

PORT CORNER
CAMPBELL.
Who breathes enchantment on every thing he touches, has imparted a wonderful interest to a poor tree. The verses resemble, but are much sweeter than Southey's, on the Holly Tree. What a tender sentiment does he call up by association, in the last stanza! It is in studying and seizing these associations, that the great charm of poetry consists.

THE BEACH TREE'S PETITION.
Oh, leave this barren spot to me!
Spare, Woodman, spare the Beachen Tree!
Tho' shrub or flower never grow
My wan unwarming shade below;
Nor summer, bud perfume the dew,
Of rosy blush or yellow hue;
Nor fruits of autumn, blossom born,
My green and glossy leaves adorn;
Nor murmuring tribes from me derive
Th' ambrosial treasures of the hive;
Yet—leave this little spot to me!
Spare, Woodman, spare the Beachen Tree!

Thrice twenty summers I have stood
In bloomless, fruitless, solitude,
Since childhood, in my rustling bower,
First spent its sweet and sportive hour;
Since youthful lovers, in my shade,
Their vows of truth and rapture paid,
And on my trunk's surviving frame
Carv'd many a long forgotten name.
Oh, by the vows of gentle sound,
First breath'd upon this sacred ground,
By all that love bath whisper'd here,
Or beauty heard with ravis'd ear—
As love's own altar, honour me;
Spare Woodman, spare the Beachen Tree!

From the National Intelligencer.
Copy of a letter from Com. Decatur to his Excellency the Marquis Circello, secretary of the state and minister of foreign affairs of his Majesty the King of Naples.

U. S. Ship Guerriere,
Naples, Sept. 8th, 1815.
Sir—I have the honour to inform your excellency, that in my late negotiation with the Bashaw of Tripoli, I demanded and obtained the release of eight Neapolitan captives, subjects of his majesty the King of the Two Sicilies. These I have landed at Messina. It affords me great pleasure to have had it in my power, by this small service, to evince to his majesty the grateful sense entertained by my government of the aid formerly rendered to us by his majesty, during our war with Tripoli.

With great respect and consideration, I have the honour to be, your excellency's most obedient servant,
STEPHEN DECATUR,
His Excellency the Marquis Circello, Secretary of State, &c.

Naples, 12th Sept. 1815.
Sir—Having laid before the king my master, the paper which you have directed me, dated the 8th inst. in which you were pleased to acquaint me that, in your last negotiation with the Bey of Tripoli, you had freed from the slavery of that regency, eight subjects of his Majesty, whom you had also set on shore at Messina; his majesty has ordered me to acknowledge this peculiar favour, as the act of your generosity, which you have been pleased to call a return for the trifling assistance which the squadron of your nation formerly received from his royal government during the war with Tripoli.

In doing myself the pleasure of manifesting this sentiment of my king, and of assuring you in his name, that the brave American nation will always find in his majesty's ports the best reception, I beg you will receive the assurances of my most distinguished consideration.
MARQUIS CIRCELLO,
Secretary of state and minister of foreign affairs.
Com. Decatur, commander of the squadron of the U. S. of America.

FOREIGN.
From the New York Gazette Nov. 21. LATE FROM LIVERPOOL. By the ship Huntress, the 1st of the New York Gazette has arrived London and Liverpool on the 21st ult. The state of the markets abroad is very quiet, most immediately pressing to us, claim our first attention. We have been favored with a copy of the present Current of the 19th Oct. from which it appears that the price of cotton, &c. had decreased. Disturbances of the seamen is continued at Newcastle, to an increasing degree. Chains of boats were thrown across the river Tyne, and a vessel was permitted to pass to sea, without a regular passport from the committee of refractory seamen. Sir George Prevost was to be tried by a Court Martial—the charges preferred against him are said to be advising Capt. Downie to attack the American squadron on the 22nd, when it was imprudent to without the co-operation of the land forces, and for not having ordered that co-operation—forming the American works before the commencement of the action; for having disregarded the signal for co-operation which had been previously agreed on—having attacked the enemy's ships, either during the said action or after it was ended by the squadron might have been saved. Liverpool, Oct. 21.—Tobacco within the course of this week has fallen upon an average. A large cause for this extraordinary advance, is the comparative stock in the market; but it is probably to be traced to the operations of a few great capitalists, who have contrived to buy the whole of the article at low rates. From our London Correspondent. Almost the whole conversation of the day has been occupied with a late of the gallant and unfortunate Portier. The letters from the Packet, which were sent by her voyage in the short interval of 60 hours, are to the date of the 18th inst. and according to private advices, it should be that the daring and extensive expedition which was to be carried out by Portier, was for some time eminent lawyers, who had appeared. It is said that Hay, Cyder, Cyder Casks and Barrels, Plantation Utensils, Household and Kitchen Furniture—also Wheat, Rice and Oats, in the straw, with other articles too tedious to enumerate. Terms of sale Cash. Sale to commence at 10 o'clock A. M. and continue from day to day until the whole is disposed of.
