500 REWARD.

TO BE AWAY from the subscriber's plantation near Queen Anne, Prince George's county, Maryland, my negro fellow named FRANK. He is about 35 years of age, a mulatto or yellow complexion, five feet 8 or 10 inches high, cross-eyed, full suit of hair, broad mouth, and well made, and has a remarkable odor on his stomach, but his only clothing known was blue shirts and trousers. No doubt he took other clothing with him. I will give the above reward of One Hundred Dollars for apprehending and securing the said fellow so that I get him again. Frank ran off on Sunday night last.

MAMMOTH SHEET.

OFFICE OF THE SATURDAY NEWS
AND LITERARY GAZETTE.
Philadelphia, November 26, 1836.

THE very liberal patronage bestowed on the SATURDAY NEWS, since its commencement in July last, and a desire to meet that patronage by corresponding exertions, have induced us this week to publish a Double Number—being the largest sheet ever printed in Philadelphia for any purpose, and the largest literary paper ever printed in the United States. To those of our friends who are practical printers, it need not be mentioned that this undertaking has involved serious mechanical difficulties. The largest sheet is used for our ordinary impressions—but this would accommodate impression—page of the mammoth sheet, only a single hundred and ninety-seven, and we were obliged, therefore, to work four forms at different periods. The care used in preparing the paper—in removing and folding the sheets, &c.—can only be estimated by those who have seen the experiment made; and added to the necessarily increased amount of composition, press work, &c., these supplementary expenses have made an aggregate cost, which would have deterred many from engaging in the enterprise. A gain of two thousand new subscribers will not repay the actual cost of this single number.

We flatter ourselves that, besides its extraordinary size, this number presents attractions that entitle it to some attention. It contains the whole of Friendship's Offering for 1837, a London copy of which costs 8s, and has 324 closely printed pages of letter press. Distinguished as the present age, and particularly our own country, has been for cheap reprints, we believe this surpasses any former instance. For four cents subscribers to the Saturday News receive, in addition to their ordinary supply of miscellaneous matter, an English annual, the largest yet received for the coming season; and they receive it, moreover, in a form that, from its novelty, gives it additional value.

Of the general character of the Saturday News we need not speak. That has become so well known as to require no comment. We may take occasion to say, however, that in enterprise and resources we yield to no other publishers in this city or elsewhere, and we are determined that our paper shall not be surpassed. We have entered the field prepared for zealous competition, and we stand ready in every way to realize our promise, that as similar publication shall excel that which we issue. Our articles, both original and selected, we are not ashamed to test by any comparison which can be adopted; and there is no periodical in the United States, monthly or weekly, which might not be proud of many of our contributions.

The issuing of this number may be regarded as an evidence of our intention and ability to merit success. Nor will it be the only effort—From time to time, as opportunity offers, we propose to adopt extraordinary means for the interest and gratification of our subscribers.

POETRY.

LINES ON PASSING THE GRAVE OF A SISTER.

By FLINT.
On yonder shore, on yonder shore,
Now verdant with the depth of shade,
Beneath the white armed yew-tree,
There is a little infant laid.
Forgive this tear—a brother's weep—
Thou there the faded flower sleep.
She sleeps alone, she sleeps alone,
And summer's forest o'er her wave
And sighing winds at autumn moon
Around the little stranger's grave,
As though they murmured at the fate
Of one so lone and desolate.
In sounds that seem like Perseus's own
The funeral dirge faintly creep;
Thou sleeping to an eagle's tower,
In all their solemn cadences wild,
And poor, unheeded, along the sweep,
Their desert anthem o'er a child.

She came, and passed, can I forget
How we whose hearts had bled her
Em three autumnal suns had set,
Consigned her to her mother Earth,
Joy and her memories pass a way;
But griefs are deeper ploughed than
We bid her in her narrow cell,
And parting tears, like rain-drops, fell
Upon her lonely place of rest.
May angels guard—may they bless
Her slumbers in the wilderness.
She sleeps alone, she sleeps alone,
Weeping floods, with torrent wild,
At evening lifts its solemn wail,
As, in one broad, eternal tide,
The rolling waters o'er its glad
There is no marble monument.
There is no stone with graven lies,
To tell of love and virtue blent
In one almost too good to die,
We need no earth to bear her
To point us to her resting place.
She sleeps alone, she sleeps alone,
But midst the tears and April showers
The Genius of the Wild hath strown
His gems of truth, his faded flow
And cast his robe of vernal bloom,
In guardian fondness o'er the tomb.
She sleeps alone, she sleeps alone;
But yearly in her green trow dress
And still the summer vials are thro'
In solemn wreaths across her brow,
And still the sighing autumn gale
And strews the hallowed spot with

