Hanson, Samuel

HANSON, Robert (c1680-1748). His sister Mary, b. c1683; d. Port Tobacco, Chas. Co., 26 Sept. 1773, ae. about 90; Rev. William Maconchie was probably b. well before 1710; he d.s.p. 1742; Rev. Theophilus Swift d.s.p. Phila., Penna., April 1762, was also rector at Port Tobacco Parish, Chas. Co. Hanson's sister Sarah Hanson probably m. as his 2nd wife Joseph Douglass (c1674-1756), son of John Douglass (c1636-c1678/79); Hanson's dau. Dorothy Hanson (1721-1752) m. Richard Harrison (1716-1780); his dau. Sarah Hanson m. Gerard Fowke (c1724-1783), grandson of Gerard Fowke (1662/63-c1734/35) and Thomas Stone (1677-1727) and great grandson of Gerard Fowke (1625-1669); his step-dau. Mary Hoskins m. (1) John Cunningham (d. Chas. Co. 1750) and (2) as his 2nd wife Mungo Muschett (d. Chas. Co. 1768).

HANSON, Samuel (c1685-1740). His dau. Elizabeth Hanson (1707- ) m. Benjamin Douglass (c1711-1747), great-grandson of John Douglass (c1636-c1678/79) and great-great-grandson of Philip Land (c1608-c1659). Did dau. Sarah Hanson (1714- ) m. David Stone (c1708-1773)? Dau. Charity Hanson's dates were 1724-1755.

→ HANSON, Samuel (1716-1794). His 2nd wife Anne Brown was dau. of Dr. Gustavus Brown (1689-1762) and his wife Frances Fowke (1691-1744), and granddaughter of Gerard Fowke (1662/63-c1734/35) and great granddau. of Gerard Fowke (1625-1669), and great-great-granddau. of Job Chandler (d. 1659). Anne Brown's 1st husband Rev. Samuel Claggett d. Chas. Co. 1756. Hanson's son Thomas Hawkins Hanson (1750-1810) m. P.G. Co., 2 Mar. 1778 Rebecca (Dulany) Addison, widow of Thomas Addison (d. 1774) son of John Addison (1713-1764); Hanson's dau. Eleanor Hanson was b. c1769; d. 20 Jul. 1796, ae. 29; dau. Anna Hanson was b. c1766; d. at "Poplar Hill", seat of George Lee, in Chas. Co., 13 Jan. 1793, ae. 27.

HANSON, Samuel, Jr. (d. 1817). He m. (2) Sarah Marshall, dau. of Thomas Marshall, and widow of Basil Beall (d. 1792), in P.G. Co., 9 Jun. 1795.

HANSON, Samuel of Samuel (c1752-1830). He m. Phila., Penna., 29 Apr. 1777 Mary Key; their dau. Louisa Serena Hanson who m. Wash. D.C., 5 May 1814, Roger Chew Weightman, was undoubtedly mother of Richard Hanson Weightman (1816-1861), the first member of the U.S. House of Representatives from New Mexico 1851-1853.

HANSON, Walter (1711/12-1794). Walter Hanson evidently had a wife before Elizabeth Hoskins. She (Hoskins) was b. c1721 and probably could not have m. before 1736. She certainly, therefore, was not the mother of Hanson's daughter Elizabeth who was b. c1732 when Elizabeth Hoskins was only 11 years old. I suspect that Hanson's first wife - whom he must have m. c1731 - was probably a member of the Dent family and a dau. or sister of a Warren Dent. Hanson's children should probably be as follows:

EXCURSUS—MITCHELSON OF MIDDLETON.

The surname of MITCHELSON is local, and was assumed by the proprietors of the lands and barony of Mitchelson many centuries ago. They were designed Mitchelson's deodem, or of that ilk, and this family was possessed of Ludgate, Blackhaugh, &c., before they purchased the estate of Middleton, but these lands of Mitchelson have probably been held of the Archbishop of St. Andrew's, who was superior of a great many lands in that part of the country, or of some other subject superior, for no charter thereof is to be found in the record of the great seal. The first charter that appears in the general register in favor of this family is a charter under the great seal to "Andreæ Mitchelson, servitori regis, et stabul. famulo et haeredibus masculis e corpore sua legitime procreat," &c., &c., &c., dated Nov. 2, 1540. Douglas' Baronage of Scotland, from whom this Excursus is taken, says (p. 321):

