said street car ran into and struck against the automobile of said Joseph Dorsey in which the plaintiff was a passenger, and as a result thereof the plaintiff was greatly injured and damaged and she became and was sick, sore, lame and disordered and so remained for a long time during all of which time she was forced to and did spend divers sums of money in endeavoring to cure herself of her hurts and wounds occasioned as aforesaid.

And the plaintiff says that her injuries and damages were caused by the negligence and want of due care on the part of the defendant, its servants, agents, or employees and she in no wise contributed directly thereto.
