

ALEXANDER'S MODERN ACTING DRAMA, NEW SERIES.
Embellished with Splendid Engravings.
 This publisher has been induced, from the extensive patronage bestowed on his work, materially to change its typographical appearance and to improve and enlarge its pages—it is already known to be the most popular edition of Plays which has ever been attempted in this country, and the prospect of its further success is ample and satisfactory. In future the Modern Acting Drama will be published in monthly numbers of 15 pages each—12 of which will constitute a volume, or two or three numbers—according to the number of pages. Every Play or Piece is accompanied by a beautiful and appropriate Engraving—making in the course of the year nearly Fifty Two Engravings—to which will be added a full and complete set of six distinguished Actors and Actresses. Every person who desires to possess an invaluable collection of the best Dramatic Art should forward his name forthwith, as the edition will be exhausted. It will be furnished absolutely and gratuitously to all who send the publisher a note in which they state their names, equal in interest and superiority of execution to any prospectus, or will retain the price of subscription, less of all charges.
 The first of the new series will appear about the first of March, the delay is occasioned by the time necessary to be spent in preparing the Engravings. The terms of the Modern Acting Drama are:—Five Dollars per annum, payable in advance. Subscribers to the Monthly Series will be furnished with the first volume for the First Dollar.
 Any person collecting four subscribers to the Modern Acting Drama, or the Modern Acting Drama, or the Monthly Series, will be presented with the first volume for the First Dollar.
 A large and beautiful white sheet, imperial size, filled with both sides with his names and costly engravings, will be published every quarter as a supplement to the Monthly Series. It will be furnished absolutely and gratuitously to all who send the publisher a note in which they state their names, equal in interest and superiority of execution to any prospectus, or will retain the price of subscription, less of all charges.

THE SALMAGUNDE.
 PUBLISHED WITH A SCULPTURE OF THE GODS OF ENGRAVINGS.
 A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel and interesting character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1850. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading features of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve as a numerous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of literature, and which, for the want of a proper channel for their presentation, are positively lost to the Reading World. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(send out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid.)—The publisher pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.
 The SALMAGUNDE will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentlemen's Vale Secunda. It is calculated that will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extra issue and choice selection of satire, Criticism, humor, and wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Bouquet of a superior and attractive order. The publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

 The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDE will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.
 THE SALMAGUNDE will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Engravings which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.
 All orders must come postage paid.
 Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Franklin Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library.
BOOKS BY MAIL.
PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOLUMES FOR 1850.
THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been prodigious.
 The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1850, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given by its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere percentage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty competitors (not being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from inclination as well as duty, are devoted to the procurement of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social letters reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of published works, mostly new, embraces Biography, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and curious adventures, &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London duodecimo volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance had become really necessary for those who mix in society.
 The Library, as now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle or family; for a cent and a half a copy, postage included, a duodecimo book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Revue's Cyclopaedia. One volume of Edinburgh, containing from fifteen to twenty choice works, can be bound at an expense little exceeding that of binding either separately, and constitutes a concentrated collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has outlived the desire of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with mind-occupied, and thrown into unprofitable and unoccupied society. This immense supply of periodical reading is thus most welcome every where, as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talker's idle listlessness, so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belles-Lettres, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus comprising the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per annum, or four of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.
Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.
 This periodical contains, as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chambers's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $2 50, postage paid.
 A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio only an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volume for 1850 of the Library, and the Port Folio for 1850. For this amount of matter may be procured when public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be of brief continuance.

