, containing two hundred acres, and abounding in timber suitable for building houses, and vessels of every description, within about a mile and an half of Battle Creek, which empties itself into the River Patuxent, about twenty miles from its mouth, from which land there is a good road secured by law to the Creek, which is navigable to the very landing; there are a large tobacco house, two log dwelling houses, and several out houses on this land. Also another tract of land, containing upwards of three hundred acres, and bordering on the head waters of Battle Creek, which is navigable for batteaus and scows to the landing, and which abounds in Cypress and Chesnut timber, the former suitable for plank and shingles, being impervious to worms, which destroys every other kind of timber, while they leave the Cypress untouched; the latter suitable for fence rails. There are a grist and saw mills, a framed dwelling house, three log tenants houses, a black smith's shop, a tobacco house, and several out houses, on the last mentioned land. Should these lands not be sold by next October court, they will then be offered at Public Sale. Persons disposed to buy may obtain great bargains by speedy applications.

20 Dollars Reward.

Ran away on the 2d of May, a Negro Man called Ned, who, with several others, added that of Jones, and brought suit in Anne-Arundel county, by John Golder, for their right to freedom; which suit, at the last term of the court, was dismissed for the want of proof. He is a straight likely black fellow, 22 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and has under one of his eyes, a scar about an inch long and broad. No descriptive information can be given as to his clothes; he went off with a straw hat, a country round-about striped jacket and trousers, and good shoes and stockings. It is probable he may endeavour to get to Baltimore, or to the City of Washington. I will pay a dollar a mile on the distance he may be taken, if committed to gaol, so that I get him again; fifteen dollars if taken at Annapolis and committed; ten dollars if taken in the neighbourhood, or twenty if taken in Calvert county.

I am informed that an old yellow woman resides in Calvert who calls herself Hannah Jones, and who my Negroes, who claimed their freedom, call aunt—she is wife to a miller, who attends or did attend a mill, once the property of a Mr. Smith, and purchased by Capt. David Carcaud.

By changing the constitution the mode of choosing the president and vice president, by which the larger states are enabled to control the smaller, the more traffic of these important offices.

By the monstrous usurpation of nominating a president and vice-president at the seat of government in the vortex of intrigue, and under the smiles and patronage of the candidate proposed, instead of leaving the nomination to a free and un-bought people.

By prostrating men for their opinions, and banishing from trust and employment, the friends of Washington and his policy, thereby depriving the nation of the councils and support of its wisest and best citizens, and alienating men's minds from the love of each other and their common country.

By multiplying offices and salaries, and appointing officers civil and military, without experience or knowledge, remarkable chiefly for party violence and immorality, consequently more dependent on the will and opinions of the president, and his weak but rash advisers.

By conferring high offices on strangers, possessing no attachment but to the party which upholds them, and by these instruments, strengthning themselves in office at the risk of exposing the people to the intrigues, ignorance and passions of foreign agents—men who it may be evident, cannot love our country, not less for our undervalued interests.

And finally, by violating the freedom of speech and opinions, overawing elections, and introducing terror and military despotism.

Taking a view of legislative and executive conduct, scenes of weakness and deplorable mistakes unfold themselves. The American freedom who reviews all the mass of political intrigues, unbecomingly and corruption, may well exclaim, "Give us back peace and the honest policy of Washington." Near after year has passed away in bust and confusion, mischief—in holding out false hopes —in ambiguous presidential messages—in feigned negotiations—in multitudinous projects, and in contradictory and futile resolutions—in vain boasting, and hollowatory speeches—in hubbub, threatening against the foreign government, and object submission and even aid to another more innocently wrong doer.

By all these the public mind was kept distracted, and the great purposes of steady, useful government, overlooked or abandoned. The substantial interests and prosperity of the nation literally and shamefully sacrificed.

Nevertheless, most inconsistent with our ancient habits, and most injurious to American rights and interests, have been introduced and persevered in, to the almost entire subversion of the forms of American policy.
