

Fourth Year of Waldie's Library.
BOOKS BY MAIL.
PROSPECTUS OF TWO NEW VOL-UMES FOR 1836.

THREE years have now elapsed since the proprietor of Waldie's Select Circulating Library laid before the public his original prospectus for a valuable library, the great features of which were cheapness, and the facility of a rapid transportation by mail. The most ample success has attended the enterprise, and the effects upon the reading community, it is believed, have been wholesome.

The fourth year will commence on the first Tuesday of January, 1836, at which period it will be necessary to determine the additional amount of copies to be printed, subscriptions being taken only from January of each year. The entire success of the Library is the best guarantee that can be given of its continuance. It was the first to supply books by mail at a mere percentage of their former cost; it has outlived more than thirty competitors; and has now an extensive list of patrons who are of the most solid and valuable class of citizens in every part of the Union, as well as in foreign countries.

The object of Waldie's Library, its use and purpose, is enjoyment, liberal and intellectual. To all who love a mental banquet, without being compelled to depend on places of public resort, this publication furnishes a most valuable desideratum, supplying polite literature of a character to enlarge and improve the mind. The time and attention of the editor, himself a reader from instruction as well as duty, are devoted to the selection of works of an elevated standard of intellect which may be admitted into every family without hesitation by the most fastidious, and become a rallying point for all its members, promoting social betterment, reading and conversation. The variety thus collected from the whole mass of past and present works, mostly new, embraces Biographies, Novels, Voyages and Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Select History, personal memoirs of extraordinary individuals, and various adventures &c. &c. An amount equal to fifty London duodecimo volumes is thus annually furnished in weekly numbers, at a cost only equal to one of the London works. The plan thus embraces the whole range of popular literature, and the work has now become so universally diffused in every part of the Union as to form no inconsiderable portion of the literature of the country, and with which an acquaintance has become really necessary for those who mix in society.

The Library as now conducted disseminates books to all parts of the country in from five to six weeks after their issue in London. Five dollars per annum expended in this way will supply good reading for a whole circle or family; for a cent and a half a day, postage included, a handsome book is sent every week, making in the course of the year more than three volumes of Ross's Cyclopaedia. One volume of the Library, containing about fifteen to twenty entire works, can be bound in an expensive little extending that of sending either separately, and constitutes a convenient collection forming a never failing resource of amusement and instruction, and which must always be worth the price that has been paid for it. The most ample testimony has been spontaneously afforded that this work has contributed to the pleasure of thousands, who, but for the resource it afforded, must have been left with minds unoccupied, or thrown into unprofitable and unenjoyable society. This has been welcomed every where as a means of improvement, and a substitute for the small talk or listlessness so apt to employ a large portion of the time of the many.

Waldie's Library is published every Tuesday, accompanied by a cover of four quarto pages, entitled, The Journal of Belle Lettres, containing reviews of new books, literary intelligence of all kinds, tales, lists of new books, &c. thus combining the advantages of a Library, and the amusement of a magazine and newspaper; the whole for $5 00 per annum, or lots of five individuals obtain five copies for $20 00, a reduction which pays the postage. Payment always in advance.

Waldie's Port Folio and Companion to the Library.
This periodical contains half as much matter as the Library, at half its price; or both are furnished to clubs of five for $6 00. Its contents consist of a reprint of the best matter from the London Magazines and Reviews, more especially Chamber's Edinburgh Journal. Its object is popular instruction and amusement, combined in such a manner as to enlist the feelings of every member of the social circle. It enjoys an extensive circulation; price to single subscribers not taking the Library, $3 50, postage paid.

A very limited number of complete sets of Library and Port Folio, at the original subscription price, may be had for a short period. The Library has been published three years and the Port Folio one; an individual may now form a club by himself, and by paying for the past three years and the volumes for 1835 and 1836, the whole can be had for $20 00. For this amount of matter may be procured which public approbation has stamped as truly valuable and unique for its kind. This privilege must, however, be a brief continuance.

NEW PAPER.
THE
BALTIMORE KALEIDOSCOPE.

RECENTLY commenced, and now published every Saturday, by YOUNG & ABRAHAM, at the South East corner of Market and Gay streets, Baltimore. L. A. Wilmer, editor. Price $2 per annum.

This paper will contain a great variety of original and selected matter, news, literary and scientific articles, notices of new books, and anniversaries on the most popular topics of the day. The publishers have made such arrangements as enable them to promise with confidence that the Kaleidoscope shall not be surpassed by any other similar paper in the Union, not only in point of utility, but in the various qualities which make a newspaper attractive and desirable.

One Dollar, in advance, will be received in payment in full for six months. The terms of advertising are moderate. Letters or communications to the editor or publisher, if post paid, will be forwarded to any part of the country, where it may be ordered. Subscribers at a distance are requested to enclose the amount of their subscription, (at least for six months,) when they order the paper.

