SUITE 808-9 FIDELITY BUILDING
CHARLES AND LEXINGTON STS.
BALTIMORE, MD.

June 26, 1913.

Mr. C. C. Magruder,
Court of Appeals Building,
Annapolis, Md.

Dear Sir:-

I beg to enclose you herewith an order requesting that an execution be issued against the B. & O. R. R. Company for the costs in the case of Henry F. Walters et al vs. Baltimore & Ohio R. R. Company et al, No. 74, January Term 1913.

I have talked to Mr. Brent about the matter and the only way he will pay the costs is by my having the execution issued. His reason for taking this position is that the city has declined to pay any part of the costs notwithstanding the opinion in the case, and as I am unable to execute upon the city, the B. & O. contends it can only protect itself in its rights against the city by having execution issued. I think this position is entirely correct and we are anxious to have the costs paid, so I wish you would please issue execution so that it may be settled.

Awaiting your favor, I am,

Very truly yours,

Edward L. Ward
