for the use of
JOHN HAWKINS,
ELLSWORTH HAWKINS, OLLIE G. HAWKINS, : OF
ELLA HAWKINS,
DALLAS HAWKINS,
WILLIAM HAWKINS.
BALTIMORE CITY.

The State of Maryland for the use of John Hawkins, for himself and as father and next friend of Ella Hawkins, Dallas Hawkins and William Hawkins^{reports} and Ellsworth Hawkins and Ollie G. Hawkins, both of whom are adults, more than twenty-one years of age, by J. Steward Davis, their attorney, sues Milton Roberts an individual; for that on or about the 8th day of July, 1922, the defendant, Milton Roberts, was driving a gasoline propelled vehicle, to wit, an automobile, and that the defendant, Milton Roberts, was driving said automobile negligently at an excessive rate of speed in a northerly direction on Calvert Street in the City of Baltimore, State of Maryland; that Margaret Hawkins, deceased wife of John Hawkins and mother of Ellsworth Hawkins, Ollie Hawkins, Ella Hawkins, Dallas Hawkins and William Hawkins, was a passenger in a gasoline propelled vehicle, to wit, an automobile, and that the automobile in which the said Margaret Hawkins, deceased was a passenger, was proceeding in a westerly direction on Twenty-second Street, City of Baltimore, State of Maryland at an ordinary rate of speed; that as a result of the negligent driving of the aforementioned automobile by the aforementioned defendant, the automobile of the defendant collided with the automobile in which the deceased Margaret Hawkins was a passenger, said collision occurring at the intersection of Calvert and Twenty-second Streets; that as a result of said collision, Margaret Hawkins, deceased was thrown from the car in which she was a passenger and as a result of having been thrown from said car, the said Margaret Hawkins, deceased died almost instantly; and that the said collision between the automobile driven by the said defendant and the automobile in which the deceased Margaret Hawkins was riding, was caused by the negligence of the defendant and without fault or negligence on the part of the deceased, Margaret Hawkins.

WHEREFORE the said John Hawkins, Ellsworth Hawkins, Ollie G. Hawkins, Ella Hawkins, Dallas Hawkins and William Hawkins, claim twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars damages therefore.