The immediate ancestor of this family was—

1. ROBERT<sup>1</sup> MITCHELSON, proprietor of lands in the Co. of Selkirk, temp James V. (1513.) He got a charter from David Home, of Wedderburn, the superior of the lands of Middlestead, Windydoors, Blackhaugh, &c., Selkirkshire, afterwards confirmed by charter under the great seal, June 9, 1550. He d. temp Mary, 1558 (?). He was suc. by his son—
2. ALEXANDER<sup>2</sup> MITCHELSON, who added to his father's lands half the lands of Carsehope, Co. of Edinburgh, by charter from James, Lord Borthwick, in which he is called "Alexander filio quondam Roberti Mitchelson," &c., Sep. 5, 1593. His charter from Sir Geo. Home, 1600, was confirmed Dec. 16, 1606. He was suc. by—
3. JOHN<sup>3</sup> MITCHELSON, 1st Baron of Middleton, who acquired the lands of Middleton, which has since been the chief title of the family. He got by charter from Lord Borthwick, upon resignation of Alex'r Mitchelson, one-half the lands of Carsehope, Feb. 22, 1600, he having acquired the other half before. He bought the lands of Wester Middleton, Borthwick parish, from Geo. Haliburton; also lands of Meggotscroft of Middleton from Wm. Meggott, and took the rights of Meggotscroft to himself in life rent, and to Andrew, his 3d son, in fee, &c., 1603. He d. 1613. He had—4. John,<sup>4</sup> his heir, 2d Baron. 5. James. 6. Andrew, who received Meggotscroft, but d. s. p. 7. Samuel who carried on the line of his family. John Mitchelson was suc. by his eldest son—
4. JOHN<sup>4</sup> MITCHELSON, 2d Baron of Middleton, who was served heir to the above John, his father, in lands of Wester Middleton, &c., Nov. 28, 1615; d. s. p. 1620. Was suc. by his brother—
5. JAMES<sup>4</sup> MITCHELSON, Esq., Baron of Middleton, who was returned heir to his brother Mar. 7, 1621; got charter of Wester Middleton from John Hay, Lord Yester, same day, and in same year became heir of his brother Andrew in Meggotscroft. He was suc. by his son, 1627.
8. JOHN<sup>5</sup> MITCHELSON, of Middleton, who d. s. p., and was suc. by his uncle—
7. SAMUEL<sup>4</sup> MITCHELSON, of Middleton, Esq., 4th son of John, 1st Baron of M. He was returned heir in special to his eldest son, John, June 8, 1647; m. Isabel, dau. of George Pringle, of Haltree, and had 2 sons and 3 daughters, one of whom m. John Inglis, of Mannerhead, of Inglis, A. D. 1296. 9. John, his heir. 10. James, to whom he gave Howlatston in parish of Stow (probably the father of George Mitchelson, whose dau. Jane m. Gustavus Brown). He was suc. by his son—
9. JOHN<sup>5</sup> MITCHELSON, of Middleton, who was invested as heir to his father, Samuel, by Robert, Viscount Oxenford, July 2, 1674; acquired lands of Easter Middleton in life rent, and in fee to his eldest son, John, Feb. 21, 1685; m. Mary, dau. of Sir John Veitch, of Dawick, and had 6 sons and 3 daus. 11. John, his heir. 12. Samuel, d. s. 13. James, m. Agnes Crosbie, dau. of John Crosbie, mcht. in Dumfries, and had 4 sons and 2 daus. 14. William, d. s. 15. Thomas, d. s. 16. Michael, d. s. He was suc. by his son—
11. JOHN<sup>6</sup> MITCHELSON, of Middleton, who, bred to the law, was an advocate before the court of session, keeper of the register of horning, and one of the assessors of the city of Edinburgh. He m. Janet, only child of Mr. Alexander Hay, of Monkton, advocate, by Helen, his wife, dau. of Sir Alex. Ramsay, Lord Abbotsshall, and had 6 sons and 2 daus. 17. John, his heir. 18. Alexander, d. s. 19. Samuel Mitchelson, writer to His Majesty's Signet, who. m. Jean, dau. of John Oliver, of Dinliebyre, Esq., by whom he had issue. He is named in will of Dr. Gustavus Brown as his "kinsman and factor, one of the overseers of his will, and in case of failure of his male line, one of his heirs. If Dr. Brown inherited his estate in Scotland from the Mitchelsons it was probably as grt. gr. son of James of Howlatson, supra, or of James and Agnes Crosbie, supra. His will names first in this connection Mr. John Mitchelson of Middleton, the elder brother of Samuel, showing that Dr. B. must have been heir to a part and not the whole of the land of Middleton. 20. Andrew, d. s. 21. James, a Captain in the 28th Regiment. 22. George, d. s. Mr. John Mitchelson d. Mar., 1728, and was suc. by his son.

17. JOHN<sup>7</sup> MITCHELSON, of Middleton, Esq., served heir in special to his father, John, June 28, 1728. He m. Margaret, eldest dau. of Thomas Brisbane of that ilk, Esq., and had by her—23. Isabel, m. Robert Hepburn, of Clerkington, Esq., and had issue. 24. Margaret, m. John Swinton, younger, of Swinton, Esq., who was 22d from Edulf de Swinton, A. D. 1060, q. v., and had issue. 25. Henriët.

John Middleton is named as lawful heir to Dr. Brown in his will, q. v.

Arms, "Argent, a demi lion rampant, naissant out of the base gules, armed and langued azure, and on a chief indented sable, a star between two crescents of the first."

Crest, "An increscent argent." Motto, "Crescam ut proxim."

