In the

Vs.

City Court of

George W. Brown

Walter R. Langley

Baltimore City,

~~Trading as the Starlight Steamboat Company.~~

To the Honorable , the Judge of the aforesaid court: The plin tiff in the above entitled cause, a body corporate duly in corporated under the Laws of the State of Maryland, by its Attorney Robert G. I. Brown, sues the defendents George W. .
Brown, and Walter R. Langley,

(~~Trading under the name of the Starlight Steamboat Company~~),

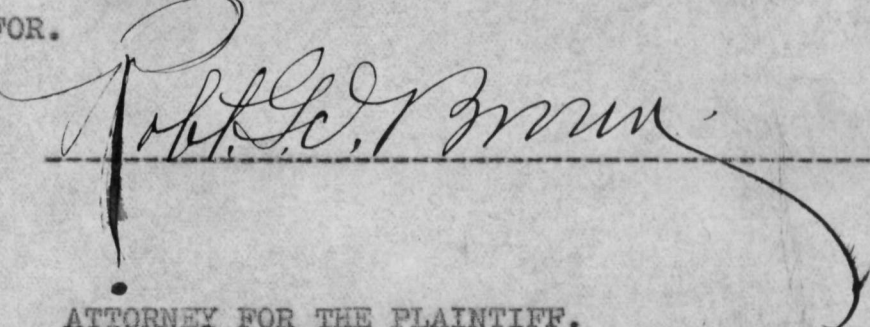

For That:

1.

The aforesaid defendents, or their agent, prior to the filing of this suit, entered into an oral contract with the plaintiff, a body corporate, to carry an excursion for them to Brown's Grove, on the 21st, day of July, 1919, and by the terms of the said contract, the plaintiff was to receive thirty per cent of the receipts form thee tickets taken from the passengers, who came aboard the aforesaid Star light, a Steam Boat, which the defendents used and is still using to carry passengers for hire on excursion from Baltimore City to the various points, or shores and particularly to Brown's Grove. The said plaintiff made a deposit with the defendents of fifteen dollars $15.00 to bind the bargain, which said deposit. was received by the defendent, upon the strenght of which the plaintiff procured music for the occasion, Paying a forfeit for the same, which forfeit the plaintiff has lost by the defendents refusal to carry out their rpart of the said contract, together with having gone to great expenses of advertising and making divers other contracts for the things necessary to make the Excursion a success. Demand has been made upon the defendents to carry out ^{their} ~~his~~ part of the said contract, on the day above named, the defendents carried another EXCURSION to Brown's Grove and refused to carry the plaintiff as per contract on their part to perform or on his part made and agreed to perform ~~to~~ the humiliation, chagrin, and great damage to the plaintiff in this cause.

WHEREFORE THE PLAINTIFF CLAIMS TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS DAMAGES. THEREFOR.

ATTORNEY FOR THE PLAINTIFF.
