MOTION TO DISMISS APPEAL FOR FAILURE
OF APPELLANT TO COMPLY WITH ORDER OF COURT

EDWARD REIFER, et al, Appellees, by Larry J. Albert, their attorney, move this Court to dismiss the above appeal for failure of Appellant to comply with Order of Court and, in support thereof, say:

2. Pursuant to said Order, the record was to have been transmitted to this Court on or before December 4, 1995, but was not.

3. Appellant neither moved for an extension of time from this Court nor was he granted an extension of time by this Court.

WHEREFORE, Appellees move this Court to dismiss the above appeal.

APPELLANT'S OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO DISMISS APPEAL

COMES NOW, Anthony N. Wojloh, Appellant, Pro se, and in opposition to Appellees' Motion to Dismiss Appeal asks the Court of Special Appeals for an Order denying said Motion, on grounds and for reasons as follow:

1. The Appellant, on or about August 14, 1995, filed a Notice of Appeal to the Court of Special Appeals of Maryland along with a Motion to Proceed in Forma Pauperis, an Affidavit, Order and a Certificate of Service.

2. That, because the Motion to Proceed in Forma Pauperis had not been ruled upon, the Appellant could not and did not have the record transmitted as required by Md. Rule 8-412(a).

3. That, further, Appellant did not request an Extension of Time for filing the record, because he did not and does not know when said Motion to Proceed in Forma Pauperis will be ruled upon. That, Appellant will not be able to go forward with his Appeal, because he does not have the financial resources to pay the prescribed fee of this Court for filing the record and the fee payable to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Baltimore City for preparation of the record on appeal.

4. That, in late November, 1995, while Appellant was/is still awaiting the outcome of his Motion to Proceed in Forma Pauperis, the Clerk of the Court of Special Appeals of Maryland sent Appellant an Affidavit along with an Order and a Certificate of Service to complete, because the prior Affidavit Appellant had filed is said not to provide a sufficient information of Appellant's financial status. It is reasonable to believe that this later Affidavit inevitably extends the ruling of the Court on the Motion and Appellant's waiting periods.

WHEREFORE, for good cause shown, Appellant respectfully asks the Court to Deny Appellees' Motion to Dismiss Appeal.

APPELLEES' RESPONSE TO APPELLANT'S
OPPOSITION TO MOTION TO DISMISS

EDWARD REIFER, et al, Appellees, by Larry J. Albert, their attorney, respond to Appellant's Opposition to Motion to Dismiss as follows:

1. That Appellant admits he did not have the record transmitted in accordance with Maryland rule 8-412(a).

2. That Appellant admits he did not move for an extension of time for transmittal of the record as provided by Maryland Rule 8-412(d).

3. That Appellant does not attribute the failure of the record to be transmitted to "the act or omission of a judge, a clerk of court, the court stenographer, or the appellee." Rule 8-412(d).

4. That Appellant could have moved this Court for an extension to allow his completing proper application to proceed in forma pauperis but did not do so.

5. That Appellant and Appellees in this matter, as well as any appellant and appellee before this Court, are equally bound by the dictates of all rules governing an appeal and by any order of this Court concerning ordering of the transcript and transmittal of the record.

6. That Appellant's failure to abide by the rules or Order of Court is not excused by his proceeding pro se.

7. That Appellant is not entitled to an adjustment, relaxation or abrogation of the rules.

WHEREFORE, Appellees pray this Court to grant their Motion to Dismiss.

DEFENDANTS' RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFF'S OPPOSITION TO DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Defendants, EDWARD REIFER, et al, by Larry J. Albert, their attorney, respectfully submit the following response to Plaintiff's Opposition to their Motion for Summary Judgment:

1. Defendants incorporate, by reference, their Motion to Dismiss, which Plaintiff has not opposed, and Motion for Summary Judgment, including legal memorandum and Affidavit of Edward Reifer, copy attached hereto.

2. Section 6-410, Courts & Judicial Proceedings Article, is dispositive of Plaintiff's action for slander, Count II of the Complaint, against Defendant Charles Anderson who died on April 19, 1995.