Chief Seat, at Middleton in the Shire of Edinburgh.

Grant, in Cassell's Old and New Edinburgh, 1-239, speaking of Carrubbee's lane, says:

"In this close was the house of Robert Ainslie's master, during Burns' visit to Edinburgh, Mr. Samuel Mitchelson, a great musical amateur, and here it was that occurred the famous "Haggis Scene" described by Smollet in "Humphrey Clinker." At the table of Mitchelson the poet was a frequent visitor, while in another floor of the old Clam Shell, as it was named, dwelt another friend of Burns, the elder Sir William Forbes, of Pitsligo, prior to his removal to the New Town."

I find no mention of Mitchelson in the best ed. of Burns' Poems.

Mr. J. O. Mitchell, of Glasgow, writes me, 1888:

"I have frequently stayed at Middleton with a friend of mine who rented it. It has passed from the old proprietors, the Mitchelsons, to new people, the Ritchies. It is near Dalkeith, contains 263a acres, and in 1874 was worth £3,137 a year. As Dr. B. wills his lands in Durham par. called 'Middleton,' it is probable that he inherited property from his grandmother's family."

5. GUSTAVUS<sup>4</sup> BROWN, M. D. (Gustavus,<sup>3</sup> Richard,<sup>2</sup> David<sup>1</sup>), of "Rich Hill," Charles county, Md., and Laird of Mainside and House Byers, Roxburg, Scotland, b. Dalkeith, Scotland, Apr. 10, 1689; B. same day; d. of apoplexy, "Rich Hill," April, 1762. Will dated Dec. 9, 1755; pro. Charles Co., May 12, 1762.* He m. (I.) —, 1710, FRANCES FOWKE, b. Feb. 2, 1691; d. Nov. 8, 1744; daughter of Col. Gerard and Sarah (Burdett) Fowke, of Charles county (FOWKE Excursus, 24); m. (II.) 1746-7, MARGARET (BLACK) BOYD, widow of an Irish gentleman and merchant of Port Tobacco.

*"1, Gustavus Brown, of Charles Co in the province of Maryland practitioner in Medicines and Laird of Mainside and House Byers in Scotland;" wills that, after his debts are paid his estate shall be disposed of as follows: to wife Margaret Brown, while she continues sole, lands in Durham parish, Charles Co, called Middleton, all negroes, hogs, horses, sheep, cattle, and plantation utensils for her and her two children; at her death to son Gustavus Richard Brown, if he leave no male heir then to son Richard and the falling of a male heir to dau Francis Moncure and she failing to dau Sarah Scott, thus he names his children in order, Mary Threlkeld, Elizabeth Wallace, Jane Campbell, Cecelia Key, Ann Claggett, Margaret Brown, &c, and for want of such heirs to Mr. John Mitchelson of Middleton, Scotland, he failing to Mr. Samuel Mitchelson bro. of John. After marriage or death of his widow Margaret his negroes and increase, and chattles of the plantation of Middleton to go to the right heir of his son Gustavus Richard Brown, if he have no heir then to dau. Margaret until of age or marriage, then to his son Richard. To his wife 10,000 lbs tobacco, "six silver tea spoons, one looking-glass, one silver marrow spoon and silver punch ladle used to put milk in which was hers." In lieu of the sum of £20, per ann. str. to be paid her as per Margaret Agreement, after his death, he gives her all the yearly rents of lands called House Byers in Scotland, but if she marries then only the £20 per year. To his son Gustavus Richard for his mother's use his new riding chais, two chais horses and harness. To same son rents of farm in and about Newstead Scot'd; to help with his education until twenty one years of age, or twenty-five years of age if he continues or determines to prepare for the Law, Divinity or Medicine. Of monies in the hands of his kinsman Samuel Mitchelson he gives £1,000 str; to his son Gustavus R for his education, and the principal at twenty five years of age. And if he die before that age £1,000 to his daughters and their heirs. To his dau Margaret Brown £300, str; the increase paid until she reaches twenty-five years and then the whole sum. If she should die before that age then to his daughters and their heirs. Provided he does not pay in his life time his dau; Mary Threlkeld her portion then and in such case only he gives her £300 str: to be raised out of the sums due him in Scot'd, provided again "that the said sum shall not be due or pd before her husband enter into the same security for the securing thereof as my son in law the Rev. John Moncure and others who married my daughters have done before." Same to his dau Jane Campbell £300, with same condition, and in-

Dr. Brown is supposed to have studied at Univ. Edinburgh, though his name does not occur in their published catalogue. In the old Pr. Bk. referred to he recorded, "I came into Maryland May, 1708." His first appearance in the Province was as follows:

"When a youth of 19 he became a Surgeon's mate, or Surgeon, on one of the royal or King's ships that came to the Colony in the Chesapeake Bay, 1708. While his ship lay at anchor he went on shore, but before he could return a severe storm arose, which made it necessary for the ship to weigh anchor and put out to sea. The young man was left with nothing but the clothes on his back. He quickly made himself known, and informed the planters of his willingness to serve them if he could be provided with instruments and medicines, leaving them to judge if he was worthy of their confidence. He began his practice of medicine at Nansemond, Md. He soon gained respect and succeeded beyond his expectations. He married into a wealthy family, made a large fortune, and wishing to lay his bones in his own loved Scotland, returned there with his family, and became possessed, by purchase it is believed, possibly by inheritance, of the lands he disposed of by his will. His wife became dissatisfied with Scotland, and he returned in 1734 to Maryland, where he had years before purchased the seat of Col. Lomax, called "Rich Hill," four miles from Port Tobacco, Charles Co." (Toner.)

