THE SACRED CLASSICS, OR
CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY:
With an original Introductory Essay to each Author.
EDITED BY THE REV. RICH'D. COTTEMOLE, B. D.
AND
THE REV. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

No other country has so many England in her sacred literature. Her great Poets and Philosophers have shared with her Divines, in the glorious contest of establishing the rights of Reason, and in the copiousness of her learning.

The same character thus given to the sacred literature of England has, from a variety of circumstances, been happily preserved from the ravages of time, and has thus the whole series of our Sacred Classics, is a well of truth and consolation, as open to the general reader as to the most learned student.

It is intended to compare in this collection, the best works of all the most celebrated writers, whose labours have been devoted to the elucidation and practical enforcement of the principles of revealed truth, whether in their application to the immortal interests of individuals or to the order and well-being of society. Treatises on the Doctrines, Morality, and Ecclesiastical Constitution, which have secured the permanent status of a sacred and approved select Sermons of the most eminent Divines; the most interesting specimens of Religious Biography; and the choicest examples of Devotional and Sacred Poetry, will succeed each other in the order which may be judged most conducive to the benefit and gratification of the reader.

To the productions of each author or to each separate production, as the case may seem to require, will be prefixed an Introductory Essay, pointing out the characteristic excellencies; and, in some instances, comprising a biographical sketch of the Author, with remarks on the state of religion in his times.

It is the desire of the Proprietors, in undertaking this Cabinet Library of Divinity, to present the collection to the public at such a price, that he who purchases at present the cheapest of ephemeral publications, may, for the same money, possess himself of works which cannot fail to afford him guidance and support in the highest exercises of his faculties, and under every vicissitude of life.

The work will be handsomely printed in Foolscap 8vo. on good paper, cloth-bound, neatly bound in Morocco leather, lettered and published in Volumes of about 400 pages each (on the first day of every month). Price, Three Shillings and Sixpence.

Forming the cheapest series of works ever offered to the public.

The following names of Authors whose works are intended for publication is submitted in evidence of the impartiality of the selection:

Jeremy Taylor, Bates, Boyle, Baxter, Owen, Calverley, Thomas A. Kempis, Barnet, Howe, Butler, Wilson, Bunyan, Fenelon, Doddridge, South, Bull, Hammond, Barrow, Tillotson, Southwell, Jurin, Farinon, Horsley, Haile, Southey, Porteus, Locke, Leighton, Cave, Chillingworth, Hall, Jewel, Jackson, Flavel, Charnock, Wesley, Scroggs, Watts, Lawth, Kennicott, Waterland, Montague, Bilguy, Pearson, Ken, Newton, Snonope, Whitby, Hammond, Barkitt, Herbert, Doune, Merrick, &c. &c.

Vol. I. (to be published on the 1st of January) will contain

THE LIBERTY OF PROPHECYING, by Jeremy Taylor—with an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. Richard Cottemole, B. D.

Vol. II. (to be published on the 1st of February) will contain

CAVE'S LIVES OF THE APOSTLES—with Notes, and an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. Henry Stebbing, M. A.

Vol. III. (to be published on the 1st of March) will contain

BATES'S SPIRITUAL PERFECTION, UNFOLDED AND ENFORCED—with an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. John Pye Smith, D. D.

LONDON: John Hatchard and Son; Piccadilly: Whittaker & Co. Ave Maria Lane, Stumpkin & Marshall, Stationers' Court; D. A. Talbot & Co. Oxford; J. & J. Deighton, Cambridge; Oliver & Boyd, Edinburgh; and J. Cummins, Dublin

And to be had of every Bookseller throughout the Kingdom.
The English copy will cost, in England, about ten dollars. We propose to issue the American edition, under the superintendence of a learned American clergyman, in weekly numbers, on a single sheet of superior paper, giving ninety-six large 12mo. pages, to be folded and stitched, and covered with strong envelope paper, at the rate of five dollars per annum.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

By virtue of sundry writs of fieri facias issued out of Anne Arundel County Court, and to me directed, against the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, of William J. McPherson, at suit of John Jones, Andrew Aldridge, and Benjamin D. Higdon, and Elisha Daves, use of John Jones, I have seized and taken in execution, all the right, title, interest, property, claim and demand, both at law and in equity, of said William McPherson, of, in and to, one Negro Man by the name of James, one Boy named Philip, and one Negro Woman named Nancy, and on THURSDAY, the 17th day of September next, at Tracy's Landing, I will proceed to sell the said Negroes to the highest bidder, for cash, to satisfy the debt due aforesaid. Sale to commence at 11 o'clock.
R. WELCH, of Bg., Sheriff of A. A. County.

