In Chancery August 18, 1796

On the petition of Thomas Debson, creditor of Stephen Clark, an insolvent debtor, it is ordered, that Joseph Clark, trustee for the benefit of the said Stephen's creditors, forthwith make a return of the sale, by him made of the said Stephens property, and of all his proceedings as trustee aforesaid.

Petition of the Trustee

Filed Oct. 1, 1892

To the Honorable Chancellor of Maryland

The Petition of Joseph Clarke ~~the~~ Trustee of Stephen Clarke, an insolvent Debtor of the City of Annapolis.

Humbly sheweth that the said Stephen Clarke hath mortgaged sundry property unto the said Joseph Clarke to indemnify him in a certain Debt and a security to a Mr. Stephen Wilson And whereas it is necessary that the whole of the property so mortgaged and all other ~~of~~ the said Stephen Clarke be sold as well for the Benefit of the Creditors as the Mortgage thereof your Petitioner solicits your Honours to direct him what mode he shall pursue in the sales of the said property as well that as is mortgaged to him, as that ~~the same~~ ~~may be made in your petitioners name~~
~~by your Honours in any manner~~

Joseph Clarke

~~October 2 1792~~

He is willing, that the said property, to him mortgaged, be sold on such terms, as to the Chancellor shall seem reasonable; provided the product of the sale be applied in the first place to the discharge of the mortgage and then to the benefit of the creditors;
and prays that the Chancellor will order accordingly.

17898-1817-1

To The Honorable the Chancellor of Maryland.

The Petition of Stephen Clark of the City of Annapolis

Assembly Now sitting

That your Petitioner from unavoidable Issues in Trade is Became Incapable of paying his Debts and in consequence thereof Petitioned the Last General Assembly to pass an Act to Exonerate him from Debts he was unable to pay: and the Last General Assembly with their Clemency on his Petition did include your Petitioner among other Insolvent petitioners in an Act they passed for that purpose to Relieve Insolvent Debtors on condition they delivered up all their Property of Every Kind: Provided it met with the Approbation of your Honor: your Petitioner herewith delivers a Schedule of his Property and a List of his Creditors - which he will deliver to the Court thereof to your Honor. and prays you to admit him to the Relief that the Act sets forth - and your Petitioner as in Duty Bound will Pray -

Howe

Manys know all Men by these presents that I Joseph Clark of Anne Arundel County am held and firmly bound unto Luther Martin Esquire in Trust for the Creditors of Stephen Clark of Anne Arundel County in the full and just sum of three thousand pounds Current money to be paid to the said Luther Martin, To the which payment well and truly to be made and done I bind myself my Heirs Executors and Administrators jointly severally and firmly by these presents sealed with my Seal and Dated this Nineteenth Day of September — seventeen hundred and ninety two. Whereas the above named Joseph Clark hath been appointed by the Honourable Alexander Coote Esquire Chancellor of the said State Trustee on behalf of the Creditors of Stephen Clark an Insolvent Debtor Now the Condition of the above Obligation is such that if the above bound Joseph Clark shall faithfully and duly execute and perform the several powers and Trusts reposed in him and in all things well and truly fulfill and execute his duty and office as Trustee for the Creditors of the said Stephen Clark an Insolvent Debtor then the above Obligation to be void otherwise to remain in full force and Virtue.