Baltimore, Nov. 9, 1835.

NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.
On the 1st of July, 1837, will be published, a new monthly magazine, of a large and royal octavo size, and neatly stitched in a colored cover, the first number of a new periodical work.

THE GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE.
Edited by WILLIAM B. BURTON, Philadelphia. To whom all original communications will be addressed.

THE announcement of a new Periodical in the present state of our country, may create some feelings of surprise, but having contemplated an objection in the nature of a very rapid and successful publication, the perfect arrangements, and produce a periodical containing the most wholesome points of the old works, but so far as it respects the utility and the interest of every gentleman, the new arrangement is the most perfect and extensive subscription list of the Album, to which this work is designed as a successor, will at once place the Gentleman's Magazine in a circulation equal to that of any other monthly work in the United States, and guarantee the continuance of its publication, with the certainty of payment to the proprietors of the paper.

The contents of the Gentleman's Magazine will, in every respect, be answered to the meaning of the title. We do not pretend, in our literary pursuits, to fly to the frontiers of knowledge, or to the surface of the great ocean, but we wish to display the utility of our work, and to show that it is not only useful, but also profitable. We wish to produce a monthly work, which shall be a repository of the most valuable and interesting literature of the day, and which shall be a source of information and instruction to every gentleman who reads it. We wish to produce a work, which shall be a source of amusement and instruction, and which shall be a source of information and instruction to every gentleman who reads it. We wish to produce a work, which shall be a source of amusement and instruction, and which shall be a source of information and instruction to every gentleman who reads it.

The Gentleman's Magazine will contain a variety of original and selected matter, including a full and complete history of the United States, a full and complete history of the world, a full and complete history of the human mind, and a full and complete history of the human body. It will also contain a full and complete history of the human soul, and a full and complete history of the human heart.

All letters, postage paid, addressed to Charles Alexander, Annapolis Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia, will meet with the earliest attention.
June 30.

FOR ANNAPOLIS, ST. MICHAEL'S, AND WYE LANDING.
The Steamboat MARYLAND will leave for ANNAPOLIS, ST. MICHAEL'S, and WYE LANDING, on SUNDAY MORNING NEXT, at eight o'clock, for the above places from the lower end of Dugan's wharf. Returning on the next day, leaving Wye Landing at 8 o'clock for St. Michael's, Annapolis and Baltimore. She will continue this route throughout the season. Passage to Annapolis $1 50, to St. Michael's and Wye Landing $2 50.

SEVENTEEN.
POPULAR NOVELS,
VIZ:

Peter Simple, Jacob Faithful, Thrift and Thrifty, Frank and Fanny, King's Own, Pelham, The Disowned, Bessie, Paul Clifford, Eugene Aram, Last Days of Pompeii, Rimini, Falkland, Pilgrims of the Rhine, &c. &c.

Will be given as a premium to any person who will send the names of Ten Subscribers, and Twenty Dollars in cash, to the publisher of The Saturday News and Literary Gazette. And to every person who will send Five Subscribers, and Ten Dollars in cash, a complete set of either Bow or Stray, as may be preferred.

The prices of the novels above mentioned, if purchased of the bookellers, would be $1 25 and in Godey's cheap and uniform edition they cost $5 00. They can be had of the publisher, at $3 50 for Baltimore, and for Maryland, county free.

THE SATURDAY NEWS contains more reading matter than any other paper published in the United States. It is devoted to general Literature, Criticism, and letters, and is expected to meet the views of the public. The best writers of Philadelphia are contributors to its columns; and its sections are made from the whole range of English literature. A correspondence is maintained with the principal cities of the Union, and the most interesting and valuable news is sent to the printer in advance, or three copies for 50c.

The following notices are taken from many of a similar character, made by the leading press of this city: Saturday News—The weekly paper with the above title, which has for several weeks since come to light, is a most interesting and valuable addition to the list of our newspapers. It is a paper of a high order, and its contents are of a high quality. It is a paper of a high order, and its contents are of a high quality.

The Philadelphia Saturday News—We have been favored with a copy of the first number of this new paper. It is creditable to all concerned. The literary matter is of a high order, and the editorial is of a high quality. It is a paper of a high order, and its contents are of a high quality.

The Philadelphia Saturday News and Literary Gazette—The first number of a new weekly paper, with the above title, issued in Philadelphia on Saturday last, is of the largest size of newspapers published in that city, and succeeds the Gentleman's Vade Mecum, which has been published by Mr. Charles Alexander, which has been published by Mr. Charles Alexander, which has been published by Mr. Charles Alexander.

We have received the first number of the Saturday News, a weekly paper of the largest class, issued by the Messrs. Godey, Neal and McMichael, able and experienced newspaper editors, who will not fail to give a share of the interest and interest to their subscribers. We are confident that the new paper will be a success, and we are confident that the new paper will be a success.

