STATE OF MARYLAND,

CITY OF BALTIMORE, to wit:

The Jurors of the State of Maryland, for the body of the City of Baltimore, do on their oath present that heretofore, to wit, on the sixth day of October, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, at the City and State aforesaid, before a court of competent jurisdiction, to wit, the Criminal Court of Baltimore, in and for said City of Baltimore, the Honorable Carroll T. Bond, one of the Associate Judges of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City aforesaid, being then and there duly assigned to the said Criminal Court of Baltimore, as Judge thereof, and then and there duly presiding therein as such, a certain issue whereof the said Court then and there had jurisdiction, between the State of Maryland and one Nathaniel Palmer, wherein the said Nathaniel Palmer was charged with the crime of unlawfully, on the eighteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, at the City of Baltimore, in and upon one Nettie DeShields making an assault, with intent her, the said Nettie DeShields feloniously, wilfully and of malice aforethought to kill and murder, which said cause and issue was then and there pending therein, and then and there came on to be tried and determined, and that during the said trial of the said cause, in the said Court, and before the said Carroll T. Bond, then and there presiding therein as Judge thereof, as aforesaid, the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS was then and there called as a witness in said cause and issue, by and on behalf of the State of Maryland, and was then and there before the said Court and the said Judge, as aforesaid, duly sworn by one then and there duly authorized then and there to administer to the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS the said oath, to wit, that the evidence which she, the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS should then and there give to the said Court, touching the matters then and there in question between the State of Maryland and the said Nathaniel Palmer, should be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, which said oath was then and there in the presence of the said Court and the Judge thereof duly administered to the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS, as aforesaid, and that at and upon the issues joined in said cause it then and there became and was a matter material to the issue in said cause whether the said Nathaniel Palmer did, on the eighteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, ~~did~~ draw a pistol and did point it at the said Nettie DeShields, and did attempt to shoot her, the said Nettie DeShields with said ^{pistol;} ~~gun~~ and to this, the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS, did then and there unlawfully, wilfully, falsely and corruptly testify and say, in substance and effect, that the said Nathaniel Palmer did not, on the eighteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, draw a pistol, and did not point it at her, the said Nettie DeShields, and did not attempt to shoot her, the said Nettie DeShields with said pistol;

Whereas, in truth and in fact, as she, the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS, then and there well knew ~~that~~ the said Nathaniel Palmer did, on the eighteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, draw a ^{pistol,} ~~gun~~ and did point it at the said Nettie DeShields, and did attempt to shoot her, the said Nettie DeShields with said pistol; contrary to the form of the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided and against the peace, government and dignity of the State.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do further present that on the eighteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, one Frederick A. Rohleder, then and there a Justice of the Peace of said State, in and for said City, duly selected by the Governor of said State to sit at the Station House of the Northeastern Police District of said City, was duly sitting at said Station House, and ~~that~~ then and there at a hearing before the said Frederick A. Rohleder, within the jurisdiction of the said Frederick A. Rohleder, of a charge duly made against one Nathaniel Palmer of unlawfully, on the eighteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, at the City of Baltimore, in and upon one Nettie DeShields making an assault, with intent her, the said Nettie DeShields, feloniously, wilfully and of malice aforethought to kill and murder, the said Nettie DeShields was then and there called as a witness, and was then and there in due form of law sworn by the said Frederick A. Rohleder, then and there having competent power and authority to administer to her, the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS, the said oath to speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, touching the charge then and there under examination by the said Frederick A. Rohleder;

Whereupon it then and there became and was a question material to the said inquiry whether the said Nathaniel Palmer did, on the eighteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, draw a ^{pistol} ~~gun~~ and did point it at the said Nettie DeShields, and did attempt to shoot her, the said Nettie DeShields with said ~~gun~~ pistol;

And to this the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS, did, on the said eighteenth day of September, in the said year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, testify and say, in substance and effect, that he, the said Nathaniel Palmer, did, on the eighteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, draw a ~~gun~~^{pistol} and did point it at her, the said Nettie DeShields, and did attempt to shoot her, the said Nettie DeShields with said pistol;

And that afterwards, to wit, on the sixth day of October, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, at the City and State aforesaid, before a Court of competent jurisdiction, to wit, the Criminal Court of Baltimore, in and for said City of Baltimore, the Honorable Carroll T. Bond, one of the Associate Judges of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City aforesaid, being then and there duly assigned to the said Criminal Court of Baltimore as Judge thereof, and then and there duly presiding therein as such, a certain issue whereof the said Court then and there had jurisdiction between the State of Maryland and one Nathaniel Palmer, wherein the said Nathaniel Palmer was charged with the crime of unlawfully, on the eighteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, at the City of Baltimore, in and upon one Nettie DeShields making an assault, with intent her, the said Nettie DeShields, feloniously, wilfully and of malice aforethought to kill and murder, which said cause and issue was then and there pending therein, then and there came on to be tried and determined, and that during the said trial of the said issue in the said Court and before the said Carroll T. Bond, then and there presiding therein as Judge thereof, as aforesaid, the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS was then and there called as a witness in said cause and issue by and on behalf of the State of Maryland, and was then and there before the said Court and the said Judge thereof, as aforesaid, duly sworn by one then and there duly authorized then and there to administer to the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS, the said oath, to wit, that the evidence which she, the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS, should then and there give to the said Court touching the matters then and there in question between the State of Maryland and the said Nathaniel Palmer, should be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, which said oath was then and there in the presence of the said Court and the Judge thereof, duly administered to the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS, as aforesaid;

And that at and upon the issues joined in said cause, it then and there became and was a matter material to the issue in said cause whether the said Nathaniel Palmer did, on the eighteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, draw a pistol and did point it at the said Nettie DeShields, and did attempt to shoot her, the said Nettie DeShields with said pistol;

And to this the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS, did then and there testify and say, in substance and effect, that the said Nathaniel Palmer did not, on the eighteenth day of September, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and twenty, draw a pistol, and did not point it at her, the said Nettie DeShields, and did not attempt to shoot her, the said Nettie DeShields with said pistol;

And so the Jurors aforesaid, on their oath aforesaid, do say that the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS, at the times aforesaid, to wit, on the eighteenth day of September, in the said year, and on the sixth day of October, in the said year, before the tribunals and under the circumstances, and in the manner aforesaid, unlawfully did wilfully, falsely and corruptly make oath to two contradictory statements;

Whereas, in truth and in fact, as she, the said NETTIE DeSHIELDS, at the said last two mentioned times well knew, one of the said two contradictory statements was, is, and must be wilful, false and corrupt; contrary to the form of the Act of Assembly in such case made and provided and against the peace, government and dignity of the State.
