vs.

JOHN YOFFEE and NATHAN WALPERT

COURT

John Chambers, plaintiff, by his attorneys, Davis, and Evans, sues John Yoffee and Nathan Walpert.

For that Christine Chambers is the wife of John Chambers, plaintiff. That on or about the 29th day of June, I926 while the said Christine Chambers was legally crossing a public highway of Beltimore City, State of Maryland, at the intersection of Division and Laurens Streets, both public highways of Baltimore City, State of Maryland, she was struck by the automobile of John Yoffee as a result of reckless and negligent manner that the defendants, John Yoffee and Nathan Walpert, or either of them operated their automobile.

The plaintiff says, that as a result of the defendants having negligently and recklessly operated their automobile, the said Christine Chambers was thrown down against the street with great force and violence and she was seriously injured about the head, limbs and body and she became and was sick, sore, lame and disordered and remained so for a long time, to wit; from thence hitherto, during all of which time the plaintiff was deprived of the service and society of his wife and was forced to and did spend divers sums of money in attempting to cure her of her hurts and wounds occassioned as aforesaid.

And the plaintiff says that all of Christine Chambers' injuries and his damages suffered as a result thereof, were caused by the negligence, carelessness and want of due care on the part of the defendants or either of them, their servants, agents or employees or either of them and that neither he nor Christine Chambers contributed thereto. WHEREFORE the plaintiff claims $5,000 damages.
