

ceding were considerably shaken up.

Mr. Francis D. Gildea, the well-known builder, who died on Sunday at his residence, 138 Fremont street, was lieutenant of the night watch at the old western police station, which stood on Greene street, near Baltimore street, for six years. He was appointed by Mayor Law, and retained the position until he resigned.

House-Painters' Meeting.—At a meeting