MISCELLANEOUS.
Items from late European Journals, Sept. 26.—Considerable has been excited in Madrid by a murder committed by M. Rodriguez, the D-puty, on his wife, a young and beautiful woman who was married about two years ago. M. Rodriguez, who is extremely jealous, permitted his lady to a masked ball in Vinadores. His wife's brother was guests incognito, and wishing to procure in-law of his falling, imprudently ventured with an inquiry if he was still even. "I am at all events not yet dead," was the reply. "Wrong," said the mask "for your handsome wife, with those charming smitten." "So much the worse," retorted M. Rodriguez. "By no means, brother, for your wife returns my arms as proof of it. I can inform you a violet mark under her right breast." M. Rodriguez seized the hand of the "most virtuous" by the hand, "Your life or mine!—Meet me in an hour at my house." He then from the quarrile which she was without saying a word to her, hurried on reaching his hotel, he ascended with his wife still on his arm, of his cabinet without procuring a secretary, and taking from it a placard the muzzle close to his shot her through the heart. STATE DEPARTMENT,

Annapolis, April 14th, 1838.

In pursuance of authority contained in an order of the House of Delegates, I hereby direct the acts of Assembly passed at December session, 1836, entitled, "an act to amend the Constitution and form of government of the State of Maryland," chapter 197, and the act, passed at the same session, entitled, "an act providing for the appointment of Clerks of the several County Courts, the Clerks of the Courts of Appeals for the Eastern and Western Shores, the Clerk of the Baltimore City Court, and the Register of Wills in the several counties of this State," Chapter 224, and confirmed at the subsequent session, to be published once a week for three weeks successively in the following papers, to wit:

Republican and Gazette, Annapolis; Patriot, Chronicle, American, Transcript and Sun, Baltimore; and in all the papers published in the several counties of the State.

J. H. CULBRETH,
Secretary of State.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAPTER 224.

An act providing for the appointment of Clerks of the several County Courts, the Clerks of the Courts of Appeals for the Eastern and Western Shores, the Clerk of Baltimore City Court, and the Registers of Wills in the several Counties of this State.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the confirmation of this act, the Governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint the clerks of the several county courts, the clerk of the court of appeals for the Western Shore, the clerk of the court of appeals for the Eastern Shore, the clerk of Baltimore city court, and the register of wills throughout the State, and that the persons so appointed shall continue in office for and during the term of seven years, from the date of their respective appointments; provided nevertheless, that the persons who shall respectively be in office at the time of the confirmation of this act, as clerks of the several county courts, as clerks of the court of appeals, as clerk of Baltimore city court, and as registers of wills, shall not be subject in any respect to the operation of this act, until from and after the first day of February, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and forty five.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the General Assembly after the next election of a governor, in the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government directs, that in such case this act and the alterations therein contained shall be considered as a part of the said constitution and form of government, to all intents and purposes, any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 157.

