THE QUESTION OF OFFICE.

The Republicans Began at the Wrong End.

It should Have Put in Evidence its Best Side, so far as the Negroes are Concerned.

In theory all men, without regard to color, are equal in the eyes of the law. When it comes to practice, there is a difference. The Negroes in this State are of the opinion that they should have received at the hands of the Republican party greater political recognition in the matter of appointments to office. The trouble has been that while the Republican managers have gone to one extreme, the negroes, quite naturally, have gone to the other. The idea of negroes receiving political appointments commensurate with their numerical strength in the party is nothing less than ludicrous, however strange it may appear in theory. On the other hand the idea of almost entirely ignoring them is equally ridiculous.

With the actual conditions confronting the Republican party, conditions which are intricate and embarrassing, the greatest amount of prudence and common sense should obtain. Were the Republican party to accede to the clamor of a certain class of Negroes and bestow offices among the Negro element in proportion to its voting strength in the party, it would commit deliberate political suicide and bury itself with the negroes so deep that the sound of the trump of the archangel could hardly reach them. This is, pre-eminently, a question of fact and not of sentiment. The disposition, when the Republicans came into power in this city, to bestow many positions of a laboring character among the colored people, may have been sincere, looking to the benefit of the many rather than the few. Yet it was unquestionably a political blunder and a mistake. When a party is put on public trial it ought to put into prominence its very best end. The greatest and liveliest competition necessarily ensued when that became the policy of the Republican party in its treatment of its Negro contingency. Nor was that all. Such a course naturally provoked a little uneasiness among the white men of the party seeking jobs of that same character. To be sure, by such a policy the Negro was, numerically speaking, in greater and conspicuous evidence. His presence naturally attracted more attention, and was also the occasion for a stimulation of a strong racial feeling against him.

On the contrary if the Republican policy had operated from the other end the racial feeling would not have proved as disastrous and as embarrassing to the party. Possibly, there are few white people, comparatively speaking, having any knowledge of the fact that one of the very best clerks in the Internal Revenue Department in this city, is a colored man, and has most creditably filled that position for years.

Few white persons are aware that during the last session of the State Legislature that a talented young colored lawyer of this city was Secretary of the Judiciary Committee of that body. Positions of this character when given to well qualified colored persons accomplish far greater good both to the community in general and the race, than ten times as many places of a lower grade. Ten educated colored men, distributed in as many departments, would, possibly, in bulk draw as much salary as fifty laborers massed together. The diffusion would be to the interest of all concerned, while the race would at the same time enjoy "recognition" and the same amount of cash in the aggregate.

After all it is just this class of educated and trained colored men who are calculated, politically, to give the organization the most trouble. Generally speaking, the illiterate and uneducated are least qualified for the work of organizing and leading a revolt.

Qualifications for such higher places being greater, aspirants would be significantly few as compared with those who desire jobs as laborers.

The employment of such competent and qualified colored men would prove mutually educative. Colored and white men of education would find it comparatively easy to get along without much friction.

Lastly, it would free the party from many surmises and fears which render it increasingly odious to a certain portion of the population.

If then, only a few political places, for awhile, fall to the lot of colored citizens they ought to be places of such character as to furnish them the opportunity for demonstrating, in its best sense, race capability.

HIS GREAT WORK.

Nearly Two Thousand Dollars for Tuskegee.

Mr. Robert Taylor, in a recent article to the Indianapolis Freeman, writes:

"At a meeting of the guests of Lake Mohonk Hotel, N. Y., Aug. 21, at which Prof. Booker T. Washington spoke, a collection of $1750 was raised for the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute. This is by far the largest collection ever taken at Lake Mohonk for any institution. The meeting was a most enthusiastic one. The Rev. Dr. Cuyler, of Brooklyn, introduced Prof. Washington in the following words:

During the last twenty-years we have listened in this room to many of the leaders of thought and action in our land. We have heard here Dr. Phillip Schaff, the eminent theologian; Ex-Senator Geo. F. Edmunds, who is one of our greatest intellectual forces; General Armstrong, the noble pioneer in the advancement of the Negro; Ex-Senator Dawes, the champion of the Indian rights; and lately we heard Edward Everett Hale, plead here earnestly for International Peace, but no message they brought is of more vital importance than the one you are now about to receive. You will now listen to the voice of eight millions of our fellow countrymen. They are mostly poor, dumb, speechless and hungry with wants, and they speak to you tonight from the eloquent lips of Booker T. Washington.

God raised him up to be their leader and their spokesman. He endowed and equipped my dear friend and brother Washington with peculiar gifts for his great work. Especially he gave him what he gave to Abraham Lincoln in such large measure, and that is an immense, practical common sense.

In no way does my friend show his sense more than in letting partisan politics entirely alone. His one aim is to make the Negro respected by making him industrious, honest and God-fearing, and a self-respecting, self-supporting citizen."

