A CARD. Whereas meetings of the voters opposed to the re-election of our present representative in congress, have been called in the various districts of the counties of which the second congressional district is composed, and the city of Annapolis, for the purpose of nominating an opposition candidate; and whereas it is believed that the regular course is only resorted to for the single purpose of foisting upon the people some devoted partizan of the "was, pestilence and famine" dynasty, to oppose the administration of Jackson, right or wrong, and which is the duty of all freemen, who possess inalienable rights, to be upon the alert, and to act independently of all personal or local considerations, in the schemes which are now shallow to pass without detection, and father to too much consequence if successful, to pass unnoticed, it is therefore respectfully proposed, to all the friends of the present administration, that they should be organized into existence by the voice of the people, backed by the unprecedented majority of one hundred and fifty-five thousand five hundred and fifty-one in their respective election districts on the 21st day of May next.