PROSPECTUS OF THE WASHINGTON MIRROR.
 SIGNED VOLUNTARILY.
 THE subscriber having purchased the Washington Mirror from its former proprietor, will in future be its conductor.
 The general plan of the Mirror is, we believe, satisfactory to all our subscribers—affording a comprehensive view of the city affairs in a manner unattainable by any other paper. This plan will be strictly adhered to. Our leading object being to lay hold of those local subjects and occurrences which have not been noticed in the daily papers, including Police Reports, and all such matter as is of general interest, we have engaged the valuable services of Mr. WILLIAM THOMSON as assistant editor, whose sprited and untiring exertions to establish this paper have been so eminently successful.
 We propose to furnish brief abstracts of all judicial decisions which shall more particularly interest the citizens of this District. Also, a brief and comprehensive summary of Congressional proceedings.
 We propose further, during the session of Congress, to publish an Evening Edition, by which arrangement our distant subscribers will receive the latest Congressional Intelligence one day and a half sooner than through any other Washington paper.
 We intend, if possible, to furnish a weekly list of all New Patents; a Bank-note Table, and Prices Current of Washington, Alexandria, and Georgetown, corrected with the greatest accuracy; also, Stage, Steamboat, and Rail Road Registers.
 We shall exert our best endeavours to elevate the literary character of the Mirror.—This can only be done by the co-operation of those minds which are able and willing to aid in the advancement of letters. We cannot, however, be so unjust to our subscribers as to make the Mirror an arena for the unskilful, since far more desirable, it must be allowed, would be judicious selections than mediocrity.
 We believe that the prospects of Washington demand such a paper as we intend to publish. She is already closely allied, by her rail road, to a great and flourishing city, and is destined to be her peer, rather than rival, in exchanging the products of the country; by means of her stupendous canal, she is about to be thrown, as it were, into the centre of an immense territory, where the resources of industry defy the reach of imagination, and where an amount of capital must soon be created, which will astonish the most sanguine economist. Washington and Baltimore, as one mighty heart, must receive and return the current which will give vitality to the commerce of twenty millions of men.—Such, in fact, are our advantages, that prosperity must come in spite of causes which conspire to oppress us; but a sense of duty, carried out into action, will relieve our embarrassments, and produce results of incalculable magnitude.
 We propose, then, to supply a paper in some degree adapted to the wants of an important community; a literary and miscellaneous family paper; a journal of current literature; a repository of commercial intelligence. And we appeal to an enlightened and liberal community to sustain us in our undertaking. Terms of the paper—two dollars, payable in all cases semi-annually in advance.
RUFUS DAWES.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW PUBLICATION TO BE CALLED
The Catholic Periodical Library.
Which is designed to be a reprint of all the best Catholic Works in the English Language, in weekly numbers, at 8 cents each.
 Catholic works must long have been a source of regret to every intelligent and observing Catholic in America. So limited has been the sale, and so great the expense of printing these books, that but few individuals in the country have been sufficiently enterprising to undertake their publication; and their price, in consequence, has been more than proportionally high. In fact, so dear have Catholic books in general been, that it has been entirely impossible for the poorer members of the Catholic community, who stand most in need of instruction, and for whom the books have in general been compiled, to obtain copies, even of those works which are nearly essential to the practice of their religion.
 The subscriber has long since observed this want with the utmost regret, and may certainly say, that up to this time, he has at least done something to reduce the prices of the most necessary Catholic works. Our religious books are still, however, extremely dear, and the Subscriber, depending on the support of a liberal and enlightened Catholic community, has determined to issue a Periodical publication, which, by its cheapness, will place all the best Catholic works within the reach of the poorest individual; and from the neatness and elegance of its execution will be found worthy of a place in the libraries of the rich. Such a publication as that which the subscriber proposes to issue, has long been called for by the exigencies of the Catholic community; and the rapidly increasing number of the members of our Holy Church seems fully to justify him in the expectation that it will meet with sufficient encouragement to enable him to conduct it successfully. He, therefore, notwithstanding the expense and risk attending it, and confiding entirely in the liberality and generosity of his fellow Catholics of the United States and the Canada has resolved to put it to press forthwith, and he therefore throws himself on his Catholic brethren, and calls on them for their support and patronage.
 In this undertaking he is principally encouraged by the hope that it will meet with the cordial approbation of the clergy in general, and that he will be aided by the powerful assistance of that learned and devoted body of men. The undertaking is one which is eminently calculated to disseminate the principles of our holy religion widely throughout the community, and to assist the clergy in the discharge of their parochial duties by affording, at an uncommonly low rate, all the necessary knowledge and instruction. The subscriber, therefore earnestly requests that the Bishops and Clergy in general will exert their powerful influence in order to increase the popularity of the work and to obtain a sufficient number of subscribers to enable him to carry it on with success. By these means they will augment the spiritual comforts of their charges, and contribute, in a great measure, to dispel the prejudices by which our brethren of the other denominations are unfortunately blinded.
TERMS:
 The Catholic Periodical Library will be published in Weekly numbers, of fifty pages each, duodecimo size, on fine royal paper and beautiful new type, stitched in handsome wrappers, and will embrace the whole of the most celebrated Controversial and Devotional works, together with a large fund of ecclesiastical history. The first number will be issued on Saturday, November 7th.—Terms of subscription $4 Per Annum, or Eight Cents per Number, payable in advance.
 Liberal contributions will be allowed to Agents. Any six persons, who may live at a distance, remitting a twenty dollar note, may have six copies of the work sent them for one year.
 N. B. Postmasters throughout the country are requested to act as agents.
 The following is a list of a few of the works which will be issued in this publication, and which will follow each other in rapid succession.
 Moore's Travels of an Irish Gentleman in search of a religion; Bossuet's History of the Variations of the Protestant Churches; The Faith of Catholics, by Kirk and Berrington; Haywarden's True Church of Christ shows; Haywarden's Charity and Truth; Mores Catholicæ, or Ages of Faith; Mumford's Questions of Questions; Mumford's Catholic Scriptures; Lingard's History of the Anglo-Saxon Church; Perpetuity of the Faith; Dr. M. Hare's Evidences of the Catholic Church; Fleury's Manners of the Israelites; Fleury's Manners of Christians; Lannegan's Ecclesiastical History of Ireland; Bishop Hay's Works; Prince Gallitzin's Controversial Writings; Manning's Works; O'Leary's Tracts; St. Bonaventure's Life of St. Chalonier's Meditations; Butler's Book of the Catholic Church; Butler's Festivals and Fasts; Butler's Lives of Saints; Dr. Lingard's edition of Ward's Errata.
 The above is a collection of Standard Catholic Works, which could not be purchased for less than seventy dollars; and it would be almost impossible to obtain many of the works included in it at any price whatever. The collection can now be obtained in this cheap and elegant Periodical for the uncommonly low price of about Twenty Dollars.
 All new Catholic Works will be published in the Periodical Library as soon as received; and able translators will be provided for all the European publications of peculiar excellence.
