"I am writing now in the still & beautifut repose of a summer's night. The moon is riding in sad and solemn majesty upon her undisturbed course; culm, pale, and saintlike, she moves upon the dark blue sky; like the christian, mourn ul with the semblance of mortality, but directing to a better world his fleet ng footsteps. If a few wild notes of a long neglected lyre may harmonize with the tranquil and soothing scene, I insert them for your amusement.

THE SUMMER MIDNIGHT. The breeze of night has sunk to rest, Upon the river's tranquil breast; And every bird has sought her nest,

Where silent is her minstrelsy, The queen of heaven is sailing high. A pale bark on the azure sky, Where not a breath is heard to sigh-So deep the soft tranquility.

Forgotten now the heat of day That on the burning waters lay, The noon of night her mantle gray Spreads, from the sun's high blazon-ry, But glittering in that gentle night There gleams a line of silvery light, As tremulous on the shores of white It hovers sweet and playfully.

At peace the distant shallop rides; Not as when dashing o'er her sides The roaring bay's unruly tides Were beating round her gloriously

But every sail is furl'd and still, Silent the seaman's whistle shrill, While dreamy slumbers seem to thrill With parted hours of extacy.

Stars of the many spangled heaven! Faintly this night your beams are given. The' proudly where your hosts are driven Ye rear your dazzling galaxy;

Since far and wide a softer hue Is spread across the plains of blue, Where in bright chorus ever true For ever swells your harmony.

O! for some sadly dying note Upon this silent hour to float, Where from the bustly world remote,

The lyre might wake its metody; One feeble strain is all can swell From n ine almost deserted shell, In mournful accents yet to tell That slumbers not its minstrelsy.

There is an hour of deep repose That yet upon my heart shall close, When all that nature dreads & know

Shall burst upon me wond rously; O may I then awake for ever My harp to rapture's high endeavour, And as from earth's vain scene I sever, tie lost in Immortality!

LANDS FOR SALE.

By virtue of a deed of trust from Ri chard H. Harwood, Esq. of the city of Annapolis, the subscribers offer for sale the following lands, to wite A plantstion on Elk Ridge, in Anne Arundel county, on which the said Richard H Harwood resided, about three miles above M'Coy's Tavern, containing about 112 1 2 acres. The roads from M'Coy's up the country, and from Owens's mills to Baltimore, pass through this land. The best judges are of opinion that it is capable of being made equal to any of the Elk Ridge lands. There are on it a good dwelling house, and convenient out houses a garden, a spring of most excellent water very near house, and an ice house. They will also sell parts of several tracts of land, the whole being in one body, and containing about 416 14 acres, being in Charles county, adjoining Bean Town For terms apply to the subscribers, HENRY H HARWOOD, RICHARD HARWOOD, of Thos. Annapolis, Sept. 3.

The Editors of the Federal Gazette and American of Baltimore, are requested to insert in bove twice a week for three wield and forward their accounts to this slice.

MOSES,

Alias Moses Johnson, aged about 30 years, about 5 feet, 8 or 9 inches high, very black and well set, round & plea sant countenance when spoken to, no particular marks recollected; his cloth he eloped, was a round drab coloured overjacket, trowsers of mixed brown cloth, shirt of common osnaburg,

DAVY BOSTON,

Very nearly of the same description of Moses. (aged about 20 years.) except his complexion, which is rather of a yel-low cast, has a mark on the left side of his mouth, or rather on the cheek, which is about one inch long, and raised the thickness of a large knittingneedle; this mark cannot fail of being perceived if examined, by which Davy cannot be mistaken-his clothes it is deemed unnecessary to describe, as he has no doubt changed them.

DICK BOSTON,

Aged about 18 years, brother to Davy, rather slender, and of a dark complexion, approaching to black; is about 5 teet 8 inches high, has a fine set of teeth, thick lips, and rather a surly countenance; his clothing consisting of short blite coat and pantaloons, osna burg shirt, and a wool hat. Each of them were in possession of a pair of strong shoes well nailed.

I will give for the apprehension of the above described negroes, if secured in any gaol in the state of Maryland so that I get them again, 150 dollars, or 50 dollars for either of them, and is taken out of the state, and secured in any gaol so that I get them again, I will give 300 dollars, and in proportion for either of them SOLOMON SPARROW. May 13.

THE STEAM BOAT Maryland,

CAPTAIN VICKARS.

This Superior Vessel is now prepar ed, and has commenced the tour of operations for which she has been destin-She has been planned, constructed and equipped, by the ablest Artists; and the Materials, Machinery, Furniture and Workmanship, are all of the best kinds. These have all been provided and applied under the constant superintendance of Captain Barber & Captain Vickars, in alternate attendance, as the skilful Agents of the Company; and both are very deeply interested in the undertaking. The greatest confidence may therefore be reposed in the soundness of the vessel and ed in the soundness of the vessel, and the safety of her machinery. The accommodations on board, and the arrangement of the apartments for elegance, convenience and security, can not be exceeded; and her exterior appearance is extremely beautiful.

She will leave Easton every Monday & Thursday, at & o'clock in the morn ing-call at Annapolis to land and re-ceive passengers-and proceed to Bal timore in the evening of the same days where she will arrive at 6 o'clock Re turning, she will leave Baltimore every Wednesday & Saturday, at the same hour in the morning—call at Annapolis to land and receive passengers-and proceed to Easton in the evening of the same days, where she will arrive at the like hour.

Passengers are respectfully invited to avail themselves of this agreeable converance; and they are assured that every care and attention shall be exerted to give them satisfaction.

NB. Persons wishing to take Horses and Carriages on board, are requisted to have them sent to the boat an hour previous to her sailing.

83-A Mail Stage leaves Crawford's Tavern in Georgetown, early every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, for Annapolis, and on its return route leaves Williamson's Tavern in Annapolis early every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, passing through Queen Anne and Maribro' in its route, offering a convenient and speedy conveyance to travellers going either to Bal-timore or the Eastern Shore, as well as to those going from the Eastern shore to the City of Washington.