Dr. B. not only acquired an extensive and lucrative practice in Charles Co., but he became a prominent man in the affairs of the county. He was one of seven Trustees appointed in 1723 for the county to fill vacancies in the list of school teachers of the Province, who were to be "members of the Church of England, pious and exemplary in their lives, capable of teaching well the grammar, good writing and the mathematics, if such could conveniently be got." These Trustees were to be appointed by the Assembly "from the principle and better sort of inhabitants."

In the Acts of the Md. Assembly for 1728, p. 7, it appears that "Whereas many of the Inhabitants of Port Tobacco parish in Charles County have Petitioned to this General Assembly setting forth that Dr. Gustavus Brown of said parish terest to her annually during life then to her eldest son or dau; Same to dau Ann Claggett and her husband to go security the same as the others. These to be paid if all debts due him, and even Mainside be used and taxed, and Richard Brown to be liable for these payments, he to have nothing until these legacies are satisfied. To son G. R. B., one third the furniture of his now dwelling house and kitchen, his wife to have the use of said house &c till Christmas after his death. To dau Cecelia Key 10,000 lbs tobacco for the use of her and her two children Philip and Susanna. His dau Margaret to be brought up and educated at the discretion of his wife and Francis Moncure. All the rest of his estate to Rev: Mr Richard Brown and at his death descending in legal manner according to seniority through each child to Mr John or Mr Samuel Mitchelson "provided always that the heir entail to the said land shall and must bear the name of Brown." Copy of will to be sent to at death to his kinsman and factor Mr. John Mitchelson of Middleton and Mr Samuel Mitchelson Clerk of the Signet in Edinburgh two of his executors and enrolled there. He revokes bond of provision for child made Edinburgh 1726-1727. Gives "to each worthy friend" Mrs John and Sam'l Mitchelson, Philip Key, Colo Richard Harrison, Robert Yates and his two sons Richard Brown and John Moncure one mourning ring. All the rest of his personal estate to son Richard Brown. Names for his executors each of these gentlemen. Will dat. Dec. 9, 1755; pro. May 12, 1762. Witnessed by Hon. Richard Lee, one of the Hon. Councillors of State; Arthur Lee, Esq., Magistrate of Charles Co.; Benj. Fendall, Esq., Keeper of the Records of Charles Co.; Geo. Dent, Esq., High Sheriff of Charles Co.; John Fendall, Philip Fendall, Josiah Hawkins, gentlemen, of Charles Co.

I. Codicil. In reference to his "heritable ppy of the Lands of Mainside, Easter House, Byres and Newstead in Scot'd," he app'ts Attorneys in Scot'd, and "gives full powers, &c., to deliver up all and sundry the lands of Mainside alias the Overmains of Capehow with the Houses biggings and haill pertenents with the lands parsonage and vicarage thereof lying in the parish of Hownan and Shire of Roxburg in Scot'd and sick like with the power and liberty of a weekly Mercall upon Thursday and two yearly faire the first thereof immediately preceeding the term of Whitsunday and the other upon the 18th day of Sept."

He also describes his land as lying in the "Lordship of Melrose and Sheriffdom of Roxburg eight acres of land lying run rigg through and amongst the town land of Newstead and now dividing lands of Newstead, with those called Top Meadow and Well Meadow and the Onstead and yard called Cummings yard and Town Head yard, to grant new enfeoffments of said lands hereditably and irredeemably to me and my heirs," and entails them on his son Richard, &c., &c. He names the Mitchelsons as these Att'ys. It is added to this codicil "wrote by Wm. Brown Attorney at Law in Charles Co. Made 1757, Feb 11."

II. Codicil. As his negro Cully was drowned out of a canoe last Sunday, having been willed to G. R. B., he orders that the said G. R. B. be paid money to buy another negro; gives to his wife all the gold and silver coin in his house, and to dau. Margaret his negro Nell. Dat. Mar. 5, 1758.

III. Codicil. Mar. 4th, 1761. Orders two negroes taken from the lands willed to son Richard returned at his death, confirms G. R. B. in his lands of Middleton, and annuls £300 willed to Cecelia Key, since married to Dr. Bond. (Lib. D. D. I., fol. 733, Annapolis, Md.)