An act to amend the Constitution and Form of Government of the State of Maryland.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the term of office of the members of the present senate shall end and be determined as hereinafter provided, and a quorum of its members shall have qualified as directed by the constitution and laws of this State.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That at the December session of the General Assembly for the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, and on or thereafter, the senate shall be composed of twenty-one members, to be chosen as hereinafter provided, a majority of whom shall be a quorum for the transaction of business.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That at the time and place of holding elections in the several counties of this State, and in the city of Baltimore, for delegates to the General Assembly for the December session of the year eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, and thereafter, an election shall also be held in each of the several counties of this State, and in the city of Baltimore respectively, for the purpose of choosing a senator of the State of Maryland for and from such county or said city, as the case may be, whose term of office shall commence on the day fixed by law for the commencement of the regular session of the General Assembly, next succeeding such election, and continue for two, four, or six years according to the classification of a quorum of its members; and at every such election for senators, every person qualified to vote at the place at which he shall offer to vote for delegates to the General Assembly, shall be entitled to vote for one person as senator; and of the persons voted for as senator in each of the several counties and in said city, respectively, the person having the highest number of legal votes, and possessing the qualifications hereinafter mentioned, shall be declared and returned as duly elected for said county or said city, as the case may be, and in case two persons possessing the required qualifications shall be found on the final casting of the votes given in any of said counties or said city, to have an equal number of votes, there shall be a new election ordered as hereinafter mentioned, and immediately after the senate shall have convened in pursuance of their election, under this act, the senators shall be divided in such manner as the senate shall prescribe, into three classes; the seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, of the second class at the expiration of the fourth year, and of the third class at the expiration of the sixth year, so that one-third thereof may be elected on the first Wednesday of October in every second year; and elections shall be held in the several counties and city, from which the retiring senators came, to supply the vacancies as they may occur in consequence of this classification.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That such election for senators shall be conducted, and the returns thereof be made, with proper variations in the certificate to suit the case, in like manner as in cases of the elections for delegates.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the qualifications necessary in a senator shall be the same as are required in a delegate to the General Assembly, with the additional qualification that he shall be above the age of twenty-five years, and shall have resided at least three years, next preceding his election, in the county or city in and for which he shall be chosen.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That in every person who shall have been chosen as a senator, shall refuse to act, remove from the county or city, or the case may be, for which he shall have been elected, die, resign, or be removed for cause, or in case of his death, or more or more qualified persons in any one of the counties, or in the city of Baltimore, or in the city of Annapolis, shall be issued by the President of the Senate for the time being, by the election of a senator to supply the vacancy, of which ten days notice at the least, excluding the day of election, shall be given.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That so much of the third-seventh article of the constitution as provided that no senator or delegate to the General Assembly, if he shall qualify as such, shall hold or execute any office of profit during the time for which he shall be elected, shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 8. And be it enacted, That no senator or delegate to the General Assembly shall during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the constitution and laws of this State, which shall have been created, or the continuation of the term shall have been increased during such time; and no senator or delegate, during the time he shall continue to act as such, shall be eligible to any civil office whatever.

SEC. 9. And be it enacted, That at the election for delegates to the General Assembly, for the December session of the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, and at each succeeding election for delegates, until after the next census shall have been taken and officially pronounced, five delegates shall be elected in and for Baltimore city, and one delegate in and for the city of Annapolis, and the remaining of the delegates of the city of Annapolis shall be deemed as taken as a part of Anne Arundel county; and her right to a separate delegation shall cease five delegates in and for Baltimore county, five delegates in and for Frederick county, and four delegates in and for Anne Arundel county, and four delegates in and for each of the several counties respectively, hereinafter mentioned, to wit: Dorchester, Somerset, Worcester, Prince George's, Harford, Montgomery, Carroll and Washington, and three delegates in and for each of the several counties respectively, hereinafter mentioned, to wit: Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's, Caroline, Talbot, Saint Mary's, Charles, Calvert and Allegany.

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That from and after the period when the next census shall have been taken and officially pronounced, and from and after the official pronouncement of every second census thereafter, the representatives in the House of Delegates from the several counties and from the city of Baltimore, shall be graduated and returned on the following basis, that is to say: Every county which shall have by the said census a population of less than fifteen thousand souls, five members, shall be entitled to elect three delegates; every county having a population of more than fifteen thousand souls, federal members, shall be entitled to elect four delegates; and every county having by the said census a population of twenty-five thousand, and less than thirty-five thousand souls, federal members, shall be entitled to elect five delegates; and every county having a population of upwards of thirty-five thousand souls, federal members, shall be entitled to elect six delegates; and the city of Baltimore shall be entitled to elect as many delegates as the county which shall have the largest representation, on the basis aforesaid, may be entitled to elect; provided, and it is hereby enacted, that if any of the several counties herebefore mentioned, shall not, after the said census for the year eighteen hundred and forty shall have been taken, be entitled by the graduation on the basis aforesaid to a representation in the House of Delegates equal to that allowed to such county by the ninth section of this act, at the election of delegates for the December session of the year eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, such county shall, nevertheless, after said census for the year eighteen hundred and forty, or any future census, and forever thereafter, be entitled to elect the number of delegates allowed by the provisions of said section for the said session, but nothing in the proviso contained, shall be construed to include in the representation of Anne Arundel county, the delegate allowed to the city of Annapolis in the said ninth section of this act.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That in all elections for the senators, to be held after the election for delegates, for the December session eighteen hundred and thirty-seven, the city of Annapolis, shall be deemed and taken as part of Anne Arundel county.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That the General Assembly shall have power from time to time to regulate all matters relating to the judges, time, place and manner of holding elections for senators and delegates, and of making returns thereof, and to divide the several counties into election districts, for the more convenient holding of elections, not affecting their terms or tenure of office.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That so much of the constitution and form of government, as relates to the Council to the Governor, and to the clerk of the council, be abrogated, abolished and annulled, and that the whole executive power of the government of this State, shall be vested exclusively in the Governor, subject nevertheless to the checks, limitations and provisions hereinafter specified and mentioned.

