

EN BURNIE ECHOES

Master services for area

Mrs. Asey Matthews Burnie were recent Mr. and Mrs. Amos Baltimore. Later they the musical concert Polytechnic.

Mrs. James Johnson Burnie, Md., had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Gist of Asheville, N.C. Edna Russell and daughter Diane, were house- Mr. and Mrs. James Burnie of Furnace Branch Sunday.

March 10, Airmen 1/c Jennings of Severna Md. left for Japan. His Helen Jennings, and sons, will be joining late summer. They are Ashbury Methodist pastored by the Rev. Collins.

WITH ANNIVERSARY Pigeons of Mt. Methodist Church, Magog, was observed recent- were delivered by Harry Chase of Stan. Rev. S. T. Collins and Town Neck. was by several groups. $200 was raised. Mrs. Spicer is president; Kess, chairman, and L. A. Dyson, pastor.

Men's Day was ob- of the Mt. Zion Metho- Magohy, and the Mr. Dyson spoke in Men. More than $500 Colled Church Women held their board recently at New Wind- many women pres Mesdames Thomas of Park D. Ellwood Wil- Annapolis, Henrietta of Glen Burnie. Johnson is treasurer for Anne Arundel and corresponding sec- of the State.

PASTOR, Youth Choir GREAT COUNTY NEWS

variety of Easter Sunday church programs set

MISS LILLIAN BROOKS, resident of Prince Frederick, Md., became a new member of the Peters Methodist Church Sunday.

THE SUPPER held in the parsonage of the Mt. Hope Methodist Church was well attended.

RECUPERATING AT home are Mrs. Pearl Jones, Mrs. Jeanette Gray and Clyde Jones. Mr. Jones, Owens, Md., was confined to Calvert Co. Hospital.

THE VOLUNTEER Com- mittee for the Turner Station Health Center will sponsor a Coffee Hour on Friday, April 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the Health Center, 101 Breckenridge Drive, Sollers Homes Management Office.

ONE VISIT to the Hecht Company's roof-top restaurant in the Northwood shopping center is all that the Civic Interest Group has made so far in its effort to get the company to serve all in its restaurant. The sit-down effort there has been suspended pending the outcome of negotiations on the service policy. Meanwhile, pickets continue to march in front of the Northwood Theatre. The Arundel Ice Cream Store has started serving all patrons.

TOURING TURNER STATION Mrs. L. D. Ward cited for 38 years' service

By E. S. McDANIEL Little Darnell Henry of 211 Main Street, had a very unpleasant experience on Thursday. She was struck by an automobile as she was crossing the street in front of her home. She was rushed to City Hospital where she continued to be hysterical for hours before she could be quieted.

FATHER HUGH HENNE- BERRY, priest at Christ the King Catholic Church, who has been ill for several weeks, is recuperating at St. Peter Claver Church, P.O. Box 2290, Tampa, Florida.

THE PATAPSCO Neck Professional Group will hold its next regular meeting on April 9, at the Dundalk Library. The topic for discussion will be "Plans and Services of the County Library."

THE MARYLAND Supervisors Group sponsored a testimonial in honor of Mrs. Lula D. Ward, retired supervisor of Calvert County on Saturday, at the Occidental Restaurant, Washington. Supervisors and friends of the honoree were in attendance.

THE HONOREE was charming in a green lace sheath, trimmed in black velvet. She wore a rose spring hat with flowers that added charm to her very pleasant face that carries a smile at all times. The honoree was presented an orchid by Mrs. Thelma Cornish, supervisor of Calvert County.

THE FIFTY-EIGHTH Palm Sunday Annual Thanksgiving were presented to the commission on several occasions by our representatives and in a measure below. (fringe benefits) speak for themselves, and that no good purpose would be served by representatives of the company appearing at the public hearing scheduled for March 24.

ON THE EASTSIDE

Madhatters tea'an Easter Day highlight on Eastside

By CHARLOTTE W. DOWNIE All roads on our Eastside, will lead to Christ Methodist Church Easter Sunday from 4 to 7 p.m.

The attraction - the Madhatters Tea being sponsored by the Woman's Day Planning Committee of Christ Methodist Church. Mrs. Laura Bouldin, prominent Eastside civic leader is chairman of the planning committee. Mrs. Ilean Henson is chairman of the Tea.

Exquisite prizes will be awarded to the guest wearing the prettiest hat and many more for other classes of hats (Gee I'm gonna add an extra flower to mine, who knows?). Guests will be treated to a very fine musical program.

Hostesses presiding at the Tea Tables, which will be beautifully decorated are: Mesdames Laura Bouldin, Ilean Henson, Dorothy Bailey, Gladys Keene, Elizabeth Spicer, Gladys Henry, Mesdames Beryle Williams, Henrietta Holliman, Carrie Young, Helen Keene, Voyd Nixon, Gladys Baird, Sara Howell, Evelyn Keene, Thelma Kess.

Also, Miss Elsie Bowser, Mesdames Leatha Harris, Virginia Hutchins, Emma Adams, Yvonne Payne, Beatrice Smith, Edna Scott, Martha Vaughn, Gloria Jones, Willa Bouldin, Novella Hicks. Now is the time to show off your hats and win a prize, gals. Why not drop in for tea at Christ Church on Easter for the Madhatters Tea. See ya... there!