NOVEL MODE OF CLUBBING. WALDIE'S LIBRARY, PORT FOLIO AND MUSEUM.

AS the publications now issued from the office of the Select Circulating Library are of a highly popular cast, and of a character to be appreciated by the educated portions of the community, and to circulate every where, by concert with the proprietor of the Museum, that work, the Port Folio and Library, are offered to those who take the three on the following conditions, viz:
The Museum, Port Folio and Library, if paid for in advance and addressed to the same individual whether in town or country, will be sold for $12, thus enabling every individual to benefit by the clubbing system, without the necessity of applying to others. Those who have made a payment for the current year to either of the works, of whatever amount, will be privileged to avail themselves of this arrangement, by paying the balance—thus

1. Those who have paid or now pay $5 for the Library, shall receive the Museum and Port Folio, the price of which separate is $5, on the payment of $7.
2. Those who have paid or now pay $6 for the Museum, shall receive the Library and Port Folio, the price of which is separately $8, on the payment of $6.
3. Those who have paid or now pay for the Port Folio, shall receive the Library and Museum on paying such a sum as will be equal to $12 on the whole.
4. The Circulating Library and Museum, will be sent to the same address on the payment of $10.

REMARKS.—The three works thus issued together, comprise a greater amount of the current literature of the age, than is issued in a periodical form from any other office in the United States, and will, the proprietor believes, with the addition of a good newspaper, supply to families all the advantages which could be furnished in a most extensive reading room in one of our Atlantic cities. In the Library the newest and best books are regularly published; in the Museum and Port Folio it has been found by experience that every thing we could wish to copy from the entire British literary periodicals, omitting mostly the political articles, can be rapidly issued. These publications embrace so much that is desirable to be known, and are so generally perused in the best circles in America, that to be without either is to drop a link in the literary chain. They are all under the control of one mind, and therefore the reader will very rarely indeed be compelled to pay for the same matter twice, as they are independent of each other, complete in themselves, and free in general from any repetitions of the same articles.

These views the proprietor respectfully throws out for the consideration of the friends of sound and wholesome literature.

PROSPECTUS OF THE EXTRA GLOBE.

THE undersigned propose to issue the first number of a new series of the EXTRA GLOBE, on Monday, the 25th of May next, and to publish it weekly for six months, making twenty-six numbers; the last to contain an Index to the whole. It will be printed upon fine double royal paper, made up in quarto form, like the Extra and Congressional Globes published by us last year.—The 26 numbers will make 416 quarto royal pages.

It will contain the principal original articles of the Daily and Semi-Weekly Globes, notices of the public meetings, the elections, and public proceedings in every state in the Union, in relation to the canvass for the next Presidency—a contest which the indications of the present year will go far to decide.

The first number will contain the Proceedings of the Democratic National Convention, to be held at Baltimore on the 20th of next month. An excellent Reporter has already been engaged to report the Proceedings of the Convention, and the Speeches which may be made on the occasion.

We request the favour of those friends to whom this Prospectus may be sent, to circulate it, for the purpose of obtaining subscribers. A copy of the work will be sent to the newspapers that copy this Prospectus. Subscribers should forward their names in time to reach us before the 25th May. If they do not, we may not be able to furnish them with all the numbers; because the work is put at so low a price, that we cannot afford to reprint any number that may be exhausted.

TERMS: One Dollar per copy, in advance. Eleven copies will be furnished for Ten Dollars; twenty-two copies for Twenty Dollars, and so on in proportion. The price of this paper is so low, that we cannot afford to open accounts with those who subscribe for it. Therefore, no attention will be paid to any order, unless the money accompanies it.