SEC. 14. And be it enacted, That the Governor shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall appoint all officers of the State and same officers are or may be created by law, and no appointment shall not be otherwise provided for by the constitution and form of government, or by any laws consistent with the constitution and form of government, provided, that this act shall not be deemed or construed to impair in any manner, the validity of the commissions of such persons as shall be in office under previous executive appointment, when it is set shall go into operation, or alter, abridge, or change, the term of quality, or duration of the same, or of any of them.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the Governor shall have power to fill any vacancy that may occur in any such offices during the recess of the senate, by granting commissions which shall expire upon the appointment of the same person, or any other person, by and with the advice and consent of the senate to the same office, or at the expiration of one calendar month, ending the commencement of the next regular session of the senate, whichever shall first occur.

SEC. 16. And be it enacted, That the same person, shall in no case be nominated by the Governor a second time during the same session, for the same office, in case he shall have been rejected by the senate, unless after such rejection, the senate shall inform the Governor by message, of their willingness to receive again the nomination of such rejected person, for further consideration, and in case any person nominated by the Governor for any office, shall have been rejected by the senate, it shall not be the duty of the Governor at any time afterwards, during the recess of the senate, in case of a vacancy in the same office, to appoint another person to fill said vacancy.

SEC. 17. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Governor, within the period of one calendar month next after this act shall go into operation, and in the same session in which the same shall be confirmed, if it be confirmed, and annually thereafter during the regular session of the senate, and on such particular day, if any, or within such particular period as may be prescribed by law, to nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the senate, to appoint a Secretary of State, who shall hold his office until a successor shall be appointed, and who shall discharge such duties and receive such compensation, as shall be prescribed by law.

SEC. 18. And be it enacted, That in case a vacancy shall occur in the office of Governor at any time after this act shall go into operation, the General Assembly, if in session, or if in the recess, at their next session, shall proceed to elect by joint ballot of the two houses, some person, being a qualified elector of the gubernatorial district from which the Governor for said year is to be taken, to be Governor for the residue of said term in place of the person originally chosen, and in every case of vacancy until the election and qualification of the person succeeding the Secretary of State, by virtue of his said office, shall be clothed, ad interim, with the executive powers of government; and in case there shall be no Secretary of State, or in case he shall refuse to act, remove from the state, die, resign, or be removed for cause, the person filling the office of president of the senate shall, by virtue of his said office, be clothed, ad interim, with the executive powers of government.

SEC. 19. And be it enacted, That the term of office of the Governor, who shall be chosen on the first Monday of January next, shall continue for the term of one year, and until the election and qualification of a successor, to be chosen as hereinafter mentioned.

