TO THE HONORABLE
THE JUDGES OF SAID COURT

The Petition of Warren S. Lloyd, Administrator, respectfully represents unto Your Honors:

ONE

That on or about the 18th day of August, 1925, Your Petitioner was appointed Administrator of the Estate of George Mason, late of Baltimore City, deceased, by this Honorable Court and that he has filed his approved bond and entered into his duties as Administrator; that due notice was given to creditors to file their claims and that no claims have been filed; that the Inventory shows the estate to be valued at Seven thousand five hundred seventy dollars ($7,570.00).

TWO

That Your Petitioner has been informed that the said decedent died leaving as his next of kin a widow, namely, Vineta Mason, and one sister, namely, Sadie Johnson, who was last heard from in Atlantic City, New Jersey; that Your Petitioner has for some time endeavored to get information in regard to the whereabouts of the said sister and whether she be living or dead but without success; that Your Petitioner apprehends that there may be persons living who are unknown to him whom he has not been able to locate, who may be entitled to a share in the said estate or whose rights may be effected by a distribution of the said estate; that Your Petitioner requests this Honorable Court to assume jurisdiction over the distribution of the said estate and to have due notice given to all of the parties above named and also to any unknown persons whether residents or non residents of this State, who may have any claim or who may be entitled to participate in such distribution or who have any rights that may be effected thereby.

YOUR PETITIONER THEREFORE PRAYS that this Honorable Court pass an Order appointing a date for meeting of all persons entitled to participate in the distribution of said estate in order that distribution may be made as this Court shall deem proper and that notice thereof may be given in accordance with the statute providing for such distribution by a summons to the known parties within the State who might have any possible claim to participate therein, namely, Vineta Mason, 2412 Druid Hill Avenue, Baltimore, Maryland, and by publication to the known parties who are non residents of this State, namely, Sadie Johnson, Atlantic City, New Jersey, as well as to all persons either known or unknown and whether residents or non residents of this State who may have any possible claim to participate in such distribution as next of kin of the said George Mason, deceased.

AND AS IN DUTY BOUND, ETC.