COMPANION TO WALDIE'S LIBRARY.

The cheapest reprint from English Periodicals ever offered to the public.

BEFORE the Select Circulating Library had been long in existence, it was discovered that there was still something wanting—that many occurrences in the literary world must pass unknown, as regarded our agency, without an extension of the plan. To establish a fuller medium of communication and supply the desideratum, the Journal of Belles Lettres was added; which we have reason to believe has afforded general satisfaction. The very liberal patronage extended to the Library induced the proprietor to give that gratuitously as an evidence of his acknowledgments.

More extended experience has shown other desiderata which the "Companion" is intended to supply. While reading for the "Library" a large mass of material accumulates on the hands of the editor, of an interesting, entertaining, and instructive description, such as would properly come under the designation of Magazines, interspersed with the Reviews from the English Quarterlies. To publish every thing of this nature which we deem desirable would encroach too much on the columns of the "Library" designed for books, and yet to pass them by is constantly a subject of regret. To concentrate, therefore, the publication of Books entire, Reviews, lists of new works, the choicest contributions to Magazines, &c. &c. the "Companion to Waldie's Library" will be offered to the patronage of the present subscribers and the public at large. It is believed that with the "Library," the "Journal," and the "Companion," such an acquaintance with the literature of the age may be cultivated as to leave little further to be desired. Being all published from the same office, more facility offers for dealing with mistakes are less liable to occur, and more readily corrected when they do. The short interval of two weeks between the publication of each number, it is thought too, will be an advantage over monthlies and quarterlies.

The following plan is respectfully submitted.

1. The "COMPANION" will contain the earliest possible reprints of the best matter in the British periodicals.
2. It will be issued every fortnight, and the form will be the same as that of the Library—each number containing sixteen pages—thus, every six months, giving thirteen numbers, which can be bound with the Library at little or no more expense, and making a better sized volume; and to those who do not take the Library itself, a volume every year, of 416 quarto pages of the size of the present.
3. The price will be three dollars for a subscriber—five dollars for two—and clubs five and upwards will be supplied at two dollars each.
4. As the work will not be commenced, unless a sufficient patronage be obtained, no payment is required at present, only the same sent free of post.—Those wishing to support the publication will be pleased therefore to announce their intention as early as possible, as it is intended to commence the work on the 1st of January next. On the issuing of the second number payment will be expected, and its appearance will evince a sufficiency of patronage.

The proprietor of the Select Circulating Library, fully aware from experience of the advantages to the public of the rapid diffusion of cheap and select literature, has been induced to add the important feature to the work, and of course leaves it optional with the present subscribers and others to take it or not.

It is confidently believed, that, with the attention on the part of the Editor, who has already at hand the material for such a work, all the really valuable matter of the English literary and amusing publications may be comprised in this form at a rate of subscription and postage, so trifling as scarcely to be felt. It will form the cheapest reprint of reviews and magazines ever attempted in any country; a comparison with others is unnecessary unless here to enter upon, the "Library" itself being the best test by which to judge of the difference between an octavo and a quarto page. It will be the study of the Editor to embody a record of the day, adapted to the wants of this country, which can have no competitor for value or cheapness; how far he is likely to do this he must leave at present to the decision of his readers.

Clubs of five individuals, who subscribe to the "Library" and "Companion" both, will obtain the two for six dollars, the postage (a very important consideration) to the most distant post office, on the two, will be one dollar and ninety five cents, divided into seventy eight payments, and half that sum for 100 miles or a less distance from Philadelphia, while the same matter, in the usual American reprints of reviews and magazines in octavo form would be eighteen dollars, and the postage as three to one. We make this assertion advisedly.

Subscriptions to the "Companion," will be taken either with or without the "Library."

The proprietor trusts that his punctuality and exactness in executing his part of the contract in the publication of the "Library," will be considered a sufficient guarantee of the completion of his proposed undertaking.

ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY COURT.