SEC. 20. And be it enacted, That at the time and places of holding the elections in the several counties of this State, and in the city of Baltimore, for delegates to the General Assembly for the December session of the year eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, and before the same judges by whom the election for delegates shall be held, and in every third year forever thereafter, an election shall also be held, for a governor of this state, whose term of office shall commence on the first Monday of January next ensuing the day of such election, and continue for three years, and until the election and qualification of a successor; at which election every person qualified to vote for delegates to the General Assembly, at the place at which he shall offer to vote, shall be entitled to vote for Governor, and the person voted for as Governor shall possess the qualifications now required by the constitution and form of government, and the additional qualification of being at least thirty years of age, and of being not of having been for at least three whole years before, a resident within the limits of the gubernatorial district from which the Governor is to be taken at such election, according to the priority which shall be determined as hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, the same shall be, and the same is hereby divided into three gubernatorial districts, as follows: the counties of Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's, Caroline, Talbot, Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester shall together compose one district, and until its number shall be determined as hereinafter provided, shall be known as the Eastern District; the counties of St. Mary's, Charles, Calvert, Prince George's, Anne Arundel, including the city of Annapolis, Montgomery, and Baltimore city, shall together compose one district, and until its number shall be determined as hereinafter provided, shall be known as the North-western District; and for the purpose of determining the respective numbers and order of priority of said districts in the same session in which this act shall be confirmed, if the same shall be confirmed as hereinafter mentioned, and on some day to be fixed by concurrence of the two branches, the speaker of the house of delegates shall present to the president of the senate, in the senate chamber, a box containing three ballots of similar size and appearance, and on which shall severally be written, Eastern District, Southern District, North-western District, and the president of the senate shall thereupon draw from said box three sealed ballots in succession, and the district the name of which shall be written on the ballot first drawn, shall thenceforth be distinguished as the first gubernatorial district, and the person to be chosen Governor at the election first to be held under the provisions of this section, and the person to be chosen at every succeeding third election for Governor forever thereafter, shall be taken from the said first district, and the person to be distinguished as the second gubernatorial district, and the person to be chosen Governor at the second election for Governor forever thereafter, shall be taken from the said second district; and the person to be chosen Governor at the third election to be held under the provisions of this section, and the person to be chosen at every succeeding third election forever thereafter, shall be taken from the said third district; and the result of such drawing shall be entered on the journal of the house of delegates on his return to that body and be entered on the journal thereof, and shall be certified by a notary public to be signed by the president of the senate and speaker of the house of delegates, and be addressed and transmitted to the Secretary of State, if appointed, and if not, as soon as he shall be appointed, to be by him preserved in his office.

SEC. 21. And be it enacted, That the General Assembly shall have power to regulate, by law, all matters which relate to the judges, time, place and manner of holding elections for Governor, and of making returns thereof, not affecting the tenure and term of office thereby; and that until otherwise directed, the returns shall be made in like manner as in elections for electors of President and Vice President, save the form of the certificate shall be varied to suit the case; and also that the returns, instead of being made to the Governor and Council, shall be made to the Senate, and be addressed to the president of the senate, and be enclosed under cover to the Secretary of State, by whom they shall be delivered to the president of the senate at the commencement of the session next ensuing such election.

SEC. 22. And be it enacted, That of the persons voted for as Governor at any such election, the person having, in the judgment of the senate, the highest number of legal votes, and possessing the legal qualifications, and resident as aforesaid, in the district from which the Governor at such election is to be taken, shall be Governor, and shall qualify in the manner prescribed by the constitution and laws, on the first Monday of January next ensuing his election, or as soon thereafter as may be; and all questions in relation to the number or legality of the votes given for each and every person voted for as Governor, and in relation to the qualifications of the person voted for as Governor, shall be decided by the senate; and in case two or more persons legally qualified according to the provisions of this act, shall have an equal number of legal votes, then the senate and house of delegates, upon joint ballot, shall determine which one of them shall be Governor, and for one year, upon counting the ballots, shall have the highest number of votes shall be Governor, and shall qualify accordingly.

SEC. 23. And be it enacted, That no person who shall be elected and act as Governor, shall be again eligible for the next succeeding term.

SEC. 24. And be it enacted, That the elections to be held in pursuance of this act, shall be held on the first Wednesday of October, in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-eight, and for the election of delegates on the same day in every year thereafter, for the election of Governor on the same day in every third year thereafter, and for the election of senators of the first class, on the same day in the second year after their election and classification, and on the same day in the fourth year after their election and classification, and on the same day in every sixth year thereafter, and for the election of senators of the third class, on the same day in the sixth year after their election and classification, and on the same day in every sixth year thereafter.

SEC. 25. And be it enacted, That in all elections for Governor, the city of Annapolis shall be deemed and taken as part of Anne Arundel county.

