BALTIMORE CITY COURT

Vernon Suggs by his father and next friend, through his Attorney, J. Steward Davis, sues Benjamin Spiro and Rosa Freedman for:

That at a session of the Juvenile Court of Baltimore City, begun and held at the Court house in the City of Baltimore on or about the second day of February, 1922 for trial of offenses committed by minors less than sixteen years of age in said City, the said defendants falsely and maliciously and without any reasonable or probable cause whatever, ~~the defendants~~ caused or procured the arrest of the aforesaid Vernon Suggs, infant for the larceny of a bag valued at twenty dollars and for the larceny of sixty dollars U.S. current money, it being alleged that said sixty dollars U.S. current money was contained in aforementioned bag, said bag and money being alleged to be the property of Rosa Freedman. And the Plaintiff further alleges that the said Vernon Suggs, infant was arrested on or about the first day of February, 1922 and that as a result of the defendants' charges, which charges were false and malicious and without probable cause, the said Charles Suggs, infant, was compelled to spend the night in custody at the Northeastern Police Station, City of Baltimore; and the Plaintiff further says that the defendants falsely and maliciously and without probable cause prosecuted and caused to be prosecuted the aforementioned charge of larceny against the said Vernon Suggs, until the said Vernon Suggs afterwards on or about the second day of February, 1922 at the Juvenile Court for Baltimore City was in due manner and course of law dismissed by the said Court of the aforementioned charges of larceny and the said Vernon Suggs by reason of said premises, the said Vernon Suggs hath been and is greatly injured in his credit and reputation and brought into public scandal, infamy and disgrace with and amongst all his neighbors and other good and worthy people and divers of those neighbors and people to whom his innocence in the premises was unknown, have, on the occasion of the premises, suspected and believed and still do suspect and believe that, he the said Vernon Suggs hath been and is guilty of [^]crime and misdemeanor, and also the said Vernon Suggs hath by reason of the premises, suffered great anxiety and pain of body and mind and hath been greatly hindered by reason of said premises from following and transacting business and affairs and hath also by reason of the said premises been otherwise greatly damaged and injured in his credit and circumstances.

WHEREFORE the said Vernon Suggs, infant claims $10,000 damages.
