BALTIMORE CITY COURT

---

Druey S. Paschal, plaintiff by J. Steward Davis and George W. Evans his attorneys, sues the Baltimore Black Sox Base Ball and Exhibition Club, a body corporate.

That the defendant on the 25th day of August, 1923 was a base ball and exhibition club and engaged in the playing of a base ball game in the Ball Park of the defendant. That on said date the plaintiff bought of the defendant a ticket entitling him admission to the said ball game, and thereupon he entered the defendant's ball park and became a spectator at the game; that while he was such a spectator, one George Britt, who was in the employ of the defendant as a ball player and in the performance of his duties to the defendant corporation, negligently threw a base ball into the stands striking the plaintiff whereby the plaintiff was greatly injured.

AND the plaintiff claims therefor $5000.00.