ON application by petition in writing, of Robert T. Mercer, to the Judges of Anne Arundel County Court, praying the benefit of the insolvent laws of the state of Maryland, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, (on oath so far as he could ascertain them,) being annexed to his said petition, and the said court being satisfied that the said Robert T. Mercer has resided in the state of Maryland for two years next preceding the date of his said petition, and having appointed Andrew Mercer trustee for the benefit of the creditors of the said Robert T. Mercer, which said trustee has given bond in due form for the faithful performance of his trust, and the said Robert T. Mercer having executed a deed of conveyance to his said trustee for all his property, real, personal and mixed, and the said trustee having certified the delivery thereof to him, it is therefore hereby ordained and adjudged by the said court, that the said Robert T. Mercer be discharged from confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers printed in the city of Annapolis once a week for the term of three months, to appear before Anne Arundel County Court to be held in the city of Annapolis on the fourth Monday of October next, to shew cause, if any they have, why the said Robert T. Mercer should not have the benefit of the said laws as prayed.

June 4.

Ann Arundel County, St.

ON application to the subscriber, one of the Judges of the orphans court of Anne Arundel county, and state of Maryland, a petition in writing of Edward Brookes, Anne Arundel county, stating that he is in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at December session 1805, and the several amendments thereto, on the terms therein mentioned; a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath so far as he could ascertain the same, being annexed to his petition, and the said Edward Brookes having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said Edward Brookes having taken the path by the said act prescribed for the delivering up his property, and given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel county, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and having appointed a trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from said Edward Brookes a conveyance and possession of all his property, real, personal and mixed, I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said Edward Brookes be discharged from imprisonment, and that he give notice to his creditors by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Anne Arundel county, once a week for three months before the 4th Monday in October next, to appear before the said County Court, at the Court House of said county, at ten o'clock of the forenoon of that day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why said Edward Brookes should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements, as prayed.

Given under my hand this 21st day of February, in the year of our Lord, eighteen hundred and thirty five.

FRANCIS M. JARBOE, Church Street—Annapolis.

PROSPECTUS.

The subscriber proposes to publish, in the Upper District of Prince George's county, Maryland, a weekly journal, to be called THE BULLETIN.

In undertaking to supply this acknowledged desideratum to the populous and intelligent district in which the subscriber has the means of gathering information, he has a full and complete knowledge of the localities of the county, and the National facilities of an early communication of whatever may interest its patrons, particularly such as relate to the Editor; and he has no hope to present to his friends, but to furnish them with the most reliable and accurate information through the medium of a local nature, interesting to all persons of a liberal mind, and otherwise unattainable, and by this means be communicated to the expense of the larger journal, at least a synoptical view of all the important information they contain; and he trusts that those of literary taste who sometimes find in its columns, articles not unworthy of the employment of their leisure.

The plan of every publication which is to find success in popular support, must first be approved before public patronage can be expected; the Editor would here mark the outlines of his design, with the full knowledge that he had constituted an ordinal, by which, to regulate both its merit and the fidelity of its execution.

The Editor proposes to adapt his paper to the times, in which it is immediately surrounded, and among whom he must naturally find the majority of his patrons; he knows that to be intelligent and inquiring, he is desirous of being kept in the current of the public letters notices. He knows them to be patriotic, and that they feel a deep interest in the welfare of our common country. To satisfy this sentiment to the extent of his ability, he will endeavour to afford whatever intelligence of a political character may be calculated to interest them.

No man, with the faculty of thought, is at this crisis neutral in reference to the party distinctions now prevailing in this country, and the Editor does not wish to disguise his political sentiments—they are in opposition to the measure of the present administration. Not having neither the temper nor the motive of a partisan, his comments upon party movements shall be characterized by candour and fairness, not violence of abuse, as it never has been his practice, so shall never become his habit to deal in political invective or party violence. He will cheerfully lend the aid of his columns to communications from all parties—reserving to himself the privilege of rejecting such as are objectionable for personal allusion or indiscreet language. In addition to the advantages of appropriate political and literary selections, he will also attempt to introduce whatever of a popular nature may surround him, and with such he may not presumptuously hope to render his paper useful and interesting.

He asks the patronage of his friends—longer than he can merit and repay it, as he wishes not to be a factor in personal feeling, which would be decided to his editorial labors.

The Bulletin will be published on Thursdays each week. Terms of subscription $5 per annum.