I made personally a copy of this will, intending to insert it in full, but as it has been printed by Dr. J. M. Toner, p. 259 Trans. Med. Soc. Va., 1886, and would cover six pages, an abstract only is give here.

hath profered a Donation for a Organ on Condition that the said parish will employ an Organist." Nov., 1728, the Assembly passed "an Act to empower the Justices of Charles Co. to levy on the Taxable Inhabitants of Port Tobacco a sum not exceeding 2 lbs. tobacco per poll for the support of an Organist for the said parish."

The same year Mr. Philip Key, of St. Mary's Co., and Dr. Gustavus Brown, of Charles Co., Gents., were appointed, among others, Commissioners to regulate the Parishes of the two Counties.

In 1729 an Act was passed for laying out land and erecting a Town at the head of Port Tobacco Creek, "said town to be called and distinguished by the Name of Charlestown, and not by any other name or distinction whatever." Col. John Fendall, Capt. Geo. Dent, Dr. Gustavus Brown and four others were appointed for this purpose. Dr. Brown was a vestryman of Port Tobacco parish as late as 1758, and Associate Judge of Charles Co. Ct., 1755. Thomas Swann, near Alexandria, owns portraits of Dr. Brown and his wife Frances.

Dr. B. describes his Maryland and his Scotch estates in his will. It is not certainly known whether he obtained his Scotch property by purchase or inheritance; I judge the former, as J. Guthrie Smith, of Mugdock Castle, Scotland, Esq., writes me:

"House Byres and Newstead are in the parish of Melrose and Co. of Roxburg. July 8, 1618, Marcus Home is returned in 'Housebyre in domino de Melros.' 23d Oct., 1640, Thomas, Comes de Haddington is returned in the Lordship and Barony of Melross, comprehending, with other lands, those of 'Newstead' and 'Housebyre.' The names still exist in the parish of Melross. The Mainside of Capehope is in the parish of Hounam in Roxburghshire. It is the valley through which the Capehope water flows. Mainside is, I believe, now part of the Duke of Roxburg's estate. July 4, 1605, James Stewart, heir of Sir Wm. S. of Traquair, Knt., his brother, is returned in half of the Barony of Hounam, commonly called Fillegar and Cunzeartown, 'cum molendino de Caiphop.' March 1, 1643, 'Joanner Rutherford portionarius de Caiphope heares Ricardi Rutherford vocati de ditilheuch Patris in terris baroniæ de Caiphope et in illis partibus terrarum de Caiphope vocatis Phillip Hardroddi Maktyd-bank (Mainside bank?) et preistschawis' (Roxburghshire Retoun)."

The following anecdote about Dr. Brown is narrated on the authority of Dr. Wallace:

"On one occasion Dr. Brown was sent for in haste to pay a professional visit in the family of a Mr. H., a wealthy citizen of King George Co., Va., who was usually very slow in paying his physician for his valuable services, and who was also very ostentatious in displaying his wealth. In leaving the chamber of his patient it was necessary for Dr. B. to pass through the dining room, where Mr. H. was entertaining some guests at dinner. As Dr. B. entered the room a servant bearing a silver salver, on which stood two silver goblets filled with gold pieces, stepped up to him and said, 'Dr. B., master wishes you to take out your fee.' It was winter, and Dr. B. wore his overcoat. Taking one of the goblets he quietly emptied it into one pocket, and the second goblet into another, and saying to the servant, 'Tell your master I highly appreciate his liberality,' he mounted his horse and returned home."

Mrs. Frances Brown lies buried at "Dipple," on the Potomac R., in the Co. of Stafford, Va., on one of the estates of her son-in-law, Rev. James Scott. Her tomb bore this record:

"Here lyeth the body of Frances, the wife of Dr. Gustavus Brown, of Charles County, Maryland. By her he had twelve Children, of whom one son and seven daughters survive her. She was a daughter of Mr. Gerard Fowke, late of Maryland, and descended from the Fowkes of Gunston Hall, in Staffordshire, England. She was born February the 2d, 1691, and died much lamented on the 8th of November, 1744, in the fifty-fourth year of her age."

Dr. Brown had nine daughters, all of whom grew to maturity and married. They are still referred to among their numerous descendants as "the nine Miss Browns."

EXCURSUS—FOWKE.

Mr. Frank Rede Fowke, London, Eng., is preparing a history of this family in England and America. Hence this excursus will begin with Roger of "Gunston Hall," Staffordshire, England.

At the funeral of Sir Thomas Whorwood, of Sandwell Hall, Co. Stafford, Eng., "ye 27 day of October, 1634, the standard was borne by Roger Fowke, Gent." (Misc. Gen. et. Her. IV., 38.)

"Roger Fowke, of Brewood, bought Wyrley Grove from his relative, John Leveson, and m. Joan Fowke. Their son Thomas m. Mary, dau. of Henry Ferrers, of Beddersley, Clinton, Co. Warwick, and had issue, Francis Fowke, of Little Wyrley, who m. Frances, dau. of Mortou Briggs, of Haughton Hall, Co. Salop." (Id. I., 100.)