3. The only remaining issue in the case is whether or not a genuine dispute of material fact exists as to Plaintiff's allegation, under Count II, that Defendants Reifer, et al are vicariously liable for the alleged slanderous remarks made by Anderson, a janitor employed by Unity Center of Christianity, to Plaintiff, a security guard employed by Unity Center, on or about May 25, 1993.

4. The standard of review for a motion for summary judgment under Maryland Rule 2-501, as set forth in Seaboard Surety Company v. Klein, 91 Md.App. 236, 603 A.2d 1357 (1992), and precisely summarized in Niemeyer & Richard, Maryland Rules Commentary, pp 333-334 (1992), is as follows:

The response must contain specific facts which controvert facts contained in the motion. Both the facts of the motion and the response must be admissible in evidence as if at trial. Thus a response must be supported by the same type and quality of evidence as is necessary to support a judgment after trial. Examples of evidence upon which a party may rely include admissions in the pleadings, answers to request for admissions, answers to interrogatories, answers to deposition questions otherwise admissible, and affidavits on personal knowledge. A response that simply denies or argues that the facts are in dispute without inclusion of an affidavit or other admissible evidence is insufficient. The court cannot treat bald allegations in a response as creating a disputed fact, any more than it can assume that contentions made in opening statement or closing argument dispute evidence introduced at trial.

5. Edward Reifer, pastor of Unity Center and a member of its Board of Directors at all times relevant to this matter, in his affidavit, based on personal knowledge, has testified under oath that (a) Anderson was employed as a janitor; (b) Anderson was assigned no supervisory duties; (c) Anderson was not directed, expressly or implicitly, to report on any incidents or conduct involving any other employee, including Plaintiff; (d) that neither Reifer nor any of the other defendants authorized, approved or acquiesced in Anderson's alleged slanderous remarks to Plaintiff; and (e) that Anderson was never a personal employee or agent of any defendant.

6. Plaintiff's Opposition contains no affidavit or other evidence to rebut Rev. Reifer's testimony under oath.

7. Plaintiff, in his opposition, merely asserts that Anderson "had a supervisory jurisdiction or authority" over him, curiously adding that Anderson "had no personal hostility toward Plaintiff" (Opposition, p. 14).

8. Bald averments that a material dispute exists, without any evidentiary support, "amount to no more than mere surmise, possibility or conjecture." Arshack v. Carl M. Freeman Associates, 260 Md. 269, 272 A.2d 30 (1971).

WHEREFORE, Defendants pray this Honorable Court to grant their motion to dismiss and motion for summary judgment.

AFFIDAVIT OF EDWARD REIFER

I, EDWARD REIFER, make the following Affidavit under oath:

1. I am over the age of eighteen years.
2. I am competent to testify and have personal knowledge regarding the facts contained herein.
3. For all times material herein, I was employed as the Pastor of the Unity Center of Christianity ("Unity Center") and served on its Board of Directors. In that capacity, I am duly authorized by the Unity Center to testify as to matters within the knowledge of the corporation as to claims in this suit when I was pastor.
4. The late Mr. Charles D. Anderson was employed by the Unity Center as a janitor at the time of the occurrence in this suit.
5. At no time was Mr. Anderson assigned supervisory duties by either the Unity Center, its Board of Directors or by me individually as to the Plaintiff Anthony N. Wojloh nor was Mr. Anderson directed, either expressly or implicitly, to monitor or report on any incidents or conduct involving Anthony N. Wojloh or any other employees of the Unity Center.

6. Neither the Unity Center, its Board of Directors nor I individually did at any time authorize, approve, or acquiesce in Mr. Anderson's statements to Anthony N. Wojloh (assuming but not conceding that they occurred) as alleged in the Complaint in this case.

7. I never personally employed Charles Anderson as either an employee or agent on my behalf nor was he employed as an employee or agent of Viola Green, a Board member, or Rubie Hostetler, Church secretary.

I, EDWARD REIFER, am the Pastor of the Unity Center of Christianity and am duly authorized by the corporation to execute this Affidavit under oath on its behalf. The information set forth in this Affidavit was collected by others, and all such information is not necessarily solely within my personal knowledge. However, on behalf of the corporation, I solemnly affirm under the penalties of perjury that the foregoing Affidavit is true and correct.
