ances, and the citizens of Annapolis generally, that he purposes during his continuance in this city, to attend to the practice of his profession. J. H. owing to the inclemency of the season, respectfully offers his services to Ladies and Gentlemen, at their residences, free of extra charge. He also takes the liberty of stating, that he has obtained a knowledge of all the late improvements in the art of Dentistry, both Physical and Mechanical, and feels sanguine of giving general satisfaction. Advice given gratis.
N. B. Applications to my address stating name and residence, will be promptly attended to if left at either of the following places,

EVERY BODY'S ALBUM.
A MONTHLY MAGAZINE OF Humorous Tales, Essays, Anecdotes, and Facetiae.
EMBELLISHED WITH NUMEROUS
GROTESQUE & AMUSING ENGRAV-INGS.

Each number comprising seventy-two large octavo pages, neatly covered and stitched—making at the end of the year four volumes of EIGHT HUNDRED AND SIXTY-FOUR PAGES, and at least SIX HUNDRED ENGRAVINGS, with Titles and Index complete—at Three Dollars per annum.
THE cheerful and pleasing feature with which it is proposed to diversify and distinguish this work has never yet been adopted by any one of the numerous literary caterers that have hitherto abounded in this country—and its extensive novelty and the vast fund of humour and variety which will be in-terpersed throughout its pages, is calculated to render it a desirable and popular companion for the amusement of all classes who desire to possess an epitome of the works of celebrated Modern Humourists, Etc., and Engravers. The encouragement generally given to new undertakings, having a salutary object in view, has proved a decided public advantage, and it is questionable whether any other age has ever brought into active use so large a proportion of the really deserving springs of genius and talent as the present.
Assured that this periodical, affording, as it will, an elaborate and comprehensive collection of fanciful illustrations, Satirical Essays in prose and verse, witty Tales, with Quips, Quirks, Anecdotes, and Facetiae, must have a partial tendency (among its patrons at least) to divert into another and more exhilarating channel much of the oppressive activity of the mind, consequent upon the cares and vexations of business, the publisher anticipates for it a most flattering and extensive subscription list. The work, at all events, will be commenced on the first of July, and continued for one year, therefore every subscriber will be certain of receiving all the numbers for which he has paid. When the twelve numbers are completed and made up into two volumes, they will form one of the most desirable and amusing records of Wit and Humour which can be found in print. Let the public assist the publisher with their patronage, and he assures them he will leave nothing undone that will give celebrity and popularity to his work.

The "EVERY BODY'S ALBUM," will be published monthly in numbers of 72 pages, with a variety of embellishments—neatly stitched in colored covers—printed with new type, and on fine white paper, at three dollars per annum, payable in advance. Two copies will be supplied to order, for one year, for five dollars. When sent to a distance from the city, the work will be packed in strong wrappers, to prevent the least rubbing by the mails. Notes of solvent banks of every description taken in payment of subscriptions. Address the publisher (postage paid).
CHARLES ALEXANDER,
Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.
A specimen number has been received at this office, and we request our friends to call and see it.

26,000 SUBSCRIBERS!
PHILADELPHIA MIRROR.
The splendid patronage awarded to the Philadelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular journal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States, with a list of near TWENTY-SIX THOUSAND SUBSCRIBERS.—The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued.—Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryatt, and sixty five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with its news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature, Science, and Arts; Internal Improvements; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics agaciously introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest dates.
It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter, each week, enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes a year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly, by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes. The paper has been now so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus; the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics. The Pennsylvaniaian says—"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union;" the other, the Inquirer and Daily Union, says, "it is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says—"we know of nothing more liberal on the part of the editors, and no means more efficacious to draw out the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes." The Albany Mercury of March 16th, 1856, says, "The Saturday Courier, is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge from its vast circulation, which exceeds 25-000 per week. Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable "reading matter" than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union.
Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. WOODWARD & CLARKE, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columns, in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press, which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest, and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have determined on issuing an edition of the Courier in a quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume, and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION.
Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splendid Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature. A large number of songs, poems, tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgwick, author of Hope Leslie, The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both at home and abroad.
This approved FAMILY NEWSPAPER, is strictly neutral in religious and political matters, and the uncompromising opponent of quackery of every kind.
MAPS.
In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved Maps, embracing the twenty-five States of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board, internal improvements, as displayed in canals, rail roads, &c., with other interesting and useful features, roads, distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, and each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past has been so generously extended to them, could warrant.
TERMS.
The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form, at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size as the New York Albion, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz: Three Dollars per annum, payable in advance, (including the Maps.)