The MSS.* supplied me indicate that the Va. and Md. Fowkes were of the Brerewood and Gunston line of Staffordshire, Eng. They trace from Roger Fowke, 3d son of Fowke of Brerewood and Gunston. It is prob. that the following extract from Albaston Register, Co. Staff'd, Eng., refers to the Va. line:

"1636. Frances fulke, the daughter of Gerrard fulke, Gent., and Grace, his wife, was baptized the 11th of October. 1638. Talbot fowlke, the sonne of Gerrard fowlke, Gent., and Grace, his wife, was baptized the 26th of March. 1643. Grace fowlke, the wife of Gerrard fowlke, Esquire, was buried the 21st of January. 1643. Dorothy, her daughter, buried the 1st of February. 1647. Grace fowlke, the daughter of Gerrard fowlke, Gent., was baptized the 20th of Sept." (Id. II., 487.)

This Gerard who m. Grace, Mr. F. R. F. says, was 5th son of John of Gunston, temp James I., and his wife Dorothy, dau. of John Cupper. He was a Captain under Charles I., and d. anti 1643-4. He m. (I.) Olivia, sis. of Sir Robert Long, who, Nov. 9, 1663, addressed Williamson for assistance for the petition of "his brother Fowke," now in Bennet hands (Cal. State Pap.); m. (II.) Grace, dau. of Henry Cupper, Berks, who d. Jan. 20, 1643. His son Gerard, "Bachacar Hall," Co. Suff., b. 1625, had the Grace bap. 1647.

1. ROGER<sup>1</sup> FOWKE, of "Gunston Hall," Co. Stafford, Eng., 3d son of — Fowke, of Brerewood and Gunston, Co. Staff'd, 1600 (?), m. —, Mary —. Both Roger and Gerard were common names in the English line. In the "Alphabetical Acc. of the Nobility, &c., of Eng.," 1673, referred to, occurs "Roger Fowke, of Gunston, Esq., Co. Stafford."

Capt. Thos. Foulke was Burgess, West'd Co., 1659-60. (Neill's Va. Car. 269.) Thomas Fooks (as the name was then pronounced) lived at Onancock, Accomac Co., Va., cir. 1699. Rev. Francis Makemie used to preach at his house. (Neill's Ter. Mar. 149.) Robert Pritchard, Mar. 15, 1671, assigned 150 a. in Lanc'r Co., Va., to Harman or Harrison and Thomas "flowkes" (4, 151), pro. 7. COLONEL GERARD<sup>2</sup> FOWKE, b. Staff'd Co., Eng.; d. Va. 1669; m. —, Ann, dau. or wid. of Mr. or Col. Chandler, of Port Tobacco, Md. Ann, wife of Col. Gerrard F., gave power of Att'y to Anthony Bridges to confirm a sale made by her husband to Raleigh Travers, Nov. 11, 1663. (West'd Co. 1., 218.)

Col. F. was "Gentleman of the bed chamber to Charles I. and a Colonel in the Royal Army." He came to Va. with wife Ann (?), and cousin, Col. Geo. Mason, of Staff'd, Eng. (BALL, p. 109.) He rec'd land in Va., as West'd Co. records show that Gerard F. sold Dec. 21, 1657, 100 a. bought of Nicholas Meriwether and lying on Potomac Cr'k, Sep., 1657. (1.57.) May 12, 1660, he gave deed to Thomas Fowke, of West'd Co., Gent. (1.197.) They were co-partners in real estate. He made deed Nov. 11, 1663, to Raleigh Travers, Gent.; wit. by Wm. Travers. (1.218.) He made Valentine Peyton his att'y Dec. 18, 1663. He rec'd 1200 a. North'd Co., "abutting N. on the Potomac, W. on the Pescatansey Cr'k, S. and E. on the maine woods," granted Sep. 13, 1652, to George Foster, but escheated by Foster's death. Oct. 17, 1664-5, he rec'd 600 a. of the Foster tract sold him by Gov. Berkley, belonging to the King of Potomac. An old document held by Thaddeus Fowke shows that 1725-7 a Mr. Fowke brought suit of ejectment against a tenant on this land. By this document it appears that Col. Gerard F. "sometime after" receiving his 1664-5 patent moved to Maryland, leaving tenants and hands on this land; that he d. 1669, leaving his son Gerard, then 6 or 7 years old, father of the defendant in the suit; that this son then, and ever after, lived in Md., but sometimes came over, while a youth, among his tenants. They requested a survey to settle a dispute among them, and one was made, 1685, by the tenants locating corners. The Court ordered a new survey 1714. The name of the then defendant does not appear, the records being lost from 1714. It was pro. Chandler F., as a 2d paper is a bill of costs against Capt. Chandler F. in a like suit, with clerk fees, in 1737. Col. F. was either Co. Lieut. or Col. of Troops for West'd Co., 1660. In 1661 charges were made against Capt. Giles Brent, Col. Gerard Fowke, Mr. John Lord and Capt. Geo. Mason, of having injured and affronted Wahogonocke, King of the Potomac Indians. The Ho. of Burgesses investigated the charges and ordered that Fowke, Lord and Mason pay the Indian King 100 arms length of Roanoke apiece, or match coats instead at 20 arms length every coat. (Hen. II., 150.) For permitting a "murderer of the English delivered bound into his custody by Wahogonocke" to escape, the same Ass'y "ordered that Col. F. pay to the publike tenne thousand lbs. of tobacco." For high misdemeanor which they acknowledged in illegally imprisoning the said King, the Ass'y ordered that Brent and Fowke each should pay 15,000 lbs. tobacco, and "that they bee incapable of bearing any office, civil or military, in this country, and give bond severally for their good behaviour towards the said King and all other Indians, and that they pay the charges." (Id.) Commissioners were also appointed to settle disputes between Col. Fowke and the said King relative to lands. (154.) It was also ordered, because of their removal, that the Cos. of West'd and North'd be one county, under the officers of North'd, until otherwise ordered. (151.) The indignation of the Assembly against these officers was evidently spasmodic, as Col. Gerard Fowke was elected Burgess from West'd Co., 1663, his credentials examined by special committee, and he, with others, was sworn in as such Sep. 11, 1663. (II., 198.) The action of the Assembly disqualifying Col. Fowke, 1662, and admitting him as Burgess, 1663, has given color to the theory that there were three Colonels Gerard Fowke in Md. and Va. prior to 1700. There were three of the name prior to 1700, Nos. 7, 17 and 20, but only two who held the rank of Colonel. Col. F. moved to Charles Co., Md., 1664, locating on his estate at the head of Pt. Tobacco Cr'k. (Md. Arch. II., 16.) Jan. 2, 1665, "Coll. Gerrard Fowke" was unanimously elected by the Md. Ass'y Burgess for Charles Co. (II., 8), and was made Justice for said Co., Oct. 22, 1667. He pro. held both offices until his death. His name disappears from Maryland Archives after 1669. It appears that he was also engaged in merchandizing. He left a numerous posterity. Of these Mr. Geo. Fitzhugh says:

"We know of but few persons from King Geo. Co., Va., to the Blue Ridge of respectable standing who have not Fowke blood in their veins, and the same is the case in a large portion of Maryland, where one branch

Linkage:

Samuel Hanson (1716-94)
<sup>definitely</sup> served in the conventions of 74-76. He was a colonel at that time and is referred to by that title also in the proceedings.

His son Samuel (1752-1830) served the year after 1783. My theory is that the father resigned in 1781 and after a two year lapse in service
the son was elected.

mentions all land to be sold and money divided; no trusts by name has many slaves -

states in will that his 3 personal slaves be set free immediately after his death.

Also - to be set free all descendants of every female Negro owned at his death, unless they be over 28 yrs. None of these children are to be sold, hired or disposed of out of the State of Maryland at any time during their state of slavery. The children's owners must give them 30 days school (in an actual school) females between 14 and 16, males between 18 and 21.

Every Negro received by way of 5 shillings Sterling

Problem with 1783 Tax List:

+ SH "p"      }
+ SH "ESQ"    } = distinct people or Personal Prop.
                          } = list

But the land for "p", "ESQ", "ESQ" all belong to the Samuel who dies in 1794 as p/sets bks + his estate Chancery case.

Who is SH "p" ?

from Bruce Claggett

Thomas Howe: His daughter Mauldin married Charles Claggett, not Claggett.

Francis Hutchins: His wife was Elizabeth Burrige, or Burrage, daughter of John Burrige and his wife Margaret, probably Mauldin.

Charles Hynson: His wife was Anna Francina Vanderheyden, widow of Edward Shippen jr., of Philadelphia.

Benjamin Stoddert: No biography in volume 1, but referred to passim as Benjamin C. Stoddert. I question the middle initial. I have seen many signatures of Benjamin's; no middle initial ever shown.

Joseph Belt: His daughter Anne married Thomas Claggett, not Claggett. (Claggett was the uniform spelling for the first three generations in Maryland. While of course there are records kept by others which misspell the name in various ways, the actual signatures of members of the family, of which many survive, show a perfect consistency. The Claggett spelling was first adopted by Thomas John Claggett, first Bishop of Maryland, of the fourth generation.) Anne Belt did not marry (2) Ignatius Perry, as stated. This is a confusion with Thomas Claggett's second wife, Ann Wheeler, who married (1) Capt. Thomas Fogg, (2) Thomas Claggett, (3) Meredith Davis, (4) Ignatius Perry.

Thomas Bond: His wife Cecilia Brown was a sister, not a niece, of Anne Brown Claggett (not Claggett) Horner. Anne married (1) the Rev. Samuel Claggett (who by his first marriage was father of the Right Rev. Thomas John Claggett, first Bishop of Maryland); (2) Robert Horner; (3) Samuel Hanson. (While it is said under Thomas Bond that her first husband's first name is unknown, he is correctly identified under Samuel Hanson (1716-1794).)

