TO THE HONORABLE THE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

YOUR ORATOR, COMPLAINING, SAYS:

FIRST: That heretofore Daniel Boley, husband of your oratrix, filed his bill of complaint against her in this Court, alleging among other things that your oratrix had on divers days and times since their marriage, committed the crime of adultery with one William Kelly and thereupon, said Daniel Boley prayed that he might be divorced a vinculo matrimonii from your oratrix.

SECOND: That your oratrix has answered said Daniel Boley's bill of complaint and in answer has shown that the said Daniel Boley is not entitled to any relief in this Court, but, on the contrary thereof, your oratrix, of right and by the rule and practice of equity ought to have relief in the premises, all of which matters will more fully appear by reference to said bill and answer.

THIRD: That prior to the time when it is alleged in the said plaintiff's bill, that your oratrix had committed adultery, he, the said Daniel Boley had treated your oratrix with great cruelty and violence and that he has on divers days and times, since their marriage, committed the crime of adultery with personB unknown to your oratrix, and that in other ways during the time that they lived together made life most unpleasant and unhappy for your oratrix.

FOURTH: That two children were "born of said marriage, Evelyn and Daniel, and that your Oratrix desires the care and custody of said infant children.

FIFTH: That your Oratrix has not lived or co-habited with the said Daniel Boley, since the discovery of the ? aforesaid adultries ani that she has conducted herself as a faithful, chaste and affectionate wife towards her said husband.

SIXTH: That the said Daniel Boley is sufficiently able to support and maintain his minor children and that his earnings fully justify the same.

TO THE END, THEREFORE:

(1) That your oratrix may be divorced a vinculo matrimonii from the said Daniel Boley, her husband.

(E) That she may have the care and custody of their monir children, #velyn and Daniel Boley , and that the said Daniel Boley contribute a fixed sum per week, for their maintenance and support.

(3) That she may have other and further relief as her case may require.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOR to grant unto your oratrix the writ of subpeona, directed to the said DANIEL BOLEY residing in the City of Baltimore, commanding him to be and appear, in this Court o# some certain day, to be named therein, and answer the premises and abide by and perform such decree as may be passed therein.

To The Honorable,, The Judge of Said Court:

The ANSWER of the Plaintiff to the application of the Defendant for alimony pendente lite and counsel fees respectfully sets forth:

FIRST: That he is utterly onable to comply with the order nisi passed in this case on the 1st day of October, 1917, requiring him to pay unto the Defendant the sum of Fifteen Dollars as a Counsel Fee, and the further sum of Five Dollars per week as alimony pendente lite, as he is only earning the sum of $8*00 per week and finds this sum "barely sufficient to meet his most pressing needs. That he prays he may have his day in Court, whereby he may be afforded an opportunity to show that the said Defendant is not entitled to any relief in the premises.

Having ANSWERED said application as fully as he is advised is necessary or material, he prays the same may be hence dismissed.