Mr. Washington was most warmly received and the impression he produced, can in some degree be measured by the substantial way in which less than two hundred hearers responded.

Don't Wait to be Dunned.

THE LEDGER has a large number of subscribers who are in arrears. Because they are not called upon should not deter them from sending in their subscription. Do not wait, dear subscribers for a collector to come knocking at your door continually for a small amount, but forward it to the office. We have been treating you courteously, therefore return it by paying what you owe promptly. Don't allow the collector to call on you for a small amount.

THE CAMPAIGN.

The Battle is Now On,

Governor Lowmes stronger than ever, and Gen. Shryock is in Command.

General Shryock says that he has not perfected complete plans for the campaign.

"I shall, of course, have to be guided to a considerable extent by the advice of our friends," he said. "I shall not select the campaign committee until my return from New York, but I believe that when the names of the gentlemen composing it are published, it will meet with the approbation of all.

HON. LLOYD LOWMES.

I want to say that I am more than pleased with the assistance I am receiving from the Baltimore city organization, known as the Malster party.

"They are tumbling over themselves to aid in the election of the ticket, and the Democrat who hopes to find a disaffected Malsterite will have to hunt hard. I have yet to discover a Republican who will not support the ticket. There are some with personal grievances, of course, but these will not be brought up at this time. I received more than 100 letters Tuesday morning at my office and the renewed enthusiasm in the fight is more than gratifying to me.

"We are Going to Win."

"We are going to win this fight. The men who have been looking for the good government of the State are not going to put aside slightly the men who gave it to them. Add to this the harmonious vote of all the Republicans and the result is more than assured. The Democrats seem to be anxious to make the canvass on the rostrum. That is just where we want to meet them. They are telling the public at present that every good law at present on the statute books was put there only because they aided it through the Senate of 1896. They do not so readily explain, however, why they did not put some of these laws on the book when they had complete control. All this will be threshed out by the 'stallbinders.' We are going to win, and it will be only because we deserve it."

T. SHRYOCK, STATE TREASURER.

AND CHAIRMAN OF THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Pleased with the Chairman. Congressman Sydney Mudd was very enthusiastic in his praises of the new chairman. He said: "We are fixed now for the fight sure enough. I believe Mr. Shryock will fill the chair admirably, and when the fall election comes we will be better entrenched than ever. I believed everything will be harmonized and no dissension will exist."

Colleges William F. Stone was more than pleased with the result of Monday's meeting, and said that he was unqualifiedly in favor of General Shryock for the State Chairmanship. He pledged the full support of the Union League, and said the Malsterites would be as heartily in favor of the ticket as the Leaguers.

COLORED LABO

There Are Fewer Colored Mechanics.

The Labor Commissioner of Virginia in His First Annual Report Gives Important Information.

The first annual report of Labor Commissioner A. P. Montague has just been completed, to be submitted to the Governor, to be by him sent to the General Assembly when it assembles her on the first Wednesday in December. The office of Labor Commissioner was created at the last session of the Legislature, and Mr. Montague's initial report will be the first attempt made in Virginia to gather and present to the Legislature the statistics of the various manufactures and industrial plants in this State.

The report makes a book of over 400 pages, and not only attempts to cover the reports from all of the various manufacturing establishments, but devotes space to each county in the State, showing the number of farms, the products and the net profit on each crop raised. Besides this information, it gives other, which has therefore been embraced in the reports of the Agricultural Department of the State.

Statistical information with regard to the labor of colored people in Virginia, the Commissioners report says, is difficult to obtain and hard to verify. There is no organized labor among them. As between the black and white races there is no community of interest in labor organizations. For a short time some few negro laborers were connected with the Knights of Labor. There are fewer skilled laborers among them than there were before the war in proportion to number and opportunities, resulting no doubt that the children and youths are seldom taught the trades followed by their parents. In all branches of tobacco manufacture except cheroots, cigar and cigarette making, they are employed in large numbers. In 1896 there were 8,000 men, women, boys and girls employed in the factories of Richmond.

A Good Man Departed. Rev. CHAS. H. COREY, D. D., for many years president of the Richmond Theological Seminary, died in Seabright, N. H. last week, and this announcement will be received with genuine regret by thousands of young men of the race who have come under the influence of his great mind and his beautiful character. He is perhaps the last of the noble men who came South at the close of the war and engaged in the educational and missionary work of the American Baptist Home Mission Society. During all these years he has been in Richmond, Va., where he has done great and lasting good for the race and the denomination. The Society never had a more conscientious and earnest man in its service and the race a more faithful and devoted friend, Amer. Baptist.

