

LANDS FOR SALE,
OF GOOD QUALITY,
In the neighbourhood of Annapolis, consisting of the RISING SUN FARM,

Formerly a Tavern—the land adjoining formerly held by Edward Baldwin—and also adjoining a body of Woodlands, known by the name of Salmon Hills, containing together upwards of 500 acres. These lands have nearly all been enclosed by a good fence, and much improved by plaster and clover, which operate with very great effect. The soil is generally of a red loam, and is susceptible of great fertility by clover cultivation—best of tobacco is made in the neighbourhood especially on lands of this quality. There have been many improvements added to the houses and many other conveniences erected, since it has been in the hands of the present possessors.

A credit of one, two and three years, will be given to the purchasers, on paying one fourth of the purchase money down, and annual interest on the unpaid portions.

Also for sale the Land formerly held by Henry H. Brown, called "Prospect Plains," containing about 270 acres, on which Mr. Welch now resides, under certain covenants. This land is very advantageously situated on the banks of the Severn, with a most convenient landing on Plum Creek, is adapted to Plaster, and yields Tobacco of superior quality. This tract will be sold on the same terms of payment as the preceding ones—and if the whole be not sold by private contract before the first Monday in October next, they will on that day, at 10 o'clock, be sold by public Vendue at the Rising Sun stand—Apply for particulars to Mr. James Pollard, on the premises, to Mr. Joseph Sands in Annapolis, or to the Subscribers in Baltimore.

Also offer for sale the land called BODKIN NECK, on the river Patuxent and the Bay, containing upwards of 1100 acres.—This land is held by tenants under certain covenants, yielding $700 a year. A part of it has commodious dwellings on it, and is in a high state of improvement.—The supply of manure by depositions from the Bay, is beyond the wants of the land. There is an abundance of deer and wild turkey on the land, and a great portion of it is in wood of second and original growth. Its vicinity to Baltimore, its fisheries, and other circumstances independent of its value as a farm, give it great advantages.

I will also sell all the lands that are known by the name of "The Connection and Howard's Fancy," lately held by Major T. Dorsey and Mr. Yealdhall, adjoining the Blackhorse tavern, nine miles from Annapolis. They contain together, about 600 acres, and constitute one of the first positions for a farm of any location in that section of the country.

The quality of the soil is a red loam, similar to the best lands on West River. Plaster and clover will in one year produce great fertility, and wheat may be raised on it, yielding a great crop, as may be seen by the crops within the neighbourhood on lands of similar quality. There are the best natural meadows on this farm, of any in the neighbourhood. A long credit will be given to the purchaser for the greatest part of the money. Apply to Mr. Joseph Sands in Annapolis, or the subscribers in Baltimore.

South River Bridge Stock.

Notice is hereby given, that the books of the South River Bridge Company will be again opened on the first Monday of September next at Williamson's Tavern, in the city of Annapolis, at 10 o'clock A. M. for the purpose of receiving subscriptions for the residue of the stock. The Directors feel well assured that, when the many advantages are taken into consideration, that must result to the proprietors of land in the neighbourhood of South River, and to the citizens of Annapolis, from the erection of this bridge, no further inducement need be offered to ensure a full subscription. It may not be improper to state that the Directors have in person examined the different points on the River, and from that examination, and the advice of experienced Bridge Builders, have selected, as the most proper site, that part of the River known by the name of Quynn's Ferry. Many proposals to erect the bridge, accompanied by estimates of the expence, have already been received from which the directors are satisfied that the amount of the proposed subscription will greatly exceed the probable cost. Persons who may be disposed to subscribe, need not appear any delay in the erection of the bridge, as they have determined to proceed with all possible dispatch. Believing as they do, that if the present opportunity be neglected, another equally favourable may never again occur, the directors confidently look to the public spirit of the neighbourhood for a full subscription of the remaining shares.

Applications for the purchase of stock will be received by any one of the directors, at any time prior to the first Monday of September.

The Maryland Republican will publish the above once a week until the 1st of September. 4

NOTE FROM EUROPE.
New-York, Sept. 1.
The first sailing ship Minerva, from Liverpool.
The Queen has taken a residence in the mean time from various parts of the continent to pour in upon Majesty.—In answer to one of the holds the following language: "I feel no inquietude about the present attack on my honour and credit in malice, and had no support than perjury. The charges in 1806 will be equally deserved."

had been humiliated with contempt if I had suffered.
I should have been an affair of national calculation. I should not have been deprived of the respect which is the basis of this noble nation, in a late negotiation on the part of my accusers I had exhibited the unworthiness of a British queen.
There can be any satisfaction in conducting in sentiment and defiance, I willingly resign to the pusillanimity of my adversaries."

The common council of London remonstrated against the proceedings of the house of lords, in relation to the treatment of the Queen.
The resolutions were passed, and the corresponding remonstrance was presented to the house of peers.
All the Italian witnesses summoned by the Ministry, to testify against the queen, have been sent to the continent. This measure was devised to secure them against the attacks of the mob. They are quartered by the British Ambassador at the Hague, until they shall be sent to the trial. It is said, that they most to fear from the insults and abuse of the females, who stand forth with the most resolution in defiance of the rights and privileges of the sex.

We should infer that the ministry were by no means satisfied with the fidelity and loyalty of the popular, in case they should find it necessary to proceed to extremities against the queen. Additional troops have been called for to secure the stores of the capital, and to guard the warehouses of the East India Company, together with twenty-five thousand stand of arms, belonging to that body. In case of an insurrection, the seizure of these arms would be of powerful service to the discontents.

In the house of lords, on the 22d inst. before they proceeded to business, the archbishop of Canterbury, the duke of Montrose, the lord of Liverpool, and several voters at a minute survey of the seats for the purpose of ascertaining the number they would hold with reference to the trial of the queen.— The present arrangement of the seats is calculated to contain 200 members. Orders were given to make additional seats for 300 Peers.
On the 24th lord Erskine presented a petition from the queen, requesting to be furnished with a list of witnesses against her; a specification of the places in which the criminal acts were charged to have been committed; and a request to be heard by her counsel at the bar of her lordships. Lord Erskine hoped that the last request would not be refused. After speeches from the lord chancellor, lord Holland, the earl of Liverpool, lord King, lord Bathurst and lord Erskine, who concluded by moving, "That counsel be now heard at the bar in support of the petition;" the house then proceeded upon the motion—non-consensus—contents 12—majority 11, against the motion.

The opposition papers continue to attack the ministry, on account of their employing foreign writers against the Queen. To this it is replied with much plausibility, that witnesses should they employ, since her majesty either could not retain any British subjects in her employ, or else she purpose to drive them from her household.
