COURT

Rassie McCoy, Sr. by Davis and Evans his attorneys, sues
Joseph Hendrix:

I. For that Rassie McCoy Sr. is the father of Rassie McCoy Jr. an infant. That heretofore, to wit on or about the 4th day of June, 1924 while the defendant was driving his automobile along and upon a certain public highway of Baltimore City at or near to the intersection of George St. with Brune Street, both public highways of Baltimore City, State of Maryland, he ran into and struck against the infant son of the plaintiff with great force and violence and as a result thereof, the said Rassie McCoy, Jr. infant became and was sick, sore, lame and disordered and so remained for a long time during all of which time the plaintiff was deprived of the services and society of his son and was forced to and did spend divers sums of money in attempting to cure his son of his hurts and wounds occasioned as aforesaid and the plaintiff says that all of his injuries and damages occasioned as aforesaid were caused by the negligence and want of due care on the part of the defendant and that the said Rassie McCoy, Jr., infant in no wise contributed thereto.

WHEREFORE the plaintiff claims $5,000.00 damages.
