100 Dollars Reward.

Runaway from the subscriber's farm, on the head of South River, Anne Arundel county, a ste of Maryland, on Saturday night the 8th September, 1827, two negro men. The one by the name of BEN, being the servant of Mrs. Sarah Wells of Annapolis, but the bearing of the subscriber for the present year. The other by the name of GEORGE, being my property. Ben is a stout well made fellow, about 3 feet ten inches high, has a good set of teeth, is very black, and wears a green coat with a red collar and cuffs, and a pair of blue trousers, and a red cap. He is a native of the State, and is about 27 years of age, five feet seven or eight inches high, pretty well made, and is an active, cunning crafty fellow, his colour is swarthy black, rather inclined to yellow, he is of good countenance, when spoken to looks down, and looks down, and his voice generally low. Had on when he went away, a blacking trousers and shirt, his other clothes not recollected, but as he had other clothing, he is supposed to have carried it with him. He is a wife in Baltimore living of Federal Hill. I am informed he expressed a desire to be seen in Baltimore on Sunday the 9th instant. All persons masters or captains of employ or vessels, are forbidden to employ or receive either of those negro men on board their vessels. Whoever takes them in goal so that I get them again, and if taken in his state, and secured in goal so that I get their salary, sixty dollars for the two; or thirty dollars for each.
