Uncle Pickwick Discourses on Dr. Crummell's Lecture—Business Men's Banquet, Afro-American Appointment.

Dr. Crummell's Lecture—Business Men's Banquet, Afro-American Appointment. The Doctor began by explaining the causes leading to the great social unrest, prevalent in all parts of the world, and characterized the trades unions and similar organizations as the rebellion of enlightened human nature against "drudgery" rather than, as commonly thought, of labor against capital.

ored people of Baltimore. Is it a fact that the many educational institutions in this city, including the Baltimore City College, if you will, are held down by such a nonsensical restriction in the employment of teachers and professors? How greatly absurd it would be for the Johns Hopkins University to refuse to elect an eminent educator to one of its chairs because he is not a graduate of Maryland schools? How much would be refused to elect, as teachers in our public schools, the daughter of a wealthy Afro-American, a Marylander by birth, for the simple reason that her father was so well-to-do that he had his daughter educated in Paris and elsewhere else? We sincerely hope that Dr. Windfall's "S. S. S." will do so that he will vote some day at college. It is a false, delusive and pernicious way for men to be raising continually the "equal" question. There is nothing in it. What we want for our schools is the very best Afro-American brain that can be had. It goes without saying that all things being equal, preference should be given to Marylanders. But, for God's sake, don't put inferior teachers because they were "born in Maryland."

Judge Brentano of Chicago has rendered a decision and ordered the entry of a decree which will make Maria Evans Launce, an ex-slave, the legal widow of Dr. Wm. Launce and a wealthy woman. She is now entitled by the order of the court to an interest in her late husband's property, which will bring her at least $50,000. Dr. Launce was a white man, and died in 1891 at his home in Chicago. As soon as Dr. Evans died Maria Launce, as she is known, put in a claim against his claim against his estate on the ground that she was his widow. This claim was disputed by Dr. Wm. J. Launce, a brother of the deceased, and 20 other heirs. The defense claimed that Maria Evans was only a servant of the doctor, but the court said the evidence of a common law marriage was too strong to controvert.

President Cleveland has sent to the House all the correspondence in possession of the State Department concerning the Alabama colored people who were colonized in Guadalupe, Mexico, and repeated his former recommendation that an appropriation be made for their return to the United States. A bill now pending in the Virginia Senate provides that seven well known men, whom it names, shall be incorporated a body politic under the name of The National Adjustment Company whose object shall be to lobby by Congress a constitutional amendment providing payment for emancipated slaves, one-half to go to former owners, the other half to the freedmen. Pittsburg, Pa., has a young colored man about 18 years of age, named Oliver S. Goodman, who is destined to rival Edison. Last summer he constructed an electric engine that will do as much for him fame and fortune. The engine will revolutionize steam as a motive power for large manufacturing plants. The New York Company has secured the rights to manufacture the engine. Dispatch special.

Above you will notice a man who is already engaged in commercial pursuits. He is one of a large class, and, in his home, is studying the principles of Commerce, Foreign Trade, Finance, Money, Exchange, Commercial Law, and the like. His business duties are finished, and he now proceeds to consult the great teachers in those lines in which he is most interested. He is saying to his good wife:

"I mean to know all about my business. I must fathom the principles that underlie it. I shall study the supply and demand of the market, the principles of the times. When I learn everything that can be known about this business, I shall survey other departments; then, when a Mechanic, or Farmer, or Teacher, or Professional man, or a Student comes to my attention, I can converse with him on his own pursuits, influence his friendship and secure his custom. Thus I shall do a better trade than my rivals in business, who seldom learn anything beyond their own weights and measures. I shall also study biography, so that I may recreate the lives of the day are over."
Note the purpose of this man. He realizes that should he confine himself to the limits of his own business, he could achieve but ordinary success. No matter what your vocation in life may be, no matter what you may have accomplished, there are yet broad fields for you to explore. The great drawback with many is the means. The "Morning Herald" has provided the means. What heretofore has been hoped for is now a reality. The "Herald" has made it possible for every home in this great state to establish its own University. To bring to its aid the master minds of the past and present. To give those who desire to advance, to keep abreast of the times, an opportunity to do so. No one is left out.

President Elliott once said in a lecture delivered to the Lowell Institute that "Individual instruction has been too costly—that is one reason why it has not been more universally adopted." Had President Elliott discussed education from the same standpoint yesterday, or today, he would have added, "The Encyclopedia Britannica" has been brought within the reach of anyone who can save ten cents a day, since, also, the organization of the Home University League, no one, rich or poor need deprive themselves of educational advantages. Do you wish to become one of the fortunate ones? If so, fill out the coupon below, and mail it to the Educational Department of the "Morning Herald."

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 8, '06.
DEAR SIR—Please find enclosed 25 cents for a renewal of the Afro-American for one month. I have been a subscriber to your paper, the Afro-American, to be dated from the expiration of my last subscription. Your paper is a welcome visitor to my home, and I can't afford to be without it. I wish it success.
Yours truly,
CALVIN D. REE.

Give Dr. Bryant a Push.
To the Editor of the Afro-American:
GIRKS, Wood, Md., Feb. 8, '06.
DEAR SIR—I advise our colored fellow-citizens of Baltimore and elsewhere to give Dr. Bryant a push, for from the Marsh Market space, I found that the men whom he had employed for street sweeping were hired, happily and creditably fulfilling their duty. It is the street's first sweep under the instructions of Dr. Bryant, and as I have often seen the streets of Baltimore swept by other different kinds of sweepers—the white sweeps, for example.
But there is only one difference that I could see between a white sweep and a colored sweep. The colored sweep of Baltimore (I wish such a new one, a creditable one, and a legal and just one, that it has come to be a surprising one, and one which, on Wednesday morning last, aroused the curiosity of the people. The pavement was covered with people, regardless of race, color or denomination, who were looking on with a just and noble interest. The crowd looked on reminded me of a side account of the great jubilee in this country is seldom seen. Never fulfilling the offices of a great jubilee, as the Negroes are always in the offices that his countrymen would be proud to have. So, my fellow-citizens, give Dr. Bryant a push.
