

ANNAPOLIS: Thursday, July 6, 1837.

FOR CONGRESS. Fourth Congressional District. ISAAC McKIM, BENJAMIN C. HOWARD. Republican Nomination for Anne Arundel County.

FOR THE LEGISLATURE. JOHN S. SELBY, RICHARD W. HIGGINS, GEORGE COOKE, WENLEY LINTHICUM.

From the Philadelphia Sentinel. THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT. Special Election for Members of Congress, Thursday, June 29, 1837.

Table with columns for precincts and vote counts. Includes Spring Gardens, Northern Liberties, Kensington, and others.

The Election for a member of Congress in the Third District has terminated in the choice of Charles Naylor, Esq. the Whig candidate, by a majority of 231 votes over Mr. Ingersoll.

We will not imitate the example of our Whig opponents, who, after they have been beaten, generally take a great deal of trouble to explain the causes of their defeat.

The majority for Mr. Naylor, though large enough, falls short of the majority for Colonel Watnough over Mr. Miller, in 1830; and over Dr. Burden and Dr. Lewis united, in 1832, in the same district.

From the Cambridge (Md.) Aurora. THE 20th JULY.—This is the day hastily fixed upon by the Governor and Council, for holding the election for members of Congress in this State.

A negro man named Lewis, belonging to Mr. McKim, of Mobile, was a short time since carried away from his master by some blacklegs, whom he accompanied to this city.

ty in leading strings, will not in all probability be kindly and lamblike, submitted to, especially as there is no Van Buren man in the field.

CONGRESS.

It seems clear from the following provision in the laws of Maryland, that the members chosen at the ensuing Congressional election of the 29th July, will serve equally as long as they are elected on the regular day of election in O. to be, and that consequently, we shall have in this State a new election for members of Congress on the first Monday in October, that day being set aside by the recent proclamation of the Governor.

OFFICE SOUTHERN PATRIOT.

CHARLESTON, June 28. We are indebted to Capt. Duxer, of the pilot boat Charleston, arrived this forenoon from Savannah, for the Georgia paper of yesterday, from which we copy the following:

TO THE VOTERS OF ANNE ARUNDEL COUNTY.

I have been induced by what I believe to be the wishes of a large portion of the people of this county, and more particularly of the Sixth Election District, to offer myself as a Candidate to represent you in the next General Assembly of the State.

ANOTHER SLAVE CASE.

A negro man named Lewis, belonging to Mr. McKim, of Mobile, was a short time since carried away from his master by some blacklegs, whom he accompanied to this city.
