

$3,528, ($21 per acre.)

Mr. Francis D. Gildea, a well-known builder, died yesterday at his son-in-law's, 138 Fremont street, in his sixty-sixth year. Mr. Gildea was a bricklayer by trade. He put up a number of important buildings, such as the Baltimore City College, the Hebrew Orphan Asylum, male grammar school No. 1, besides numerous private dwellings. He leaves a widow, three sons and two daughters.

Damage Suits—In the Court of Common