IN THE
COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
OF BALTIMORE CITY.

Edward Monroe plaintiff, by Davis and Evans, his attorneys, sues Harry Schaffer and Olivia Tranheiser.

To that on or about the 8th day of August 1925, while the plaintiff was driving his motorcycle along upon Washington Road, in a westerly direction, he was struck by an automobile owned by Olivia Tranheiser one of the defendants and operated by the other defendant, Harry Schaffer, chauffeur of Olivia Tranheiser, which automobile was being driven along and upon said Washington Road in an easterly direction, in a reckless manner.

That the said Harry Schaffer is the servant, agent or employee of the defendant Olivia Tranheiser.

And the plaintiff says that as a result of the negligence of the defendants or either of them in the operation of the automobile as aforesaid his motorcycle was badly damaged and he has been forced to spend divers sums of money in attempting to repair said damages.

And the plaintiff says that all of his aforesaid injuries and damages were caused by the negligence and want of due care on the part of the defendants or either of them and that he in no wise contributed thereto,

Wherefore suit is brought and plaintiff claims $500.00