SATURDAY NEWS.—We have received the first number of a new weekly paper, of the above title, edited by Louis A. Godey, conductor of the Lady's Book, Joseph C. Neal, editor of the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph, and Joseph C. Neal, editor of the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph. It is a paper of a high order, and its contents are of a high quality.

SATURDAY NEWS.—This new Journal advertised in our paper under the above title, made its appearance last week, and is very interestingly on the "ago ahead" system. There is no need to say that the publisher, our friend Godey, whose Lady's Book we have in these parts, labored to make our fair readers fair in love with, will gain troops of friends in his new enterprise, and line his pockets to some purpose with the "mischief" of the new paper. We are confident that the new paper will be a success, and we are confident that the new paper will be a success.

A BY-LAW.
Entitled, A Supplement to the By-Law to open and establish the Lines of Compromise Street in the City of Annapolis, and for other purposes, passed on the 11th of September 1835.

SECTION 1. Be it established, by ordinance and resolution of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common Council of the city of Annapolis, That three Commissioners be appointed by the Mayor for the purpose of ascertaining, by competent evidence, and in the usual way, what damages will be sustained by the owners of property on the line of said street, and that they shall report to this Board what damage will accrue to each of the said owners by opening the same.

SECTION 2. And be it further established and ordained by the authority aforesaid, That in making the said assessment and valuation, the said Commissioners shall take into consideration the benefits which will in their judgment, result to said owners by opening the aforesaid street, and the said benefits shall be deducted from the damages which the said owners may be of opinion the aforesaid owners would otherwise be entitled to.

SECTION 3. And be it further established and ordained by the authority aforesaid, That the said Commissioners shall have made a report to this Board in manner aforesaid, it will be for this Board to decide whether the said street shall be opened, any in the by-law, to which this is a supplement, to the contrary notwithstanding.

JOHN MILLER, Mayor.

MAMMOTH SHEET.
OFFICE OF THE SATURDAY NEWS
AND LITERARY GAZETTE.
Philadelphia, November 26, 1835.

THE very liberal patronage bestowed on the SATURDAY NEWS, since its commencement in July last, and a desire to meet that patronage by corresponding efforts, have induced us this week to publish a Double Number—being the largest sheet ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States. To those of our friends who are practical printers, it need not be mentioned that this undertaking has involved serious mechanical difficulties. The largest sheet or one of the largest presses in Philadelphia is used for our ordinary impression; but this would accommodate only a single page of the mammoth sheet, and we were obliged, therefore, to work four forms at different periods. The care used in preparing the paper—in removing and folding the sheets, &c.—can only be estimated by those who have seen the experiment made and added to the necessarily increased amount of composition, press work, &c., these supplementary expenses have made an aggregate cost, which would have deterred many from engaging in the enterprise. A gain of two thousand new subscribers will not repay the actual cost of this single number.

We enter ourselves that, besides its extraordinary size, this number presents attractions that entitle it to some attention. It contains the whole of Friendship's Offering for 1837, the London copy of which costs $4, and has 384 closely printed pages of letter press. Distinguished as the present age, and particularly our own country, has been for cheap reprints, we believe this surpasses any former instance. For four cents subscribers to the Saturday News receive, in addition to their ordinary supply of miscellaneous matter, an English annual, the largest yet received for the coming season; and they receive it, moreover, in a form that, from its novelty, gives it additional value.

Of the general character of the Saturday News we need not speak. That I know because so well known as to require no comment. We may take occasion to say, however, that in enterprise and resources we rival no other publishers in the city or elsewhere, and as we are determined that our paper shall not be surpassed, we have entered the field prepared for zealous competition, and we stand ready in every way to realize our promise, that no similar publication shall excel that which we use. Our articles, both original and selected, we are not ashamed to test by any comparison which can be adopted; and there is no periodical in the United States, monthly or weekly, which might not be proud of many of our contributors.

The issuing of this number may be regarded as an evidence of our intention and ability to merit success. Nor will it be the only effort.—From time to time, as opportunity offers, we propose to adopt extraordinary means for the interest and gratification of our subscribers.

THE SALMAGUNDI,
AND NEWS OF THE DAY.
EMBELLISHED WITH A SULTAN'S VISIT TO GORDON ENGLAND.