Participants will include the Rev. H. O. Graham, Knox Presbyterian; the Rev. R. L. Clifford, Centennial Methodist; the Rev. Hilton A. Parker, Christ Methodist; the Rev. Perry M. Tilghman, Oak Street A.M.E. Church; the Rev. Wesley B. Nash, Waters A.M.E.; the Rev. Edward Revels of Christian Community Church, and the Rev. I. A. Miller, pastor of Trinity.

SPECIAL GOOD FRIDAY Services, sponsored by the Women's Society of Christian Services will be held at St. Matthews Methodist Church, East 23rd Street near Greenmount Avenue. The Rev. U. D. Chambers is minister.

THE CONFIRMATION Class consisted of Janet Graham, Toni Stevenson, Beverly Orr, Patricia Reed, Patricia Cloud, Beverly Jo Harvey, Eva Harris, Catherine Rawlings, Patricia Lewis, Marie Lewis, Brenda Chamblain, Idene Lewis, Janet Taylor, Jacqueline Battle, Charles Dennis, Kent Dorsey, Charles Dorsey, Michael Rawlings, Mack Willoughby, Gilbert Halliburton, Ronald Andrews, Robert Andrews, Aaron S. Johnson, Kenneth Smith, Gregory Smith, John Spencer, Leevonn Cloud, Hosea Chamblain, Walter Scott, Thomas Stephen Wilmer, James Edmonds, Harold Edmonds and Tyrone Willoughby.

THE CHERRY HILL Methodist Church is sponsoring a spaghetti and meat ball supper at 3002 Ascension St. on Saturday, April 4, from 5 to 7 p.m. The most humorous thing happened last Friday night in the community building at that time the Presbyterian Men of Cherry Hill played the basketball team. Surprisingly, the "ole men" defeated the youngsters by a score of 39 to 36. High pointer for the men was Leslie Harris with 12 points.

THE FIRST spring dance will be given at Odd Fellows Hall by the Gliders Saturday, March 28. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Smith, 32 Shipley Ave., had as their recent guests, Mr. and Mrs. Mollie Cosley and family of Henrytown, Md. Charles Terrell and Harry Brown, who have been on the sick list, are better and out. Mrs. Rosa Dorsey, 3220 Bar-

Miss Dorothy Dandridge reveals engagement to blond club owner

328,599 vehicles use Ohio Turnpike

CHERRY HILL NEWS

33 children confirmed at Presbyterian church

By MARJORIE J. WARD Palm Sunday evening saw the confirming of 33 children in a beautiful service at the Cherry Hill Presbyterian Church.

For the occasion, the confirmees were dressed in white. The girls wore white organdy dresses while the boys wore white robes.

After the confirmation procession and the saying of the vows, the Sanctuary Choir rendered music from John Stein-er's "Crucifixion as the congregation received the Sacrament of Holy Communion.

Mrs. Ella Chamblain sang a solo; the choir did a number; Samuel Graham and Mrs. Chamblain contributed a duet and other soloists were Leroy Jones, Miss Barbara Young, and Mrs. Constance McCraw. Carlton Simmons is choir director.

THE PLAYERS on the boys team were House, Simmons, Davidson, Young, Moeby Gross, Tru-ney, Reed Oglesby and Murphy. The "ole men" were Tillery, Travers, Francis, C. Johnson, J. Johnson and Harris.

A baby contest sponsored by the Women's Organization of Cherry Hill Community Presbyterian Church will be held on Sunday, April 5, 1959 at 4 p.m. All members of the church are urged to sponsor their favorite baby. Chairman of the affair is Mrs. Mattie Harris.

CHERRY HILL SCENES: The participants in the "ole" vs "young" basketball game wishing for barrels because their clothing was locked in the building. The wives of the "gay ninety team" buying liniment the following day. Mr. Seagull said "he never saw the stuff go so fast" - poor aching backs.

PAULETTE Bowman, Ollie Pinger and Mary Thompson singing solos on Palm Sunday. The John Reed sporting a new Dodge. Clifton Bailey has turned to carpentry, thanks to Forrester Ferrell. I also heard a tale about "fall bending" - Yours truly wishing all of you a Happy Easter.

NEIGHBORS SEND Easter cards to our sick and shut-ins: Mrs. Virgie Bolton, 1816 Bent-ious Street; Mrs. Mamie Gilbert, 320 E. 20th Street; Mrs. Pearl Rice, 2131 Homewood Avenue; Mrs. Isabella Washington, 2101 Coldspring Lane; Mrs. Edna Eibson, 1000 Brantley Avenue. Tell ya Tuesday about the real gone "Glamorama" the Gleders are planning to have sometime this summer. Featuring among others our own Eastside Hair Stylist popular Mildred Church. nuff for now Get the Tuesday's AFRO. Memory Verse: Only by pride cometh contention; but with the well advised is wisdom. Proverb 13: 10. Happy Easter Neighbors.

CATONSVILLE NOTES First spring dance set for Saturday

By SAMUEL TORSSELL Some members of Universal Lodge Masons of Annapolis, Md. were visitors to Landmark Lodge Masons Monday night, March 24. They were Past Master Wilbur Thompson, Brothers Hayward Gaskins, Tollie Vann Jr., Earnest Davis and Wilmer Altom. Past Exalted Rulers Council 27, Baltimore, held memorial service at the Spirit of Chesapeake Lodge Elks Home, Sunday, March 22, for the late Linwood Frazier.