BRAGER'S, : BALTIMORE CITY COURT
a corporation.

---

Lillie Pue by her attorney, J. Steward Davis, sues Brager's, a corporation of the City of Baltimore, State of Maryland, for that on or about the 18th day of September, 1922, the said corporation, or its agents or servants did falsely imprison the plaintiff for the larceny of an umbrella, which umbrella the plaintiff had purchased from the defendant corporation; that the plaintiff was forced to go to an office in the building occupied by the defendant corporation, despite the plaintiff's protest; by reason of which the plaintiff has been greatly injured in her credit and reputation and brought into public scandal, infamy and disgrace with and amongst her neighbors; and also the plaintiff has by reason of said premises, suffered great anxiety and pain of body and mind; and that by reason of said premises hath been otherwise greatly damaged and injured; and the plaintiff claims five thousand ($5000) dollars damages therefore.
