OF

FINKELS LADIES READY TO WEAR STORE

BALTIMORE CITY.

Sarah Clark, aunt and next friend of Lithia Reid, infant plaintiff, by J. Steward Davis and George W. Evans her attorneys, sues the Finkels Ladies Ready to Wear Store.

For that the defendant on to wit: the 12th day of Feb. 1924 was a Ladies ready to wear store doing business at 605 N. Broadway, Baltimore City.

That the plaintiff to wit on the 12th day of February 1924 entered the aforesaid store of the defendant for the purpose of purchasing some articles. That the defendant by its servants or employees, assaulted the plaintiff, gave her into the custody of an officer and caused her to be imprisoned in the Eastern Police Station.

That on the 12th day of February 1924 the defendant ^{its agents} ^{its servants} ^{or employees} falsely stated to an officer of the law of Baltimore City that the plaintiff had committed the crime of larceny and procured her arrest by charging her with larceny of some goods of the defendant's; that the plaintiff was arrested upon said charge and brought before Joseph J. Rettaliata one of the police Justices of Baltimore City for the Eastern District. That the defendant ^{its agents, servants or employees} appeared before said Magistrate and falsely stated that the plaintiff had committed the crime of larceny; that the said charge was in fact false and the plaintiff on the hearing thereof at said Station was acquitted and discharged; ^{its agents, servants or employees} that the defendant made said charge from motives of malice; that there was no reasonable or probable cause for said prosecution, that the said prosecution has injured the plaintiffs reputation and the plaintiff has also by reason of said premises been otherwise greatly damaged and injured in the loss of the hospitality of her associates and other circumstances.

WHEREFORE the plaintiff claims $5000.00 damages.

PLAINTIFF'S sixth PRAYER

The term of "Malice" in this form of action is not to be considered in the sense of spite or hatred against an individual, but of malus animus and as denoting that the party is actuated by improper and indirect motives.

Refused

Defendants / prayer.

The defendants pray the Court to instruct the jury that under the pleadings in this cause there is no evidence in this cause legally sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to recover.

Refused

Defendants ^{2nd} prayer.

The defendant prays the Court to instruct the jury that the plaintiff has offered no legally sufficient evidence of want of probable cause against the defendant for the alleged malicious prosecution or false arrest, and that therefore the plaintiff is not entitled to recover, and that their verdict must be for the defendants.

Refused

Defendants

3rd -

prayer.

The defendants pray the Court to instruct the jury that there is no evidence in the cause legally sufficient to establish malice and want of probable cause upon the part of the defendants against the plaintiff in the arrest and prosecution of the plaintiff as set forth in the declaration; and their verdict must therefore be for the defendants.

Refused

Prayer.

Defendants

The defendants pray the Court to instruct the jury that there is no evidence in the case legally sufficient to establish malice and want of probable cause upon the part of the defendants against the plaintiff in the arrest and prosecution of the plaintiff as set forth in the declaration; and their verdict must therefore be for the defendants.

[Handwritten signatures and scribbles]

PLAINTIFF'S FOURTH PRAYER

The Plaintiff prays the Court to instruct the Jury that if they shall find a verdict for the plaintiff, they are at liberty to take into consideration all the circumstances of the case and award such damages as will ~~not only~~ compensate the plaintiff for the wrong and indignity she has sustained in consequence of the defendant's wrongful acts, ~~but may also award exemplary or punitive damages as a punishment to the defendant for such wrongful acts.~~

Granted

PLAINTIFF'S FIFTH PRAYER.

The Jury is instructed that any deprivation of liberty of another, without his consent for any length of time, whether it be by actual violence, threats or otherwise constitutes an imprisonment within the meaning of the law.

