BALTIMORE, MD.

Lennie King

In The City Court

vs.

Sheridan McLees trading as Broadway Dental Parlors.

Baltimore City.

Lennie King by her attorney J. Steward Davis sues Sheridan McLees trading as Broadway Dental Parlors, which Sheridan McLees conducts an establishment in the city of Baltimore Md. for the practice of professional dentistry. And that on or about the 20th. day of November 1920, the said Lennie King applied to the said Sheridan McLess, his agents and servants for the extraction of one of her teeth and the said defendant accepted the said Lennie King as a patient, for which the said Lennie King paid the defendant, his agents or servants, and in the performance of the said extraction, the said defendant, his agents or servants did negligently and carelessly extract said tooth and directly caused the jaw bone of the said plaintiff to be fractured, causing her great damage and suffering without any negligence on the part of the plaintiff thereto contributing

And the plaintiff claims $10,000 damage.

Attorney For Plaintiff.

The plaintiff elects to have her cause drawn before the Jury.

DEFENDANT'S SECOND PRAYER.

The Court instructs the Jury that as the declaration does not allege negligence of the defendant causing the infection of the plaintiff's mouth, they cannot render a verdict for the plaintiff based upon testimony regarding such infection, whether they believe it to be true or false.

COURT'S ^{1st} INSTRUCTION AT DEFENDANT'S REQUEST.

The Court instructs the Jury that there is no evidence in this case legally sufficient to prove that the injury alleged to have been suffered by the plaintiff was caused by any negligence on the part of the defendant.