SEC. 26. And be it enacted, That the relation of master and slave, in this State, shall not be abolished unless a law to abolish the same, shall be passed by a unanimous vote of the members of each branch of the General Assembly, and shall be published at least three months before a new election of delegates, and shall be confirmed by a unanimous vote of the members of each branch of the General Assembly at the next regular constitutional session after such new election, nor then, without full compensation to the master for the property of which he shall be thereby deprived.

SEC. 27. And be it enacted, That the city of Annapolis shall continue to be the seat of government, and the place of holding the sessions of the court of appeals for the Western Shore, and the high court of chancery.

SEC. 28. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the General Assembly, after a new election of delegates, in the first session after such new election, agreeably to the provisions of the constitution and form of government, then and in such case, this act, and the alterations and amendments of the constitution therein contained, shall be taken and considered, and shall constitute and be valid as a part of said constitution and form of government, any thing in the said constitution and form of government to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 81.

An act to confirm an act, entitled, an act to amend the Constitution and Form of Government of the State of Maryland, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty six, chapter one hundred and ninety seven.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act, entitled, an act to amend the constitution and form of government, of the State of Maryland passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-six, chapter one hundred and ninety seven, be and the same is hereby ratified and confirmed.

THE SALMAGUNDI.

NEW PERIODICAL, OF A NOVEL CHARACTER, BEARING THE ABOVE APPPELLATION, WILL BE COMMENCED ON THE BEGINNING OF JANUARY, 1836. WHILE IT WILL FURNISH ITS PATRONS WITH THE LEADING FEATURES OF THE NEWS OF THE DAY, ITS PRINCIPAL OBJECT WILL BE TO SERVE UP A HUMOROUS COMPILATION OF THE NUMEROUS LITERARY AND PUNYENT SALLIES WHICH ARE DAILY FLOUTING ALONG THE TIDE OF LITERATURE, AND WHICH, FOR THE WANT OF A PROPER CHANNEL FOR THEIR PRESERVATION, ARE POSITIVELY LOST TO THE READING WORLD. ORIGINAL WITS AND HUMORISTS OF OUR TIME WILL HERE HAVE A MEDIUM DEVOTED TO THE FAITHFUL RECORD OF THE SCINTILLATIONS OF THEIR GENIUS. IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO DETAIL THE MANY ATTRACTIONS WHICH THIS JOURNAL WILL POSSESS, AS THE PUBLISHER WILL FURNISH A SPECIMEN NUMBER TO EVERY PERSON WHO DESIRES IT. (PLEASE OUT OF THE CITY, WILL FORWARD THEIR ORDERS, POSTAGE PAID.)—AND HE PLEDGES HIMSELF THAT NO EXERTIONS ON HIS PART SHALL BE WANTING TO MAKE EACH SUCCEEDING NUMBER SUPERIOR IN EVERY RESPECT TO THE PRECEDING ONE.

THE SALMAGUNDI WILL BE PRINTED ON LARGE IMPERIAL PAPER, EQUAL IN SIZE AND QUALITY TO THAT WHICH IS AT PRESENT USED FOR THE GENTLEMEN'S MADE MECUM. IT IS CALCULATED THAT MORE THAN

will be furnished to the patrons of this Journal in one year.—These, in addition to an extensive and choice selection of Satire, Criticism, Humour and Wit, to be circulated through its columns, will form a Literary Banquet of a superior and attractive order; and the publisher relies with perfect confidence on the liberality of the American public, and the spirit and tact with which this expensive undertaking will be prosecuted, to bear him successfully and profitably along with it.

THE TERMS OF THE SALMAGUNDI WILL BE TWO DOLLARS per annum, payable in advance. No paper will be furnished unless this stipulation is strictly adhered to. Clubs of three will be supplied with the paper for one year, by forwarding a five dollar note, postage paid. Clubs of seven will be supplied for the same term, by forwarding a ten dollar note. The papers that are sent out of the city will be carefully packed in strong envelopes, to prevent their rubbing in the mail.

THE SALMAGUNDI WILL BE PUBLISHED ON alternate weeks—otherwise it would be impossible to procure the numerous Engravings which each number will contain—and the general interest it will afford must be enhanced by this arrangement.

Address, CHARLES ALEXANDER, Athenian Buildings, Franklin Place, Philadelphia.