WOODWARD & CLARKE,
Philadelphia.

Forty-four Reasons for Subscribing to WALDIE'S LIBRARY.

1. It is the cheapest mode of obtaining books ever yet devised.
2. It is carried by mail to the remotest part of the Union.
3. The postage is little more than for a newspaper.
4. It is a work of real utility.
5. It receives unbounded patronage.
6. It suits all educated persons.
7. It is calculated for the whole family circle.
8. It promotes social belles lettres reading.
9. It induces conversation of an intellectual cast.
10. It is free from sectarianism.
11. It has no party politics.
12. It diffuses useful information at the smallest expense.
13. It pleases the gay without offending the grave.
14. The father of a family, as well as his wife and daughters.
15. It is a universal favourite wherever known.
16. A volume is completed every six months.
17. Each volume costs less than a London duodecimo, though 18. It contains as much as twenty-five.
19. It is published with the utmost regularity.
20. It is accompanied by the Journal of Belles Letters, which 21. Contains reviews of books and general literary information, at no cost whatever.
22. It is unbiassed in its criticisms and reviews.
23. It is read in all well informed circles.
24. It is valuable as a gift, causing the donor to be weekly remembered.
25. It is a pleasing companion in solitude.
26. It is no ephemeral publication; here to day and gone to-morrow.
27. Its character is established.
28. It will improve on acquaintance, for 29. Its worth is not known till examined.
30. It is never out of date.
31. It is adapted to every meridian.
32. It is a valuable resource in a steam-boat or stage-coach.
33. It may be carried in the most compact form and without loss of space.
34. It delights by its chaste fictions.
35. It instructs by its sketches of character.
36. It enlarges the mind by its travels;
37. It takes you on a tour of the world, without toil, expense, or danger.
38. It subdues national prejudices.
39. It acquaints us with the illustrious dead.
40. It keeps us informed of the literature of our own times.
41. It sanctions and encourages virtue and correct taste.
42. It is so much read in polite circles, that to be ignorant of its contents is to be behind the age in which we live.
43. No periodical, at its price ($5.00), has ever obtained and retained so wide a circulation in America.
44. A new volume commences July 1, 1856.

Published (20 Quarto pages) weekly, payable in advance.

STATE OF MARYLAND, &c.
Anne Arundel County, Orphans Court, January 17th, 1857.
Application by petition of Henrietta H. Norwood, Administratrix of Thomas Norwood, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased, it is ordered that she give the notice required by law for creditors to exhibit their claims against the said deceased, and that the same be published once in each week, for the space of six successive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in Annapolis.
SAM'L BROWN, Jun'r.
Reg. Wills A. A. County.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT the subscriber of Anne Arundel county, hath obtained from the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of Thomas Norwood, late of Anne Arundel county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof to the subscriber, at or before the 17th day of July next, they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of the said estate. Given under my hand this 17th day of January 1857.

A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL.
Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be in-sued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are much sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot penetrate the interior in any mode half so rapidly as by mail, in which volumes of books are prohibited. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished entire for from four to six cents; a Marryatt novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnibus, must make their remittances at once.
Books at Newspaper Postage.
WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNI-BUS.
NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LI-TERARY ENTERPRISE!!
ROVELS, TALES, BIOGRAPHY, VOYAGES, TRAV-ELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

IT was one of the great objects of "Wal-die's Literary," to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door. That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the remotest parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the secluded village, and to the interior, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant reasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.
The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1857, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enlighten and enrich the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge "the power of concentration can no farther go." No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be published in the Omnibus, which will be an entirely distinct periodical.

WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain:
1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.
3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.
The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance.
As the arrangements for the prosecution of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non fulfilment of the contract can be felt. The Omnibus will be regularly issued, and will contain in a year reading matter equal in amount to two volumes of Rees's Cyclopaedia, for the small sum mentioned above.
Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.
Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

porate the same.
Mr. Kershner also reported a bill, to repeal that part of the constitution and form of government as relates to the division of Washington county into eight election districts.
Mr. Worthington reported a supplement to an act, to provide for the appointment of collectors of the county tax in and for the city and county of Baltimore.
The clerk of the senate returned the bill, to amend an act to release the right of the state to a part of a tract of land therein mentioned.
Also, the bill to incorporate the town of Clear Spring and its addition, in Washington county, endorsed will pass with the proposed amendments.
Also, the bill to regulate the manner of taking testimony in cases in equity, endorsed amendments insisted on.
