J. STEWARD DAVIS

ATTORNEY AT LAW

118 E. LEXINGTON STREET

BALTIMORE, MD.

H S Ward 19m

Mary Dilver

In The Circuit Court

vs.

William Dilver

Baltimore City.

To The Honorable, The Judge of Said Court:

Your Oratrix, complaining, respectfully states:

FIRST, That the parties hereto, were married March 4th. 1907 in Baltimore, Md. by Rev. Jones a Baptist minister; and they lived together as man and wife until the 15th. day of September, 1915.

SECOND, That Your Oratrix is a resident of the city of Baltimore, state of Maryland, and has been for more than two years prior to the filing of this bill of complaint. That the respondent is also a resident of the city of Baltimore, state of Maryland.

THIRD, That though the conduct of your Oratrix toward her husband has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach; he without any just cause or reason was extremely cruel and barbarous to your Oratrix. On one occasion knocking her tooth out; that he not only refuse to support your Oratrix but forcibly took her money for his own support; that upon divers times and occasions he had committed adultery with several lewd and abandoned women whose names are unknown to your Oratrix; thus forcing your Oratrix to leave him; that said desertion of respondent has continued uninterruptedly for more than three years prior to this filing of this Bill of complaint and was delivered and final and beyond any reasonable hope or expectation of reconciliation.

FOURTH, That Your Oratrix has never condoned nor forgiven the said desertion, that she has never co-habited with the said respondent since the said desertion.

FIFTH, That there is one minor child, Walter, 12 years old. born of the parties to this suit.

SIXTH, That Your Oratrix is without the means to defray the expenses of this litigation and that the defendant is employed, earning about $30 per week, and she is advised by counsel that she is entitled to have an order passed by This Honorable Court, awarding her a certain sum as alimony during the progress of this suit, permanent alimony for the support of the aforesaid minor child, and a further sum to compensate her solicitor for his services in the cause.

WHEREFORE YOUR ORATRIX PRAYS:

a-That a decree be passed, divorcing Your Oratrix from the respondent, a vinculo matrimonii.

b-Permanent for the support of herself and minor child.

c-Such other and further relief as the case may require, including alimony pendente lite and counsel fee in such sums as this Honorable Court may think proper.

May it please Your Honor to grant unto Your Oratrix a writ of subpoena, directed unto said defendant, commanding him to be or appear in this Court on some day certain, to be named therein, to perform such decree as may be passed in the premises.

As in duty bound etc.