Granted

Defendant's 4th prayer

The Defendant prays the Court to instruct the Jury that if they shall find from the Evidence that the plaintiff's arrest was caused by a person other than the Defendant, and without the Defendant's knowledge or consent, if the Jury shall so find, then the verdict of the Jury must be for the Defendant, if the Jury shall find from the Evidence that the person causing the Plaintiff's arrest, was not acting within the scope of any authority conferred upon him by the Defendant, unless the Jury shall find that the action of Miss Levin in causing ~~Grant's~~ the arrest of the Plaintiff was ratified by the Defendant. Granted

PLAINTIFF'S FIRST PRAYER.

The Plaintiff prays the court to instruct the Jury that if the Jury shall find from the evidence that the plaintiff was arrested and dismissed by the Magistrate at the Eastern Police Station on the charge ^{of larceny} ~~set forth in the record of that Court and the docket entries read in evidence;~~ and shall find that the defendant aided and assisted in procuring the arrest and prosecution of the plaintiff under such circumstances as would not have induced a reasonable and dispassionate man to have undertaken such prosecution ~~from public motives,~~ then there was no probable cause for said prosecution and the Jury ~~may infer in the absence of sufficient proof to satisfy them to the contrary,~~ that said ~~prosecution was malicious in law and their verdict may be for the plaintiff.~~ verdict of the Jury should be for the plaintiff. Granted

PLAINTIFF'S SEVENTH PRAYER.

The Court is requested to instruct the Jury that if it finds that Miss Levin was employed by the defendant ~~and if they so find and further find that she acted as the agent of the defendant in ordering the arrest of the plaintiff and if they so find and further find that the defendant, Finkel, subsequently~~ ratified the action of Miss Levin, then they ^{shall} ~~may~~ find for the plaintiff.

Granted

PLAINTIFF'S THIRD PRAYER

The Jury is instructed that probable cause is such reasonable ground of suspicion supported by circumstances sufficiently strong in themselves to warrant a cautious man in believing the party accused to be guilty.

BALTIMORE CITY.

The Plaintiff, Sarah Clark, aunt and next friend of Lithia Reid, infant, by J. Steward Davis and George W. Evans her attorneys says, that on or about the 28 day of Feb 1924, she filed suit in this honorable Court against Joseph Finkel, trading as Finkel Ladies' Ready to Wear Store, and the plaintiff prays leave to amend the declaration that Morris Hamburger may be made a party defendant, and that the Clerk of the Court be directed to issue against said Morris Hamburger, making summons returnable the next return day; that the declaration may be as follows:

Sarah Clark, aunt and next friend of Lithia Reid, infant, by J. Steward Davis and George W. Evans her attorneys, sues Joseph Finkel, trading as Finkel Ladies' Ready to Wear Store and Morris Hamburger.

For that on, to wit; the 12th day of February, 1924
Joseph Finkel was trading as Finkel Ladies' Ready to Wear Store at 605 N. Broadway, Baltimore City. That the plaintiff, to wit, on the 12th day of February 1924 entered the aforesaid store for the purpose of purchasing some articles. That the defendants, their agents, servants or employees accused the plaintiff of larceny, gave her into the custody of an officer and caused her to be imprisoned at the Eastern Police Station.

That on the 12th day of February, 1924, the defendants, their agents, servants or employees, falsely stated to an officer of the law of Baltimore City that the plaintiff had committed the crime of larceny of some goods and procured her arrest by charging her with said crime of larceny of some goods of one of the defendants; that the plaintiff was arrested upon said charge and brought before Joseph J. Rettaliata, one of the Police Justices of Baltimore City for the Eastern District. That the defendants, their agents, servants or employees, appeared before said Magistrate and falsely stated that the plaintiff had committed the crime of larceny; that the said charge was in fact, false, and the plaintiff on the hearing thereof at said station, was acquitted and discharged; that the defendants, their agents, servants or employees made the charge from motives of malice; that there was no reasonable or probable cause for said prosecution. That the said prosecution has injured the plaintiff's reputation and credit and the plaintiff has also by reason of the said premises, been otherwise greatly damaged and injured in the loss of the hospitality of her associates, and other circumstances.

WHEREFORE the plaintiff claims $5,000.00 damages.