Cambridge. The death of Mr. Thos. Henson on Thursday removed from this community one of its oldest and most highly respected citizens. Deceased who was 75 years old, was one of the founders of Waugh M. E. Church his connection therewith covering a period of more than 50 years. He had served in every official capacity, was a loyal and christian gentleman. The funeral was largely attended on Sunday, the pastor officiating.

Rev. Wm. O. Saunders, of the A. M. E. Church, and Miss Florence G. Macer were married on the 7th inst by Rev. A. L. Martin. The Preachers meeting of Cambridge circuit will be held in this city October the 18, 19, and 20th. Rev. A. L. Martin is confined to his bed from a severe attack of pneumonia. The public schools will open on Monday, September 26th. Eddy and family returned from Washington on Sunday.

Miss Henrietta M. Jackson of East Baltimore, after an absence of two years is on a visit to friends in Easton, Md. Miss Jackson is a guest of the Misses Tilghman's of that place.

At the Harvest Home Festival of St. Mary's Congregation on Thursday evening of last week, Mr. Wm. H. Bishop presided. Addresses were made by Mr. Harry S. Cummings, Ex-city councilman, Rev. Geo. F. Bragg Jr. Rector of St. James Church, and the Rev. R. H. Paine, Rector of Mt. Calvary Church, of which parish St. Mary's is a part.

The Northwestern Literary met on last Sunday and rendered a very good program. Those taken part were: Rev. J. A. Carter, Mr. W. T. Lampton, G. M. Downton and others. Miss Susie Rice presided at the organ. The subject for next Sunday "Is there any reason for animosity between the races?"

It is important that you should get your friends to register. The offices will be open on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week.

Mr. John H. Murphy, Jr., foreman on The Afro-American will leave the city next week for Kittrell College, Kittrell, N. C.

Mr. John H. Green of East Baltimore, is in Washington, where he will reside during the winter.

Mrs. Emma Stevens-Cully, of Annapolis, was in the city this week. On her return home she was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Emma Stevens.

Miss Louise Cornell, of Washington, is in the city, the guest of Mrs. Gibbs on Hillen street.

Mr. J. A. Sharp, of 1316 Whatcoat street, is confined to his bed with an afflicted back.

Rev. J. B. Smith has returned home from a trip to New York. Sharp St. Memorial M. E. church, Dolphin and Etting Sts. Rev. D. W. Hays D. D. Pastor. Sunday School, 9:30 A. M. and 2:30 P. M. Preaching 11 A. M. Rev. G. W. W. Jenkins D. D. Epworth League Platform meeting to be addressed by the Pastor and T. R. Ovalton delegates to the International convention.

Mr. Edward Jones, 445 E. 21st street, continues quite sick.

...against the negro in industrial as in political lines, exciting despair and hopelessness and inviting on his part development of his baser nature. But the Colonel stops short of the whole truth. He states simply that portion which is of seeming advantage to his party, while he conveniently omits that which is to the credit of the Republican party. And so we shall state what the Colonel did not care to rehearse, to wit: while there has been a seeming increase in the vicious element of the colored race, likewise has there been under a Republican administration a prompt and speedy bringing to trial and conviction. More have been tried, convicted, sent to the penitentiary or hung than under the Gorman-Kaisin regime when not much notice was taken of Negro petty wickedness. So that when the whole truth is told, the Republican party is rather to be congratulated, that irrespective of the fact of the attachment of the bulk of Negroes to that party, yet it had the courage, without regard to color, to punish, and that speedily the guilty sinners. And if we are correctly informed, while Mr. Lowndes, without fear or favor, was firmly disposed not to interfere with the department of justice on behalf of condemned Negroes, the present Democratic candidate for the Attorney-Generalship, with his great abhorrence for Negro criminals was ready and disposed to invite, on their behalf, the exercise of executive clemency.

And yet Mr. Rayner, a burning advocate of political eloquence, went into such awful details of Negro rowdism up at Frederick, that it was too cumbersome to be telegraphically communicated to Baltimore's champion daily exponent on black cussedness!

Friendliness of the Democratic Party.

Col. John Walter Smith is too admirable a gentleman to be taken in a serious vein when he proceeds to inform the world that the Democratic party, indeed "is friendly to the colored man and has ever protected him in his rights." This is enough to provoke even a smile upon the faces of fellows further South, who for sometime in the past have been indulging in midnight marauding, white-capping lynching and assassination of Negroes, all of whom are Democrats in good standing. What Colonel Smith predicates of the Democratic party can, in truth, be truthfully asserted of any number of individual democrats, but when he claims it an inherent attribute of his party it is simply ridiculous. The Southern wing of the party of which Col. Smith is a member is at this very moment in a conspiracy to rob the Negro of the essential badge and weapon of citizenship. And yet this institution which is responsible for all the humiliating agencies throughout the South designed to render practically in-operative the fruits issuing from our late Civil War is held to be a friendly agency on behalf of the Negro! If then the Democratic party, responsible throughout the South for the lynchings of colored men and the wide-spread industrial seifdom of the Negro race, is our great benefactor, then, in all reverence, we cry out, Good Lord save us from our friends. Col. Smith like Grover Cleveland, may be a good man, but being in the Democratic party, he is in bad company.