Henry Darnall and John Darnall: It is hard to make sense of the allegation that their mother was "Mary Calvert, sister of Lord Talbot." There was no Lord Talbot in this period, except as a subsidiary title of the earls of Arundel and dukes of Norfolk, whose family name was Howard, not Calvert.

Frisby Freeland and Peregrine Freeland: Their mother's maiden name is not given; it is correctly stated as Frisby in the note on Thomas Frisby.

Ezekiel Forman: According to my records he had a son not mentioned here, Gen. Thomas Marsh Forman (1758-1845). Is this wrong?

Samuel Hanson (1716-1794): His wife Anne Brown was a daughter, not a sister, of Dr. Gustavus Brown. Correct - SGR. 7/30/79

EXCURSUS—FOWKE.

Mr. Frank Rede Fowke, London, Eng., is preparing a history of this family in England and America. Hence this excursus will begin with Roger of "Gunston Hall," Staffordshire, England.

At the funeral of Sir Thomas Whorwood, of Sandwell Hall, Co. Stafford, Eng., "ye day of October, 1634, the standard was borne by Roger Fowke, Gent." (Misc. Gen. et. H. IV., 38.)

"Roger Fowke, of Brewood, bought Wyrley Grove from his relative, John Leveson, and m. Joan Fowke. Their son Thomas m. Mary, dau. of Henry Ferrers, of Beddlesley, Clinton, Co. Warwick, and had issue Francis Fowke, of Little Wysley, who m. Frances, dau. of Morton Briggs, of Haughton Hall, Co. Salop. (Id. I., 100.)

The MSS.* supplied me indicate that the Va. and Md. Fowkes were of the Brerewood and Gunston line of Staffordshire, Eng. They trace from Roger Fowke, 3d son of Fowke Brerewood and Gunston. It is prob. that the following extract from Albastion Register, Staff'd, Eng., refers to the Va. line:

"1636. Frances ffulke, the daughter of Gerrard ffulke, Gent., and Grace, his wife, was baptized 11th of October. 1638. Talbot ffulke, the sonne of Gerrard ffulke, Gent., and Grace, his wife, was baptized the 26th of March. 1643. Grace ffulke, the wife of Gerrard ffulke, Esquire, was buried the 21st of January. 1643. Dorothy, her daughter, buried the 1st of February. 1647. Grace ffulke, the daughter of Gerrard ffulke, Gent., was baptized the 20th of Sept." (Id. II., 487.)

This Gerard who m. Grace, Mr. F. R. F. says, was 5th son of John of Gunston, 4th James I., and his wife Dorothy, dau. of John Cupper. He was a Captain under Charles I. and d. anti 1643-4. He m. (I.) Olivia, sis. of Sir Robert Long, who, Nov. 9, 1663, dressed Williamson for assistance for the petition of "his brother Fowke," now in Berks hands (Cal. State Pap.); m. (II.) Grace, dau. of Henry Cupper, Berks, who d. Jan. 20, 1667. His son Gerard, "Bachacar Hall," Co. Suff., b. 1625, had the Grace bap. 1647.

1. ROGER<sup>1</sup> FOWKE, of "Gunston Hall," Co. Stafford, Eng., 3d son of — Fowke of Brerewood and Gunston, Co. Staff'd, 1600 (?), m. —, Mary —. Both Roger and Gerard were common names in the English line. In the "Alphabetical Acc. of the Nobles &c., of Eng.," 1673, referred to, occurs "Roger Fowke, of Gunston, Esq., Co. Stafford."

Children (Family charts):

2. John,<sup>2</sup> 3. Roger. 4. Francisco. 5. Anthony. 6. William. The last four, all key mchts., d. s.

* Sent by Dr. Phillips (111), Miss K. M. Rowland, and Mr. Gerard Fowke (son of 102), who drew papers of Mr. Thaddeus Fowke. Where Parish and County authorities are given, it denotes personal see. Every effort has been made by G. F. and H. E. H. to make this pedigree accurate.

SIGNIFICANT CHANGES IN LAND BETWEEN FIRST ELECTION AND DEATH: gave at least 283 acres in Charles County to his son Thomas in 1776, and 1,770 acres in Charles County to his son SAMUEL HANSON, OF SAMUEL (ca. 1752-1830) between 1776 and 1779. Hanson purchased approximately 227 acres in Charles County and sold 423 acres in Charles County. He apparently also divested himself of his land in Frederick and Montgomery counties prior to his death.

12 DIED: will probated <sup>on</sup> November 25, 1794, in Charles County. PERSONAL PROPERTY: TEV, £3,498.8.5 current money (including 26 slaves); FB, £439.1.8. LAND: 2,005 acres in Charles County.

9/ 13 The legislative service and officeholding attributed to SAMUEL HANSON (1716-1794) was the result of an analysis of records pertaining to the six men of that name living in Charles County during the period 1774-1784. However, these conclusions cannot be positively verified. See also <sup>in</sup> the profiles of SAMUEL HANSON, JR. (?-1817) and SAMUEL HANSON, OF SAMUEL (ca. 1752-1830).