A NEW PERIODICAL, of a novel character, bearing the above appellation, will be commenced on the beginning of January, 1836. While it will furnish its patrons with the leading lectures of the news of the day, its principal object will be to serve up a humorous compilation of the numerous lively and pungent sallies which are daily floating along the tide of literature, and which, in the want of a proper channel for their preservation, are positively lost to the reading world. Original wits and humorists of our time will here have a medium devoted to the faithful record of the scintillations of their genius. It is not necessary to detail the many attractions which this journal will possess, as the publisher will furnish a specimen number to every person who desires it—(those out of the city, will forward their orders, postage paid.)—and he pledges himself that no exertions on his part shall be wanting to make each succeeding number superior in every respect to the preceding ones.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be printed on large imperial paper, equal in size and quality to that which is at present used for the Gentleman's Vade Mecum. It is calculated that MORE THAN 500 ENGRAVINGS will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year—these, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

The Terms of THE SALMAGUNDI will be TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable invariably in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

THE SALMAGUNDI will be published on alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Engravings which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.

A NEW AND CHEAP PERIODICAL.

Attention is requested from our readers to the following prospectus of a new, and even a cheaper book periodical, which will be issued from this office in the first week of next January. It will not be in so convenient a form for binding as the present, with which it will in no way interfere, but it will make books cheap beyond all precedent. It will contain the works of the day, which are sought after, but are comparatively dear, and which cannot be had in the interior in any mode half so rapidly, as by mail, in which volumes of books are multiplied. A fifty cent American reprint will be furnished on fire for four to six cents. As a Marryat novel for twelve cents, and others in proportion.

As but very few copies will be printed but what are actually subscribed for, those who wish the Omnius, must make their remittances at once.

Books at Newspaper Postage.
WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS.
NOVEL AND IMPORTANT LITERARY ENTERPRISE!
NOVELS, TALES, BIOGRAPHY, VOYAGES, TRAVELS, REVIEWS, AND THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

IT was one of the great objects of "Waldie's Literary," "to make good reading cheaper, and to bring literature to every man's door." That object has been accomplished; we have given to books wings, and they have flown to the remotest parts of our vast continent, carrying society to the seclusion, occupation to the literary, information to all. We now propose still further to reduce prices, and render the access to a literary banquet more than twofold accessible; we gave and shall continue to give in the quarto library a volume weekly for two cents a day; we now propose to give a volume in the same period for less than four cents a week, and to add as a piquant seasoning to the dish a few columns of shorter literary matters, and a summary of the news and events of the day. We know by experience and calculation that we can go still further in the matter of reduction, and we feel that there is still verge enough for us to aim at offering to an increasing literary appetite that mental food which it craves.

The Select Circulating Library, now as ever so great a favourite, will continue to make its weekly visits, and to be issued in a form for binding and preservation, and its price and form will remain the same. But we shall, in the first week of January 1837, issue a huge sheet of the size of the largest newspapers of America, but on very superior paper, also filled with books of the newest and most entertaining, though in their several departments of Novels, Tales, Voyages, Travels, &c., select in their character, joined with reading such as usually should fill a weekly newspaper. By this method we hope to accomplish a great good; to enliven and enlighten the family circle, and to give to it, at an expense which shall be no consideration to any, a mass of reading that in book form would alarm the pockets of the prudent, and to do it in a manner that the most sceptical shall acknowledge the power of concentration can no farther go. No book which appears in Waldie's Quarto Library will be an entirely distinct periodical.

TERMS.
WALDIE'S LITERARY OMNIBUS will be issued every Friday morning, printed on paper of a quality superior to any other weekly sheet, and of the largest size. It will contain:

1st. Books, the newest and the best that can be procured, equal every week to a London duodecimo volume, embracing Novels, Travels, Memoirs, &c., and only chargeable with newspaper postage.

2d. Literary Reviews, Tales, Sketches, notices of books, and information from "the world of letters," of every description.

3d. The news of the week concentrated to a small compass, but in a sufficient amount to embrace a knowledge of the principal events, political and miscellaneous, of Europe and America.

The price will be two dollars to clubs of five subscribers where the paper is forwarded to one address. To clubs of two individuals, five dollars; single mail subscribers, three dollars. The discount on uncurrent money will be charged to the remitter; the low price and superior paper absolutely prohibit paying a discount.

On no condition will a copy ever be sent until the payment is received in advance. As the arrangements for the preservation of this great literary undertaking are all made, and the proprietor has redeemed all his pledges to a generous public for many years, no fear of the non-fulfilment of the contract can be felt. The Omnius will be regularly issued, and will contain in two volumes of Rec's Cyclopaedia, for the small sum mentioned above.

Address, post paid,
ADAM WALDIE,
46 Carpenter St. Philadelphia.

Editors throughout the Union, and Canada, will confer a favour by giving the above one or more conspicuous insertions, and accepting the work for a year as compensation.

FOR ANNAPOLIS, CAMBRIDGE AND EASTON.
The Steam Boat MARYLAND, leaves Baltimore, every TUESDAY & FRIDAY MORNING, at 7 o'clock for the above places, starting from the lower end of Dugan's wharf, and returns on Wednesday and Saturday.
