Dr. John C. Robinson)

Moses Zalis by Louis Hollander and Louis Binder his attorneys, sues Dr. John C. Robinson for money payable by the defendant to the plaintiff.

For that on the 22nd. day of January, 1920, the defendant by Raymond A. Sinskey & Co. his duly authorized agent agreed with the plaintiff in writing that in consideration of the sum of Forty hundred and twenty-five ($4025)dollars, One hundred ($100)dollars of which was paid at once and the balance payable on March 22, 1920, that he would execute to the plaintiff a good and sufficient deed at the expense of the vendee, of seven lots and improvements lying in Baltimore City, State of Maryland, and known as 440, 442, 444, 446, 448, 450, and 452 Fawcett Street, and convey the same by a good and merchantable title. And the plaintiff agreed to purchase of the defendant, the property at the aforesaid price on the above named terms. That before March 22, 1920, and again before the institution of this suit, the plaintiff was ready and willing and offered to the defendant to pay the balance due under said agreement and duly to perform all his promises under said agreement upon the like performance by the defendant.

That the defendant has refused to carry out the said agreement.

And the Plaintiff claims One thousand ($1000)damages.