Gen. Shyrook.

The Republican State Central Committee on last Monday, in Raine's Hall, this city, held one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever held for years. Mr. Wellington, who had gratuitously, the week before predicted the defeat of the party which had conferred upon him the highest honor in its gift, and had also expressed his unwillingness to carry out the wishes of the party, was present and resigned the chairmanship. Gen. Thomas J. Shyrook was unanimously elected to the chairmanship. The election of General Shyrook not only means work from start to finish but it is a real indication of a better day for the colored people of Maryland. Gen. Shyrook is a manly man, no flunkey, or lily white concern, but a man in the best and truest sense of the word. He is a man of enthusiasm and of firm purpose. It is really doubtful if a better man could have been selected in the whole State of Maryland. If there are any grievances on the part of any faction or factions within the party if the General cannot settle them, then they cannot be settled.

A Voice from the Ancient City.

The Negro Appeal, hailing from Annapolis, with the Rev. S. T. Tice, as editor, is certainly vigorous and forceful in expression, and although it is "independent," it insinuates that its learned scribe is unable to locate the position of THE LEDGER. We can easily understand why our contemporary is unable to discover our position. The Appeal seems to be at sea and suffering with a severe case of sea-sickness and under such conditions it can hardly determine its own motion whether it is "coming or going." From what we have been informed, and from what we have been able to gather from the columns of our contemporary we have come to the conclusion that Anne Arundel politics and Charles Co., "Mudd" have obstructed the usual clear vision of our learned scribe. Were it not for the fact that our good friend is engaged in the onerous work of editing a paper which is so independent as to support neither Lowndes or Smith nor yet the cold water ticket, which is indeed a great task, he would have long since satisfied himself that the Ledger is still supporting that party, which, seemingly, welcomes Negro support, and that not exactly by kitchen arrangement.

Ought We to Divide our Vote?

Dr. J. Marcus Cargill, in the Sun, a few days ago, writes a very interesting article on the division of the Negro vote. In theory Dr. Cargill is perfectly correct. Colored men ought to be divided up among all the political parties. And as a matter of fact such is already the case. Possibly the most distinguished colored Baptist divine of this city is and has been for many years a member of the Prohibition party. It is well-known that several colored men have been consistent members of the Democratic household for years. So as a fact as a fact there is already a division. If there be any other point to Dr. Cargill's article it must rather be a plea for more accessions of colored men to the Democratic party. Now just how that can best be promoted is a question. However, if Dr. Cargill and other colored men of standing and character in the community will come out boldly and proclaim themselves democrats, and like the late C. H. J. Taylor appeal to colored men and convincingly indicate that the Democratic party constitutes a better medium for advancing the interests of the race than any other party, then we shall have something more definite than theories on this subject. We honor and respect any colored man who proclaims himself a Prohibitionist, Democrat or anything else if he honestly believes that such a party is the best medium for serving the interests of his race and country. Our very esteemed contemporary hailing from Indianapolis, The Freeman, has a word along this very line, which is full of good sense, and we therefore print it for the benefit of those who are thinking about changing their political faith.

IN BOTH PLACES.

Hard to Escape the Presence of Negroes.

A Connecticut family, being much troubled about good servants, and on a visit to some friends in Tennessee, noticed one of those Negro cooks (who are to be found here and there) whose demeanor was as quiet as her work and person was cleanly. They persuaded her to enter their service; and in due time she arrived in Connecticut. On the following Sabbath, armed with her church letter recommending to the kindly consideration of any sister church with whom she might affiliate, she, after much surprise at finding herself the only darkey in sight for miles, to say nothing of an African Methodist Episcopal church, asked for permission to worship with the white folks and put her letter of good standing in with them. She was told to come around on the following evening to the business meeting of the official board.

A Good Family Paper.

The publishers of the Ledger aim to furnish a first class family weekly at the lowest possible price, so that, on account of the smallness of the price charged, it may each week find its way into the homes of even the very poorest of the race. We are specially desirous of increasing the out of town circulation in the various counties of Maryland as well as in other states, and to that end we desire to make the following most liberal offer. To any reliable person, outside of Baltimore, who will send us 10 annual subscribers at 50c. each for the year, we will allow such an one 40 per cent. of the money thus collected as commission. That is, they collect five dollars for the ten subscribers; they retain two dollars, and send us only three; for which we will send the paper to each one for the period of one year, post-paid. To any one sending at one time 30 new subscribers, for a year each, at 50c. each, we will allow them a commission of 50 per cent. or exactly one-half of the amount collected.
